PETER ANGELOS

MANAGING PARTNER

Peter Angelos, the Principal Owner and Managing Partner of the Baltimore Orioles, has brought dynamic leadership to the ballclub and to the community since he and his fellow investors restored the team to local ownership in August, 1993.

Under his 22-year stewardship, the Orioles have reached the American League Championship Series three times and the playoffs four times, led the league in attendance five times – the first times in franchise history – and hosted such historic occasions as the first games between a Major League Baseball team and Cuba in nearly 40 years and Cal Ripken's 2,131st consecutive game. In a testament to the enduring popularity of the team, in 2008 the Orioles welcomed their 100 millionth fan in franchise history and Oriole Park at Camden Yards welcomed its 50 millionth fan in just 17 seasons. Opened in 1992, Oriole Park is the ballpark which reached the 50 million fan milestone in the shortest period of time in the history of baseball.

The Orioles' ownership has committed to building a winner by rebuilding the farm system with young talent and utilizing analytics to identify complementary players. Under Mr. Angelos, the Orioles have dramatically increased their stake in scouting and player development, both in the United States and internationally. Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations Dan Duquette and his staff are paving the way to a new era of Orioles baseball designed to further fortify the player development and scouting areas while building on the talent already at the major league level. This commitment paid off in 2012, when players scouted internationally, including Miguel Gonzalez and Wei-Yin Chen, combined with homegrown talent to help the Orioles to the American League Wild Card and a trip to the Division Series. A second straight winning season followed in 2013, and the team captured the American League East Division title last year, winning 96 games and advancing to the American League Championship Series.

In addition, Mr. Angelos' vision in creating the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network maintained the integrity of the Orioles television territory. In conjunction with Major League Baseball's relocation of the Nationals in Washington, D.C., Mr. Angelos, refusing to allow the division or diminution of the Orioles' exclusive television territory, offered instead to share the Orioles' exclusive television territory with the Nationals and to form a jointly owned regional sports network that would professionally produce and present the games, shows, and programming of both teams throughout the Baltimore-Washington metropolitan area and the seven-state region served by MASN.

Orioles games are now distributed to a larger audience than ever, as the network is available to more than 7.4 million households from Harrisburg, Pennsylvania to Charlotte, North Carolina. The network introduced pregame and postgame shows for every game and recruited Emmy award-winning, network-caliber broadcast teams, which include Hall of Famers and World Series MVPs. While the Orioles maintain a majority ownership interest in the network, MASN treats both teams equally in all matters. In 2015, the network began its eleventh year televising Washington Nationals games and its eighth season as the Orioles' television outlet as part of its 24-hour programming schedule.

In addition to televising every available Nationals and Orioles game, Mr. Angelos wanted the network to highlight local collegiate programs whose games had not previously been televised. Many local Maryland schools are among the 100 NCAA football and basketball games televised by MASN every year.

Mr. Angelos has been an industry leader in professional baseball and has helped strengthen the national pastime. He was the only owner to serve on the committee that negotiated the historic 2002 labor agreement between Major League Baseball and the MLB Players Association – the first such agreement without a strike in the 30-plus years of labor negotiations between the groups. His involvement in those labor negotiations was hailed by both sides. Major League Baseball and the MLB Players Association were able to reach a five-year agreement without a strike, the first settlement without a work stoppage since the rise of the players' labor movement in 1969, setting the stage for a second such agreement in the fall of 2006.

The Orioles owner also has taken the lead in helping utilize baseball as a bridge among people. He spearheaded the effort to have the Orioles and a team of Cuba's best players engage in an historic two-game series in the two countries, a match-up viewed as a way to transcend politics and bring about closer cultural and social ties between the people of the United States and Cuba. He also helped to develop the first baseball team to represent Greece in Olympic baseball competition at the 2004 Olympics in Athens and thereafter to establish baseball on a permanent basis for Greek youth. This effort was done in compliance with former Commissioner Bud Selig's program to extend the internationalization of baseball.

At Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Mr. Angelos has taken constructive steps off the field to enhance the fan experience. In order to keep baseball games an affordable family experience, Angelos has insisted the club offer a range of ticket pricing. Furthermore, at his direction, Oriole Park maintains one of the most liberal food policies in all of professional sports, allowing outside food and beverages to be brought into the stadium. Despite an industry-wide trend towards selling stadium naming rights, Angelos has been steadfast in maintaining the integrity of Oriole Park at Camden Yards. In 2012, the fan experience was further enhanced by the addition of the Orioles Legends sculpture garden in the bullpen picnic area; the installation of the Roof Deck overlooking centerfield, a popular place for fans to gather and enjoy a unique ballpark view; and the lowering of the wall on the Flag Court, making it easier for fans to watch the game from this location.

In addition to building a club fans can be proud of, Mr. Angelos has overseen the efforts of the Orioles to make significant contributions to the community, particularly for children. Under Mr. Angelos' direction, the club launched OriolesREACH in 2007 to centralize its community relations initiatives in an effort to better reach those who needed the most assistance. Over 12,000 children experience a game at Oriole Park each season thanks to the OriolesREACH Gameday Experience Program, which provides complimentary tickets, transportation, concessions and souvenirs to those who might otherwise not be able to attend a game. Other annual OriolesREACH initiatives include the Food & Funds Drive, Blood Drive, Equipment Drive, and Kids Holiday Party, among other diverse and meaningful programs.

Through cash contributions, ticket and memorabilia donations, club resources and promotion, over 800 non-profit groups are aided by the Orioles each year. The Orioles Charitable Foundation has contributed to organizations such as the Salvation Army, the Cal Ripken Sr. Foundation, the National Kidney Foundation, House with a Heart, Junior Advancement, and the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society Brain Gala. Also among recipients of Orioles support is the John Steadman Cancer Initiative, which raises funds for cancer research and awareness in memory of the longtime Baltimore sportswriter who succumbed to the disease in 2001. Through its foundation and client contributions, the Orioles have donated millions of dollars to various charitable causes, including for the 16th straight year being sponsors of the Baltimore Symphony Gala. Earlier this year, the Orioles partnered with the American Heart Association (AHA) to serve as mission engagement chair for the 31st Annual Baltimore Heart Ball, after serving as event chair for the 30st Baltimore Heart Ball in 2014. The Orioles became the first professional sports team to lead such an effort since the AHA's founding in 1924. The 2014 event raised a record-setting $810,000 to benefit breakthroughs in cardiovascular disease research, education programs and advocacy efforts. A considerable portion of the funds are directed to local institutions such as Johns Hopkins and the University of Maryland.

The son of Greek immigrants, Mr. Angelos was born July 4, 1929 in Pittsburgh, PA. The family moved to Baltimore and he was raised in the industrial neighborhood of Highlandtown in East Baltimore. He graduated from Patterson Park High School and from the University of Baltimore, where he was valedictorian of his class at the School of Law. An attorney since 1961, he has built the Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos, P.C., into one of the nation's leading personal injury law firms representing the victims of harmful products. Throughout his legal career, Angelos has been a champion for ordinary citizens and has taken on some of the most powerful corporations in the country, including asbestos manufacturers, the tobacco companies and the pharmaceutical industry.

Mr. Angelos, who was elected to and served on the Baltimore City Council from 1959 to 1963, has long been active in civic and community endeavors. He currently is Chairman of WestSide Renaissance, Inc., the non-profit organization of civic leaders that is spearheading the $1 billion revitalization of Downtown Baltimore's west side. He also is a board member and major benefactor of Charles Street Development Corp., which is working to enhance Baltimore's historic avenue. In this regard, he has entered into a unique partnership with the Johns Hopkins University School of Continuing Studies to ensure they maintain its presence in the downtown area with a building at Charles and Fayette Streets devoted to business education.

Mr. Angelos serves as a member of the board for a number of colleges, hospitals and civic organizations and has been widely honored for his commitment to higher education and civic causes. He has received honorary doctorate degrees from Mount Saint Mary's College, Loyola College of Maryland, and the University of Baltimore. He is a member of the Business-Higher Education Forum, the Supreme Court Historical Society, the American Academy of Achievement, and the Ellis Island Medal of Honor Society. He is a recipient of the AFL-CIO Social Justice Award.

Mr. Angelos is also a strong supporter of the Reginald F. Lewis Museum of Maryland African American History and Culture. He serves on the Baltimore museum's Board of Directors and, in addition to giving personal financial support, was instrumental in helping the museum secure funding from the state of Maryland.

In 2008, he made a $5 million, dollar-for-dollar matching pledge to support the construction of a new 190,000 square foot law school building that opened in April 2013 as part of the John and Frances Angelos Law Center at the University of Baltimore Law School. In both 2010 and 2013, Mr. Angelos donated an additional $5 million to his alma mater, bringing his total contribution to the project to $15 million. Mr. Angelos also donated $1 million to the University of Baltimore School of Law in 2013 to support the academic partnership between the law school and historically black colleges and universities, an initiative renamed for his sister, the Fannie Angelos Program for Academic Excellence.

In 2013, Mr. Angelos and his wife, Georgia, donated $2.5 million to St. Agnes Hospital in Baltimore for the Angelos Medical Pavilion, a new medical building featuring an expanded cancer institute that opened in the spring. This past November, Mr. Angelos also contributed $2.5 million to Franklin Square Hospital for the construction of the Angelos Center for Lung Diseases, a new lung disease treatment center that marked the largest gift in the hospital's history. The new facility opened in the spring of 2014.

Mr. Angelos also serves as a Member of the Board of the following institutions and foundations: Johns Hopkins University; University of Maryland Medical Systems Corporation; St. Joseph Medical Center Foundation; George Meany Center-National Labor College; Loyola College in Maryland; and the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra. He is a member of The Johns Hopkins Medicine Board of Visitors, the Advisory Board of the University of Baltimore School of Law, and the Board of Visitors of the University of Baltimore. Mr. Angelos is also an active supporter of the Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (ALS) Association and was the first ever $1 million donor to the United Way's Central Maryland chapter.

The Baltimore Urban League presented him with its Whitney Young, Jr. Memorial Award for his commitment to furthering the quality of life for the citizens of Greater Baltimore. He also has been honored by the NAACP, the Associated Black Charities of Maryland and the Johns Hopkins Allen L. Berman University Real Estate Institute. In 1998, The Baltimore Sun named Peter G. Angelos as its Man of the Year, and in 2013, he was selected as an Influential Marylander for Philanthropy by the Maryland Daily Record.

Mr. Angelos and his wife have two sons, John and Louis. John is an Executive Vice President with the Orioles and MASN, while Louis is an attorney with the Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos.

OWNERSHIP OF THE ORIOLES

On October 4, 1993, American League owners unanimously approved the sale of ownership of the Orioles from then-principal shareholder Eli S. Jacobs to a group of investors led by Baltimorean Peter Angelos. The sale placed the Orioles in local hands for the first time since 1979, when Jerold C. Hoffberger, representing his family, which owned a controlling interest in both the Orioles and the National Brewing Company, sold the franchise to prominent Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams.

From October 29, 1953, when the transfer of the St. Louis Browns franchise became official until Williams purchased the club late in 1979, the Baltimore Baseball Club, Inc. was publicly held and was operated by a group of Baltimore investors which owned a majority share of the BBCI. Among those who played key roles in the operation of the franchise during that 26-year period were: Former chief executives Clarence Miles, who organized the group that secured the St. Louis Browns for Baltimore and who served as the club's first president; James Keelty, Jr.; Joseph A. W. Iglehart; and Jerry Hoffberger, as well as longtime club treasurer Zanvyl Krieger ('58-'79).

JOHN P. ANGELOS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Now in his 22nd season with the Orioles, John Angelos is responsible for the general business operations of the club. In addition, Angelos has been involved since 2001 in the planning, development, and launch of the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network (MASN), the regional sports and entertainment television network owned in partnership with the Washington Nationals, and he has been responsible since 2005 for the full-time launch and now oversight of the twenty-four hour, year-round television network.

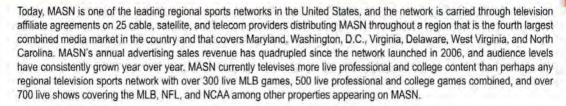

During the past decade, Angelos has worked to enhance every facet of the club's business operations. In addition to overseeing general operations, ranging from sales and marketing to venue operations to broadcasting, Angelos has in particular focused upon expanding the reach, activation, and revenue potential of the Orioles' various television, radio, mobile, and internet multimedia platforms. In 2010, Angelos was recognized by Sports Business Journal as one of ten top "decision-makers" in the United States with regard to the growth of online streaming of sports content for his vision and understanding of the economics of sports marketing and content distribution.

Angelos expanded the Orioles radio platform in 2006 by launching the Orioles Radio Network, the franchise's in-house radio arm, to bring the club comprehensive control of all aspects of its network affiliate distribution, programming development, sales and sponsorship revenues, and marketing and development of the Orioles brand on the radio platform. The move brought dramatic new pre-game and post-game shows, enhanced in-game features and interview content to listeners and fans, an enhanced talent team focused upon former Orioles players, incremental access to Orioles games on radio for millions of new fans, and enhanced new sponsorship sales and co-marketing opportunities for Orioles partners. In the Baltimore market, the groundbreaking radio rightsholder partnership resulted in the expansion of the Orioles radio presence from that of a single broadcast station to a strategic partnership featuring a co-marketing and promotional reach across the region. Due to the launch, the club was able to triple the distribution of the Orioles Radio Network, which is now broadcast on over 35 affiliated stations reaching millions of listeners in seven Mid-Atlantic States.

Angelos played a pivotal role in contributing to planning, launching, expanding, and overseeing the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network from the earliest development stages through realization. From 2002, by virtue of his oversight of the Orioles in-house television operations up to and through the planning stages for the club's future regional sports network, Angelos focused upon enhancing the club's outreach to fans and sponsors along its television platform through development of programming and content, distribution, and sales opportunities. In 2005 and 2006, Angelos was instrumental in executing the launch of MASN first as a games-only network and soon thereafter as a twenty-four hour per day, year-round television network that was to soon lead the regional sports television industry on numerous fronts, including in the fields of game production, live programming, technology, marketing, and affiliate distribution. By 2006, as COO of MASN, and as MASN established significantly expanded carriage throughout its designated seven-state territory, he spearheaded efforts to, for the very first time in the Mid-Atlantic region, carry one-hundred percent of the game schedule of both baseball clubs to sports viewers and later lead the charge to make every game carried on the network available in high-definition (HD) format. As a result, MASN became the leading regional sports network in the country in telecasting over 300 live MLB games in state of the art HD format. Under Angelos' watch, the network created originally produced, high quality pre-game shows, post-game shows, magazine format shows, and a variety of live and pre-packaged special programming and brought this programming for the very first time to the region's sports viewers.

Angelos recruited a high-profile, nationally recognized executive team and on-air talent team for all MASN game and show telecasts and oversaw the implementation by MASN's expert production team of important and unprecedented live television production enhancements at the regional sports network level that had typically been only experienced by viewers of national sports networks. In addition to telecasting all games in HD, these enhancements included the incorporation of "super-slo" motion cameras, remote field cameras, in-game player and manager interviews, five in-ballpark studio and off-site studio updates, and the integration of MASN's "Live-360 Degree" use of talent and content interchangeably across MASN's multiple television, internet, and mobile platforms as well as across the clubs' various radio, internet, and in-venue platforms

Each of these enhancements was introduced to the region's MLB and sports fans on a regional sports network for the very first time by MASN. Angelos oversaw the creation and content development of the MASNsports.com website, the creation of numerous strategic multimedia content sharing and co-marketing partnerships with several dominant television and radio stations and media entities in the Baltimore, Washington, D.C., and other regional markets, and the development of the launch marketing, on-air look and feel, and MASN's marketing and creative departments have consistently produced a compendium of award-winning on-air and off -air creative advertising and media marketing campaigns designed to launch the network, drive tune-in audience, and establish brand value and fan affinity for MASN. Under Angelos' direction, MASN's executive team of production and marketing experts were recognized on behalf of the network with 31 awards for creative and promotional excellence, including 24 Addy Awards, 6 Emmys, and the American Marketing Association's prestigious Award of Excellence.

In 2011, Angelos worked to successfully conclude an eight-year project that he personally led on behalf of the team to bring the Orioles and its fans a permanent Spring Training home in a modern, state-of-the-art training facility in Sarasota, FL. Angelos represented the club in numerous jurisdictions before both House of Representative and Senate legislative bodies in the State of Florida as well as before various County and City Commissions and other local bodies throughout the state while leading the club in first conceptual discussions and later negotiations with elected representatives and public officials, business leaders, Chambers of Commerce, State and County tourism representatives and hotel associations, and civic, charitable, and non-profit groups, Angelos negotiated directly with State, County, and local officials in executing and concluding the successful effort that authored a unique multi-dimensional public-private partnership proposal that called upon the State of Florida, Sarasota County, and the Orioles to create a partnership in Orioles Spring Training that would provide a state-of-the-art scouting and player development facility for the team, economic activity and corporate citizenry and other benefits for the local community, and hundreds of millions of dollars in economic impact through spring tourism incubation for the Sarasota community and for the State of Florida.

Angelos' unique proposal, which included an industry-first multimedia marketing, promotion, and business-to-business incubation program hailed by local tourism, civic, and political officials for its activation of a sister-city relationship and as a driver of economic development and goodwill on behalf of the Orioles and MLB, and his stewardship of the project culminated in a comprehensive partnership agreement between the State of Florida, Sarasota County, the City of Sarasota, and the Orioles that both secured the team's place in Florida for many decades to come for the benefit of local residents and secured $31.2 million in public funding and a new athletic development facility for the benefit of the team and its many fans.

Angelos joined the Orioles organization in January 1994 as Special Assistant to the Chairman who oversaw the reorganization of the Sales, Ticketing, Ballpark Operations, and Customer Service departments of the franchise to provide more personal service to fans. In the role of Executive Vice President of the club since 1999, Angelos' responsibilities expanded in that role to include all Marketing and Promotion, Sales, Broadcasting, Operations, and General and Administrative areas, and all Business Operations of the franchise. In 2001, as part of his broadcasting development role, Angelos participated in instituting and further developing Orioles Television, the in-house television production, sales, and distribution arm of the Orioles franchise that would later evolve into the full time regional sports television network MASN in 2005.

After graduating from the Gilman School in Baltimore, Angelos received a Bachelor's in Political Science from Duke University and then earned a law degree (J.D.) from the University of Baltimore School of Law.

ROBERT AMES

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Bob Ames enters his 22nd year with the Orioles. He joined the team in April of 1994 and was promoted to Vice President in January of 1999. In his role, Ames is responsible for administration, accounting, information systems, human resources, purchasing, retail sales, insurance, and special projects. He also serves on the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond Consumer Payments Advisory Council.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Ames served as Treasurer of Waverly, Inc. in Baltimore for eight years. While with Waverly, he managed taxes, accounts receivable, and credit and collections, as well as the treasury departments. He previously worked for the U.S. Government in their Chemical Research and Development Center.

A native Baltimorean, Ames received a Bachelor of Science degree in Microbiology and a Bachelor of Science degree in Journalism and Public Relations as a magna cum laude graduate of the University of Maryland in 1980. In 1987, he earned his Master's Degree in Finance from the University of Baltimore. Ames is a Certified Public Accountant and is a member of the Maryland Association of CPAs, the American Institute of CPAs, and the Society for Human Resources Management.

Ames resides in Churchville, MD, with his wife Linda, their daughter Kaitlin, and their son, Benjamin. He is a passionate gardener, and is also active in his church, Mountain Christian.

LOU KOUSOURIS

VICE PRESIDENT/SPECIAL LIAISON TO THE CHAIRMAN

Now in his 22^{nd} season with the team, Lou Kousouris joined the Orioles in February 1994 and was promoted to Vice President prior to the 1999 season. Kousouris has worked for Peter Angelos since 1981 in the real estate and hospitality industries.

After attending the Boys Latin School, Lou received a Bachelor's degree in Sociology from C.W. Post College in Greenvale, NY, where he played football and lacrosse. After graduation, he coached both of these sports on the high school and college levels. In addition, Kousouris coached youth lacrosse in Baltimore for more than 10 years.

Kousouris is very active in the community. He purchased Camp Puh'tok, a 501(c)(3) summer camp for children ages 6-16, in Monkton, MD. He also has served as chairman of The Salvation Army's Advisory Board for the Baltimore Area Command and has helped raise over $4 million for Camp Puh'tok. In 2005, he was honored with The Salvation Army's "Others" award, joining a select few individuals nationally in recognition of his service and fundraising support to the organization.

In November 1998, Kousouris was instrumental in coordinating the 1958 Baltimore Colts Anniversary Banquet. Proceeds from the event benefited the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease) research. He continues to assist the American Cancer Society, the Maryland Food Bank, and numerous local non-profit organizations and schools in their fund-raising efforts.

A Baltimore native, Kousouris resides in Sparks, MD with his wife Pat. They have two children: Louis III, a West Point graduate and Army veteran who lives in Baltimore and works for a commercial real estate company; and Alexi, a graduate of the University of Georgia and of the University of Baltimore School of Law who serves as the Director of Camp Puh'tok.

VICE PRESIDENT, TICKETING AND FAN SERVICES

Neil Aloise was named Vice President of Ticketing and Fan Services in November 2012 after serving as the team's Director of Sales and Fan Services since 2007. He oversees all of the operational and customer service aspects of the ballpark experience, including ticketing, ballpark operations, and food services.

Aloise originally joined the Orioles in 1998 as a part-time Fan Services Representative. He served as Box Office Manager from 2001-2004 and Assistant Director of Tickets from 2005-2007.

A native of Bel Air, MD and a graduate of Towson University, Aloise resides in Towson.

GREG BADER

VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNICATIONS AND MARKETING

A member of the Orioles' organization for 21 seasons, Greg Bader was named the club's Vice President of Communications and Marketing in November 2012. In his current role, Bader oversees the club's marketing, advertising, public relations, broadcasting, publishing, productions, and community relations efforts.

Bader began his Orioles career in 1994, working seasonally in public relations, ticketing, and Orioles productions. He joined the club full-time in 1998 as a premium sales representative and serving as an assistant to club ownership on special projects, including VIP ticketing and the launch of the Exclusively Orioles premium ticket program. In 1999, Bader added spring training duties to his responsibilities, serving as Spring Training Coordinator and overseeing the club's operations in Fort Lauderdale until 2002.

In 2003, Bader assumed the role of advertising and affiliate relations manager, coordinating club advertising as well as relationships with minor league affiliates and later the Orioles Radio Network, which grew from 10 stations to over 40 within three years.

Bader was named Communications Director in January 2007, overseeing the team's public relations, advertising, broadcasting, and publishing departments. While in that role, Bader assisted in two radio flagship transitions and two brand identity transformations -- the return of "Baltimore" to the team's road jerseys in 2009 and the return of a new cartoon bird in 2012.

A native of Baltimore, Bader graduated from the Gilman School and Trinity College (Hartford, CT) with a degree in Political Science. He resides in Bel Air, MD.

MARCO GENTILE

VICE PRESIDENT, CORPORATE PARTNERSHIPS

Marco Gentile was named Vice President of Corporate Partnerships in January of 2014. In his role, Gentile oversees the corporate partnerships department, which includes sponsorship advertising sales, and partnership marketing. His team develops strategic, targeted, and customized marketing solutions for new and returning corporate partners to enhance the relationship between the business community and the ballclub.

Gentile rejoined the Orioles after spending more than six years with the Washington Capitals, where he most recently served as Senior Director of Corporate Sponsorship Sales. In addition to the Capitals, Gentile negotiated corporate partnerships for the entire Monumental Sports & Entertainment family, including the Wizards, Mystics and the Verizon Center in Washington, DC.

A Baltimore native, Gentile spent the first decade of his career with the Orioles, starting as an intern in the club's fan services and promotions departments before moving into a full-time role in Corporate Sales. Gentile worked in the club's Corporate Sales department until July 2007, serving in numerous roles including National Sponsorship Sales Manager. He was responsible for selling in-ballpark, radio, television, and print advertising to local, regional, and national partners.

Gentile received his Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Business Administration from Loyola University Maryland. He has been an adjunct professor of Sports Marketing at his alma mater since 2007. Gentile and his wife, Gisele, reside in Crofton.

MIKE HOPPES

VICE PRESIDENT, FINANCE

Mike Hoppes joined the Orioles in 1986 as a staff accountant. Now in his 28th year with the club, Hoppes was named Vice President of Finance in November 2012 after serving as Director of Finance since 2006. He is responsible for oversight of the team's finance and accounting functions.

Before joining the Orioles, Hoppes worked for two years as a staff auditor with Arthur Andersen LLP. He received his CPA certification in 1987.

A graduate of Seneca Valley High School in Germantown, MD, where he was a state champion in the two-mile run, Hoppes also ran track and cross-country at the University of Delaware, where he graduated cum laude in accounting.

Hoppes resides in Baldwin, MD with his wife, Dana. They have two children: Drew, a graduate of Gettysburg College who works as a health care benefits consultant in Hunt Valley, and Kara, who attends the University of Delaware. Hoppes spent several years in leadership roles with the Carroll Manor Recreation Programs and enjoys animals, traveling, and exercising in his free time.

VICE PRESIDENT, ORIOLES

David Rovine joined the Orioles as Vice President of Orioles-Sarasota in February of 2013 to oversee the club's Sarasota business affairs and community development. Rovine leads the Orioles' year-round engagement with the Sarasota community through OriolesREACH and Sarasota 365, which includes hosting youth activities, participating in charitable causes, and partnering in efforts to boost the local economy, He currently serves on the boards of the Greater Sarasota Chamber of Commerce and Visit

Sarasota County (VSC), and is a member of the VSC Sports Committee. In 2013, Rovine introduced the "Arts in the Ballpark" series of family-friendly arts and entertainment events at Ed Smith Stadium, in association with local arts organizations.

A native of Baltimore and graduate of Towson University, Rovine has extensive experience in marketing and venue management. He spent seven years with SMG Entertainment, a worldwide entertainment and convention venue management company. In his roles as General Manager of the Mahaffey Theater in St. Petersburg and the Genesee Theatre in Waukegan, IL, Rovine was responsible for day-to-day operations, marketing, and talent booking for these historic venues. Rovine's experience also includes nearly nine years as Director of Marketing at Gulfstream Park in Hallandale Beach, where he oversaw advertising and promotion and was responsible for attracting and coordinating concerts and other non-racing events.

DAN DUQUETTE

A veteran of over two decades in baseball operations at the Major League level, including 12 seasons as General Manager or Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations with the Montreal Expos. Boston Red Sox, and Orioles, Dan Duquette has a proven track record of utilizing strong scouting and player development to construct contending franchises.

Under Duquette's leadership, the 2014 Orioles posted the club's third straight winning season, including the second-best record in the major leagues at 96-66, and won the American League East division title for the first time since 1997. After sweeping the Detroit Tigers in the American League Division Series, 3-0, the Orioles advanced to the American League Championship Series for the first time since 1997 where they fell to the Kansas City Royals in four games. Following the season, Duquette became the first Oriole to be recognized with Baseball America's Executive of the Year honor, as the Orioles became the third organization to be awarded both Baseball America's Executive of the Year and Manager of the Year accolades after Buck Showalter was named the latter just days later. Following the 2014 season, he was also named MLB Executive of the Year by the Boston chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America. He had previously won the award in 1995.

In 2013, the Orioles went 85-77 and remained in playoff contention until the season's final week. The year included Duquette's 1,000th career victory in a general manager role with a major league team. In 2012, the Orioles made their first playoff appearance since 1997, winning 93 games and the American League Wild Card, and pushing the AL Division Series to five games.

During his time with the Orioles, Duquette also improved the club's player development operations and directed additional resources into analytics and video assets in an effort to maintain a consistently competitive team at the major league level.

Duquette's eight seasons as Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Red Sox from 1994 through 2001 included three playoff teams (1995, 1998 and 1999), and his acquisitions helped lay the groundwork for the club's 93 wins in 2002 and their first World Series championship in 86 years in 2004. The club made the playoffs in back-to-back years in 1998 and 1999, the first time in 80 seasons the franchise had accomplished the feat. Numerous key contributors on the 2004 team were acquired during Duquette's tenure. Under his leadership, Boston compiled a .544 winning percentage (695-582).

Duquette also showed a commitment to expanding Boston's reach in the international market, finishing the 2001 season with 12 of the players on the club's 40-man roster born outside the United States. At Boston's 2002 spring training camp, players from 10 different countries were represented.

The Red Sox minor league system was shaped into a feeder system for the major league club under Duquette's watch, with homegrown players including Nomar Garciaparra, Shea Hillenbrand, Casey Fossum, and Trot Nixon making contributions to the team. Future major league players Kevin Youkilis, David Eckstein, Hanley Ramirez, and Freddy Sanchez were also drafted or signed during Duquette's tenure. The talent in the Red Sox minor league system also enabled Duquette to trade for Pedro Martinez, and for Boston to later acquire Curt Schilling and Josh Beckett. Red Sox minor league affiliates finished with an overall record over .500 in five of Duquette's last six seasons with the organization.

Prior to joining the Red Sox, Duquette spent six seasons with the Montreal Expos, joining the club as Director of Player Development in October 1987 and being promoted to Assistant General Manager in 1990, followed by a two-year stint as Vice President and General Manager from 1992 to 1993. At the time of his promotion, he was the youngest General Manager in the major leagues. During his six years with Montreal, Duquette was instrumental in assembling Expos teams that contended from 1992-94, and acquiring Ken Hill, Mel Rojas, Larry Walker, John Wetteland, Marquis Grissom, Jeff Shaw, and Pedro Martinez. He also signed stars Vladimir Guerrero, Jose Vidro, and Javier Vazquez and named Felipe Alou the first manager from the Dominican Republic in major league history in 1992.

Despite one of the lowest payrolls in baseball, Montreal compiled a 255-183 record (.582 winning percentage) from 1992-94, the best record in baseball over the span. The Expos had baseball's best record in the strike-shortened 1994 season (74-40), a team Duquette constructed. In 1992, Duquette was named The Sporting News Major League Executive of the Year and the UPI National League Executive of the Year, and the Expos were honored as the Topps Major League Organization of the Year in 1993.

Duquette began his career in baseball with the Milwaukee Brewers in 1981, working in the scouting department under former Orioles general manager Harry Dalton. He spent a total of seven years in scouting and player development with the Brewers from 1981 through 1987, the last two as Scouting Coordinator.

In 2003, Duquette founded and built the Dan Duquette Sports Academy, a Massachusetts-based baseball, softball and soccer camp and tournament facility for youth. In 2004, he purchased the Pittsfield Dukes of the New England Collegiate Baseball League and in 2007, Duquette became a founding member and director of player development of the Israel Baseball League.

A native of Dalton, MA, Duquette, 56, earned a degree in English from Amherst College and played on the school's baseball and football teams. Dan lives in Pasadena, MD with his wife Amy and their daughters Kylie and Katie and sons Brodie and Colt. Dan's daughter Denise and sons Daniel and Dana reside in Massachusetts.

BRADY ANDERSON

VICE PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Brady Anderson was named Vice President of Baseball Operations in February 2013. In his role, he collaborates with Dan Duquette and manager Buck Showalter on player development and roster management while overseeing strength and conditioning training and nutrition for the organization. He began consulting with the Orioles on hitting instruction and strength and conditioning training in 2010 before joining the team as Special Assistant to the Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations in 2012.

A veteran of 15 major league seasons, 14 with Baltimore, Anderson holds the Orioles' all-time stolen bases record (307) and ranks among the top 10 in Orioles career batting leaders in 12 categories. He is one of two players in major league history with both a 50 home run season (50, 1996) and a 50 stolen base season (53, 1992), Anderson's six career postseason home runs are tied for second in club history (with Eddie Murray and Boog Powell), trailing only Frank Robinson's nine postseason homers. He was inducted into the Orioles Hall of Fame in 2004.

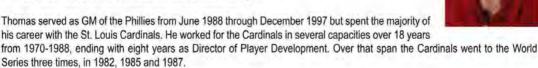

Acquired by the Orioles along with Curt Schilling during the 1988 season from Boston in exchange for Mike Boddicker, Anderson was named to the American League All-Star team three times, in 1992, 1996 and 1997, starting the last two seasons.

Anderson resides in Los Angeles in the offseason with his daughter, Brianna.

LEE THOMAS

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF BASEBALL OPERATION

Lee Thomas joined the Orioles in December 2011, bringing over five decades of experience in professional baseball to his role, highlighted by Executive of the Year honors in 1993 after leading the Philadelphia Phillies to the World Series as General Manager.

Thomas played eight seasons in Major League Baseball from 1961-68 with the New York Yankees, California Angels (currently the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim), Boston Red Sox, Atlanta Braves, Chicago Cubs and Houston Astros. An outfielder and first baseman, Thomas was named to the American League All-Star team in 1962.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Thomas worked as a pro scout for the Milwaukee Brewers from 2004 to 2006. Previously, he worked for six seasons as Special Assistant to the General Manager and Assistant General Manager for the Red Sox, working closely with Dan Duquette the majority of those years.

Lee and his wife Susan reside in Chesterfield, MO.

FRED FERREIRA

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, INTERNATIONAL RECRUITING

Fred Ferreira joined the Orioles in December 2011 as Executive Director of International Recruiting. Known as "The Shark of the Caribbean", Ferreira has demonstrated a keen ability to find talent in Latin America. Entering the 2015 season, he has had 69 signees reach the Major Leagues, highlighted by stars Vladimir Guerrero, Bernie Williams, Orlando Cabrera, Jose Video, Roberto Kelly, and Javier Vazquez. In March of 2012, Ferreira signed Miguel Gonzalez as a minor league free agent after seeing him pitch in the Mexican Winter League. Recalled by the Orioles that July, Gonzalez has gone on to win

30 games for the Orioles over his three-year career and has made two postseason starts. Ferreira was honored by Major League Baseball as International Scout of the Year for 2012, and his scouting reports and passport have been included in an exhibition at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

Ferreira has over four decades of experience in professional baseball operations and worked as Vice President and Director of International Operations and Scouting for the Montreal Expos and Florida (Miami) Marlins prior to joining the Orioles. He also served as Director of International Operations and Scouting for the New York Yankees and Cincinnati Reds and scouted for the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim.

Ferreira also has managerial experience, spending two seasons (1986-87) as the manager of the Yankees' Gulf Coast League affiliate and managing in the Dominican Winter Leagues. He opened the Yankees' Dominican Academy, the first of its kind among major league organizations, and worked for two World Series teams, the Reds (1979) and Marlins (2003).

Ferreira and his wife, Faye, have three daughters - Darlene, Debra and Denise.

BRIAN GRAHAM

DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Brian begins his 34th year in professional baseball, his eighth with the Baltimore Orioles, and his third as Director of Player Development. In this role, Brian oversees the instruction and development process for the Orioles' minor league system.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Brian spent six seasons as the Senior Director of Player Development for the Pittsburgh Pirates. During his tenure, the Pirates' minor league system was recognized as the best Player Development System in baseball, earning the 2002 Topps Baseball "Organization of the Year" and totaling 54 homegrown players who reached the major league level. Graham also served as the interim General Manager for the Pittsburgh Pirates in 2007.

Before joining the Pirates, Brian was a major league coach with the American League Central Division Champion Cleveland Indians (1998-1999) and with the Orioles (2000). Graham spent the 2001 season as the Field Coordinator for the Florida (currently Miami) Marlins.

As a minor league manager in the Cleveland Indians organization, Brian managed eight consecutive playoff teams, compiled a 704-491 (.589) record, and finished above .500 for nine consecutive years. He was named the Carolina League's Manager-of-the-Year in 1991, the "Best Managerial Prospect" by Eastern League Managers/Baseball America magazine in 1993, and Minor League Manager-of-the-Year by USA Today's Baseball Weekly in 1996. Brian also managed in the Dominican Republic Winter League for Aguilas Cibaenas (1991) and was a coach (1993) and a manager (1994) in the Arizona Fall League.

Originally selected by the Oakland Athletics in the fourth round of the 1982 First-Year Player Draft, the former middle infielder played five seasons in the minor leagues with Oakland, Milwaukee, Detroit, and Cleveland.

Graham played both football and baseball at UCLA and was a member of the 1978 Fiesta Bowl team. He was a first-team, all PAC-10 infielder in 1982, and finished his collegiate career as UCLA's all-time leader in hits, stolen bases and runs scored. Graham was elected to the UCLA Baseball Hall of Fame in 1996, inducted into the Buffalo Bisons Hall of Fame in 2008, and inducted into the Granite Hills High School Hall of Fame in 2009.

Graham's contributions to minor league baseball were recognized in December 2013 when he was selected as the winner of the annual Sheldon "Chief" Bender Award, presented by Minor League Baseball to an individual with distinguished service who has been instrumental in player development.

Born April 9, 1960 in San Diego, Brian graduated from Granite Hills High School in 1978 and attended UCLA for four years before receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in Behavioral Science from National University in San Diego. Graham resides in Cranberry Township, PA, with his wife Karen and three children; son Jack (22) and daughters Kelsey (20) and Kendall (12).

TRIPP NORTON

DIRECTOR, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

A member of the Orioles' baseball operations staff since 1998, Tripp Norton was named the club's Director of Baseball Operations in August of 2014. In his current role, Norton assists Dan Duquette in all facets of baseball operations, with particular focus on major league player contract negotiations and overseeing all budgeting for the entire baseball operation. Additionally, he coordinates the club's salary arbitration program under the direction of club General Counsel H. Russell Smouse.

Norton was previously the club's Director of Baseball Administration, a role he held since January of 2012. From 2000 to 2012, he served as the Assistant Director of Player Development. He started with the Orioles in March 1998 as Player Development Administrator. Prior to joining the Orioles, Norton worked for the Detroit Tigers organization as their Assistant General Manager for Florida Operations from August 1994 to March 1998 and worked as an Operations Assistant for the Florida Marlins the two years prior. Norton began his baseball career as an intern with the Lakeland Tigers in 1992.

A graduate of Florida Southern College and Hialeah-Miami Lakes High School, Norton grew up in Miami Lakes, FL. He and his wife, Angel, reside in Phoenix, MD with their son, Ty.

ORIOLES REACH

ORIOLES REACH IN THE COMMUNITY

For more than 60 years, the Baltimore Orioles have worked hard to give back to the local community, becoming involved in a variety of area programs and initiatives. Through OriolesREACH, the team seeks opportunities to reach out to our neighbors and help our fans improve their daily lives. In addition to partnering with existing charities and community organizations, the Orioles have also established a collection of programs and initiatives to extend our reach.

OriolesREACH offers unlimited opportunities to raise awareness of companies' association with the Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Baltimore Orioles, Inc. Since the ownership group led by Peter Angelos purchased the team, the Baltimore Orioles have donated more than $10 million to support various organizations in the Orioles community.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES CHARITABLE FOUNDATION & BALTIMORE ORIOLES LIMITED PARTNERSHIP

The Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Baltimore Orioles, Inc. support many civic and charitable organizations with the goal of enriching the lives of fans in the community. The foundation raises money through various means and donates those monies to worthy local causes and charities.

OriolesREACH actively supports initiatives involving youth growth and development through social responsibility, youth education and baseball programs, military initiatives, and cause-related programs.

YOUTH DEVELOPMENT

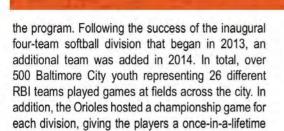

ORIOLES EXPAND REVIVING BASEBALL IN THE INNER CITY (RBI) PROGRAM

Funded by the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation, the Reviving Baseball in the Inner City (RBI) League was established to help Baltimore City kids build self-esteem while learning baseball skills in a fun and safe environment.

Each summer, hundreds of Baltimore youth have the chance to play baseball and softball through opportunity to play baseball on a major league field at

Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

In July 2014, an All-Star team comprised of fifteen 11-12 year-old softball division participants flew to Minnesota for the All-Star Jr. RBI Classic as part of Major League Baseball's All-Star Week festivities. Major League Baseball provided travel, lodging, equipment, and uniforms for all participants.

The Orioles also provided additional unique experiences for RBI participants, including clinics featuring instruction from current and former players, and distributed dozens of tickets to participants for Games 1 and 2 of the 2014 American League Division Series.

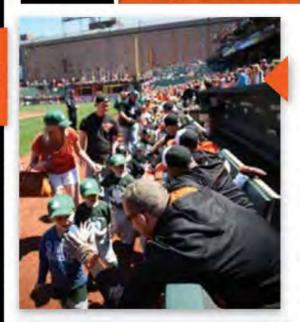

On August 29, 2014, before the Orioles took on the Minnesota Twins, the club recognized players and coaches of the Baltimore RBI League champion teams in a special on-field ceremony. Each division champion – the Maryland Warriors (10-12 age group), the Middle River Mayhem (13-15 age group), the Colgate Panthers (16-18 age group), and the Edreco Eagles (softball) – was honored in the pregame ceremony.

ORIOLES REACH GAMEDAY EXPERIENCE PROGRAM

Each season, the Orioles and OriolesREACH host more than 12,000 children from disadvantaged areas in the region to experience the magic of Orioles Baseball as part of the OriolesREACH Gameday Experience Program. Participants receive complimentary game tickets, concessions vouchers, Orioles t-shirts, caps, and transportation to and from the game. In 2014, the program was expanded to include the postseason, as the Orioles hosted a total of nearly 2,000 at-risk children during the four playoff games at Oriole Park. Additionally, the Orioles auctioned off several pairs of front row, field box tickets to ALDS Games 1 and 2, raising $13,000 to benefit the participating non-profit groups. More than 120,000 children have participated since the program's inception.

YOUTH DAYS AT THE BALLPARK

The Orioles hosted more than 47,000 youth at Oriole Park in 2014 through their 60th annual Safety Patrol Day (10,000), three Little League Days (14,300), Scout Night (1,600), Baltimore City Schools Night (7,000), Buddies Night (3,000), and Field Trip Day presented by MASN & WJZ-TV (12,000).

CHALLENGER LEAGUE

Through a collaboration of OriolesREACH and the Oriole Advocates, the Orioles supported various Challenger League efforts in the Maryland region.

The Challenger League offers boys and girls with physical and mental challenges the opportunity to participate in an organized game of baseball. The most fundamental mission of the Challenger League is to give everyone a chance to play. The goals of the Challenger League program are to provide children with physical or developmental challenges an opportunity to enjoy the enriching experiences that playing baseball provides; increase awareness of Challenger programs in order to increase the number of children served; provide children from different geographic areas the opportunity to meet others in similar programs; and assist leaders of Challenger teams by providing a forum for sharing ideas between programs.

The Orioles and the Oriole Advocates joined efforts to support local Challenger Leagues by off-setting expenses to host tournaments, providing equipment, umpires and facility usage, and much more.

The Orioles donate $5 from every Junior Orioles Dugout Club Membership sold at Oriole Park to the Oriole Advocate Charitable Foundation to benefit Challenger League efforts.

28th ANNUAL ORIOLES REACH FOOD DRIVE

The Orioles Wives, Oriole Advocates, MASN, and WJZ-TV teamed up to host the 28th Annual OriolesREACH Food and Funds Drive at Oriole Park from July 11-13, 2014 to benefit the Maryland Food Bank. Representatives were stationed at each entry gate at the park to collect non-perishable food items and monetary donations for the Maryland Food Bank and their work with local soup kitchens, food pantries, and emergency shelters throughout Maryland. More than 5,800 pounds of food and over $28,000 in cash donations were collected.

ORIOLES REACH

YOUTH CLINICS

Throughout 2014, the Orioles and OriolesREACH hosted and participated in numerous youth baseball and softball clinics throughout the Maryland region.

On May 10, the Orioles conducted a clinic for 100 Fort Meade Little Leaguers, highlighting pitching, fielding, baserunning, and hitting with the help of current Orioles Darren O'Day and Chris Tillman, as well as third base coach Bobby Dickerson and former Oriole Al Bumbry. In addition to training, each child enjoyed refreshments provided by the Mobile USO. The Orioles gave each participant an Orioles hat and t-shirt, and the club also donated tickets to clinic participants for a future Orioles game.

On May 24, Orioles minor leaguers Bobby Bundy, Jonah Heim, Steve Johnson, Sean McAdams, and Nik Nowottnick joined Orioles Hall of Famer Scott McGregor and minor league field coach Scott Thomas to provide 50 children from the Roy McBean Boys & Girls Club in Sarasota a baseball clinic on the main field at Ed Smith Stadium, the Spring Training home of the Orioles.

On June 7, the Orioles hosted their annual Baltimore City Youth Baseball Clinic at Carroll Park in Baltimore. All-Star center fielder Adam Jones was joined by second baseman Jonathan Schoop, bullpen catchers Rudy Arias and Jett Ruiz as well as former Orioles Al Bumbry, Ken Dixon, and Bill Swaggerty to help teach baseball to 300 inner city youth, most of whom were involved in the Orioles RBI program. In addition to receiving baseball training, each child enjoyed refreshments provided by Orioles' corporate sponsor ESSKAY. The Orioles also donated 600 tickets to clinic participants for a future Orioles game.

On June 10, David Lough and members of the Orioles training staff, in conjunction with the PLAY campaign, welcomed 80 youth from Baltimore City Schools to Oriole Park. Lough spoke to the youth about making smart life choices, avoiding drugs, and living a more active and healthy lifestyle. Along with the clinic, 160 tickets to that night's game against the Boston Red Sox were also donated to the PLAY clinic participants.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

On June 29, the Orioles partnered with the Y of Central Maryland and the Coppin State University women's softball team to conduct their third annual youth softball clinic at the Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Family Center Y on the Ripken Youth Development Field. The participants consisted of 100 girls from the Orioles RBI program that were instructed on the fundamentals of softball by Orioles shortstop J.J. Hardy and his wife, Adrienne, a four-year starter and two-time NCAA softball champion at the University of Arizona. The group also received one-on-one instruction from the coaches of Coppin State University's Division I softball team.

On August 2, Oriole Advocates Challenger Baseball, in conjunction with the Baltimore Orioles, held a Fantasy Camp for Kids at Freedom Field in Lake Waterford Park in Pasadena. The clinic provided Challenger Baseball players the opportunity to learn baseball skills from current Orioles Bud Norris and Ryan Flaherty and former O's Al Bumbry and Larry Sheets. The event included a variety of clinics providing more than 40 Challenger Baseball players the opportunity to learn pitching, throwing, catching, and fielding skills. Each child also received a personalized replica Majestic Orioles jersey, autographs, and promotional items.

Last season, the Orioles also hosted three Chevy Youth Baseball Clinics in which a combined 300 pre-selected children from the surrounding Baltimore metro area took the field at Oriole Park and were instructed in a variety of baseball skills by several former Orioles including Larry Bigbie, Al Bumbry, Chris Hoiles, and Bill Swaggerty. The participants also received hot dogs, pretzels, and beverages, as well as two tickets to that night's game.

ORIOLES SUMMER READING PROGRAM

The Orioles once again welcomed the 2014 Summer Reading Representatives from all the counties in Maryland. These students represented over 180,000 children who participated in the 2014 Summer Reading Club, "Fizz, Boom, Read," by registering at their local public libraries and reading books, graphic novels, or magazines. The Orioles supported the 2014 Summer Reading Club by donating more than 7,000 tickets to every library branch in Maryland.

ORIOLES REACH

MILITARY INITIATIVES

The Orioles are fortunate to be surrounded by dedicated military personnel throughout the region, and the organization is grateful for all of those who risk their lives each day for our country. In that spirit, we are proud to support our military through a variety of initiatives and special events. The Orioles Military Appreciation Program included a variety of exclusive ticket offers; catered suite donations for every Sunday home game; "welcome home" scoreboard messages; and special gameday activities. Suite donations were made possible in part by donations from Zach Britton, Chris Davis, Tommy Hunter, Nick Markakis, Darren O'Day, Chris Tillman, and Matt Wieters.

jerseys and caps were autographed, authenticated, and auctioned at www.orioles.com with the proceeds going to the Fort Meade Alliance. The jerseys raised $17,124.62 which was presented to the Fort Meade Resiliency Center Fund by the Orioles and OriolesREACH during a pre-game ceremony on August 31.

FLAG DAY

On June 14, the Orioles celebrated Flag Day and the Army's Birthday. Pre-game ceremonies included a swearing-in ceremony for 25 future Army members, while Col. John Petkosek, commander for the Asymmetric Warfare Group, threw out the ceremonial first pitch. The Asymmetric Warfare Group is a United States Army special mission unit headquartered at Fort Meade and created to mitigate various threats with regard to asymmetric warfare.

WALTER REED NATIONAL MILITARY MEDICAL CENTER VISIT

Manager Buck Showalter and his wife, Angela, joined Orioles Brad Brach, Zach Britton, Ryan Flaherty, Miguel Gonzalez, Nick Hundley, T.J. McFarland, Andrew Miller, Darren O'Day, and Matt Wieters to meet with patients at Walter Reed National Military Medical Center. Walter Reed is one of the nation's largest and most renowned military medical centers and comprised of nearly 8,500 dedicated staff members who make it their daily mission to serve military families and our nation's active duty, returning war heroes, veterans, and our Nation's leaders.

USO BARBECUE FOR THE TROOPS

On May 25, Military Appreciation Day at Oriole Park, Darren and Elizabeth O'Day and OriolesREACH hosted the second annual USO BBQ for the Troops, a pre-game barbecue picnic to support the USO troops in the bullpen picnic area. Over $28,000 raised through the event went directly to USO programs that support deployed troops, military families, wounded, ill, and injured troops and their caregivers, and families of the fallen.

MEMORIAL DAY UNIFORMS

On Memorial Day, May 26, all Orioles uniformed personnel wore a special road jersey that featured a digicamo pattern designed into the twill (Baltimore script, name, number) as well as a digicamo patterned cap featuring the cartoon bird. These

DARREN O'DAY PARTNERS WITH LUKE'S WINGS

For the second straight season, Darren O'Day partnered with Luke's Wings, a non-profit military organization dedicated to the support of current and former service members who have been wounded in battle, to donate money for each strikeout he recorded. Recognizing the immediate need for families to be with their loved ones at such a difficult time. Luke's Wings provides families with the means to visit injured service members during their hospitalization and rehabilitation. By purchasing travel agency services and travel tickets for loved ones, Luke's Wings provides an immediate and invaluable service to the families of our men and women in service while also helping to encourage and motivate the service member's recovery or provide comfort during the final stages of life. Luke's Wings also partners with other non-profits who provide other free or discounted services, including accommodations, meals, and local entertainment. The two-year program has raised over $6,000 for Luke's Wings.

CAUSE-RELATED PROGRAMS

HONORARY BAT GIRL HIGHLIGHTS MOTHER'S DAY

On Mother's Day, Major League Baseball and Susan G. Komen for the Cure announced the Orioles' winner of the Honorary Bat Girl contest, a campaign designed to recognize incredible baseball fans who are going to bat against breast cancer in their daily lives. The Orioles' winner, Krista McKenzie-McElwain, was recognized in a special on-field ceremony prior to the Orioles' game that day against the Padres and also threw out the ceremonial first pitch.

The Honorary Bat Girl contest was developed to raise additional awareness and support for the annual Going to Bat Against Breast Cancer program, a joint program between MLB and Susan G. Komen for the Cure, the world's largest breast cancer organization. One player from each Club was deemed a representative on Mother's Day, and most have personally experienced the effects breast cancer and other cancers have had on their families. The Orioles representative was Nick Markakis, whose mother survived breast cancer. In addition, the team donated 200 tickets to the Susan G. Komen for the Cure Maryland supporters.

FATHER'S DAY CATCH ON THE FIELD

The Orioles hosted their second annual Father's Day Catch on the Field at Oriole Park on June 15, 2014, prior to that day's game against the Toronto Blue Jays. Proceeds totaling more than $33,000 from the sold-out event benefitted the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation.

JACKIE ROBINSON DAY

In recognition of the 67th anniversary of Jackie Robinson becoming the first African-American player in Major League Baseball on April 16, all Orioles uniformed personnel wore No. 42, Robinson's number, during the game against the Rays, joining all other major league teams in honoring Robinson's historic achievement. Each player's authenticated game-worn and autographed No. 42 jersey was then made available for auction at www.orioles.com. The auction raised $12,796.52 to benefit the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Jackie Robinson Foundation. In a pre-game ceremony on April 16, the Orioles celebrated Jackie Robinson Day at Oriole Park by recognizing Jackie Robinson Foundation scholar Kapria Lee from the University of Maryland.

SHANNON'S FUND

In 2008, the Orioles and OriolesREACH established a fund, created in memory of Shannon Obaker, the team's former Director of Community Outreach, who bravely fought cancer for over a year before passing away in 2007 at the age of 29. The University of Maryland Medical Center administers Shannon's

ORIOLES REACH

Fund with monies donated to patients and their family members as need arises to assist with the general expenses associated with the treatment process, including hospital parking, alternate housing, food costs, and household bills.

In June, the Orioles raised over $20,000 at a private pre-game event to benefit Shannon's Fund. In addition, proceeds from Oriole Bird visits and the FanFest Photo Booth were donated to the fund.

LUNGevity

The Orioles hosted the LUNGevity Foundation's Breathe Deep Baltimore in September, a walk to raise funds and awareness for lung cancer in memory of the Orioles' late Public Relations Director, Monica Pence Barlow, who passed away in February of 2014 after a four and a half year battle with nonsmall cell lung cancer. LUNGevity is a non-profit firmly committed to making an immediate impact on increasing quality of life and survivorship of people with lung cancer by accelerating research into early detection and more effective treatments, as well as providing community, support, and education for all those affected by the disease. The event had over 1,000 participants and raised nearly $125,000 for LUNGevity.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

ORIOLES RAISE AWARENESS "4 ALS"

To continue baseball's long-standing commitment to raising awareness of ALS (Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis), Major League Baseball and all 30 Clubs once again teamed up for "4 ALS." On July 2, the Orioles welcomed over 100 members of the Robert Packard Center for ALS Research at Johns Hopkins to Oriole Park. The Packard Center for ALS Research at Johns Hopkins enables the world's best ALS scientists to collaborate and access funding so that they may continue work to rapidly develop new treatments and find a cure for ALS, also known as Lou Gehrig's disease. A patient from The Packard Center threw out the ceremonial first pitch prior to the game against the Texas Rangers.

ORIOLES SUPPORT BARCS

For the sixth straight year, Orioles players and manager Buck Showalter were photographed with their pets and shelter animals for the annual Orioles Pet Calendar. Almost $50,000 was raised for BARCS, a non-profit shelter that accepts and cares for all animals in need and promotes responsible pet ownership for a more humane community in Baltimore City, through sales of the 2015 calendar. Additionally, J.J. Hardy, Tommy Hunter, David Lough, Bud Norris, Chris Tillman, and Matt Wieters appeared at BARCS for an autograph signing in August. The Orioles have helped BARCS raise over $150,000 the last few years via calendars and player signings.

ANNUAL CARDBOARD TO LEATHER COLLECTION

On August 30, the Orioles and OriolesREACH teamed up with the Oriole Advocates and Legg Mason to hold the Annual Cardboard to Leather Collection. Fans were encouraged to bring donations of new or gently used baseball and softball equipment or monetary donations to help support youth in developing countries. Nearly $7,000 and 675 pieces of equipment were collected through a silent auction and the gate collection, while Miguel Gonzalez and representatives from Legg Mason presented the Oriole Advocates Charitable Foundation with a $15,000 contribution during a special pre-game, onfield ceremony. The Baseball Tomorrow Fund also awarded a $5,000 grant to the Foundation for the purchase of new equipment.

DRIOLES

ORIOLES REACH COMMUNITY BOOTH

During each home game, the Orioles provide a community booth for charitable, non-profit organizations to distribute information about their causes. Nearly 60 different organizations participated in the Community Booth program in 2014.

DONATIONS

The Orioles donate memorabilia items to charitable non-profit organizations for fundraising activities. Through these contributions, the Orioles helped hundreds of non-profit organizations raise money for their causes in 2014. For a complete list of organizations that were helped this year, visit www.orioles.com/community.

IN THE COMMUNITY

ORIOLES FANFEST

On January 31, Orioles FanFest was held at the Baltimore Convention Center. A day-long celebration of baseball, FanFest featured autograph signings by current and former Orioles players and coaches, question and answer forums with players, coaches, and media, clinics taught by players and coaches, exhibits, a just-for-kids press conference with players, giveaways, and interactive games. Over 16,000 people attended the event and more than $160,000 was raised for the Orioles Charitable Foundation through the sale of autograph vouchers, memorabilia, grab bags, and a silent auction.

36TH ANNUAL KIDS HOLIDAY PARTY

This past December, current and former Orioles hosted 80 kindergarten through fifth grade students from Callaway Elementary School in Baltimore as part of the 36th Annual OriolesREACH Holiday Party for Kids on December 16 at Dave & Buster's in the Arundel Mills Mall. Manager Buck Showalter along with current Orioles Brad Brach and Steve Pearce, were joined by former O's Al Bumbry, Chris Hoiles, Dave Johnson, and Scott McGregor for the event, with MASN's Jim Hunter serving as emcee and Tom Davis playing the role of Santa Claus. Players served lunch, played games, and signed autographs for the students. Gifts donated by the Orioles and OriolesREACH included a baseball glove, ball, and board game for each child.

PLAYER INVOLVEMENT

One of the best examples of the Orioles reaching out into the community is when Orioles players and coaches appear at various functions and events in our neighborhoods. Even the Oriole Bird has "flown" to over 400 events both in the Mid-Atlantic area as well as Sarasota since last season.

Among the many appearances in 2014 were the following visits: several Orioles to Walter Reed National Military Medical Center in Bethesda; David Lough with children from the Jewish Community Center Sports Camp; Zach Britton and Ryan Webb in the Southwest Airlines "Trading Places" promotion at BWI Airport; Matt Wieters at River Hill High School; Bud Norris at the Modell's Sporting Goods store in

Arundel Mills; and many players signing autographs for fans at the Orioles Official Team Store at the York Galleria in York, PA throughout the season.

ADAM JONES EARNS HEART AND HUSTLE AWARD

On July 30, Adam Jones was recognized prior to the game against the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim as the Orioles' nominee for the 2014 Heart and Hustle Award. Selected by a committee of Orioles alumni organized by the Major League Baseball Players Alumni Association, Jones was honored as the current Orioles player who demonstrates a passion for the game of baseball and best embodies the values, spirit, and tradition of the game. The award was presented by Orioles Hall of Famer, Mike Bordick. The Heart and Hustle Award is the only award in Major League Baseball that is voted on by former players.

JONES RECEIVES CHAMPION FOR YOUTH AWARD

Adam Jones was honored with the Champion for Youth Award from the Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Baltimore (BGCMB) for his service and commitment in support of Baltimore's children. Jones' time, resources, and unwavering support to the children of Metro Baltimore were recognized in a ceremony on Thursday, April 24 at the Baltimore Marriott Inner Harbor at Camden Yards.

DARREN O'DAY RECOGNIZED WITH BOB FELLER ACT OF VALOR AWARD

For his commitment to military-based initiatives, Darren O'Day earned the 2014 Bob Feller Act of Valor Award from Major League Baseball. Created in 2013, the award honors three individuals that reflect the values, integrity, and dedication to serving our country that Bob Feller himself possessed. The award is presented to one U.S. Navy Chief Petty Officer, one National Baseball Hall of Fame member, and one active Major League Baseball player.

MANAGER & COACHES

BUCK SHOWALTER

MANAGER

FULL NAME: William Nathaniel "Buck" Showalter

BORN: May 23, 1956

2015 OPENING DAY AGE: 58

BIRTHPLACE/RESIDENCE: Born in DeFuniak Springs, FL., Resides in Dallas,

26

TX and Baltimore, MD

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2018

M.L. SERVICE: Is entering his 22nd season as a manager in professional baseball, his 17th season as a manager in the major leagues, and his sixth as manager of the Orioles.

MANAGERIAL/COACHING CAREER

A three-time Manager of the Year (1994, 2004, and 2014), Buck Showalter recently completed his fifth season with the Orioles with 1,259 career wins, third most among active major league managers and 36th all-time. In his managerial career, Showalter is 1,259-1,161 in 16 seasons as manager of the New York Yankees (313-268; 1992-1995), Arizona Diamondbacks (250-236; 1998-2000), Texas Rangers (319-329; 2003-06), and Orioles (377-328; 2010-Current). He recorded his 1,000th career win on May 1, 2012 at New York. On January 16, 2013, the Orioles announced a contract extension for Showalter through 2018.

Showalter was hired as the 19th manager in Orioles history on July 29, 2010 and took the helm on August 2, directing the club to a 34-23 finish, the second-best record in the AL over the last 57 games behind Minnesota's 35-22 finish. Showalter became the first manager since 1900 to take over a team on August 1 or later and win more games the rest of the way (34) than the club won before he took over (32). He is also the first manager in major league history to win seven of his first eight games after taking over a team in mid-season that was 20 or more games under .500.

Under Showalter's guidance, the 2014 Orioles went 96-66 and won the American League East division title for the first time since 1997, 12.0 games ahead of the New York Yankees. After sweeping the Detroit Tigers in the American League Division Series, 3-0, the Orioles made their first trip to the American League Championship Series since 1997 where they fell to the Kansas City Royals in four games. Following the season, Showalter earned his third BBWAA American League Manager of the Year award as well as his second Manager of the Year honor from Baseball America (also 2012).

In 2012, Showalter led the Orioles to a 24-game improvement (69 wins in 2011 to 93 in 2012) and the American League Division Series, where they fell to the New York Yankees, 3-2. The Orioles and Rangers reached the postseason in 2012 as the two Wild Card teams and met in a one-game playoff in Arlington to determine the Wild Card team for the Division Series round. The Orioles advanced with a 5-1 win. Following the season, Showalter was named The Sporting News' 2012 AL Manager of the Year and was awarded the C.I. Taylor Legacy Award by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum as the top AL manager.

Showalter spent the first 19 years of his professional baseball career in the New York Yankees organization, culminating in a four-year stint as manager from 1992-95. In 1994 Showalter earned AL Manager of the Year honors, guiding New York to a 70-43 record before the strike ended the season prematurely. The next season, he led the Yankees to their first playoff berth in 14 years and managed the American League All-Star team. He was the youngest manager in the major leagues in each of his four seasons in New York.

In November 1995, Showalter joined the Arizona Diamondbacks, 28 months before the expansion franchise began play, and helped shape the new team's major league operations. In 1999, he guided the Diamondbacks to a 100-win season and the NL West division title, an improvement of 35 victories over the previous season, the most in major league history.

Showalter joined the Texas Rangers prior to the 2003 season and, in 2004, led the club to an 18-win improvement over the previous year, earning his second Manager of the Year honor from the BBWAA.

Showalter's managerial career began in 1985 with the Oneonta Yankees. He managed for five seasons in the Yankees minor league system, earning Eastern League Minor League Manager of the Year honors in 1989, prior to joining the major league coaching staff in 1990.

RICHARD BANCELLS MS, LAT, ATC

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Born: November 11, 1955

Richie is in his 28th season as the Orioles' Head Athletic Trainer, his 32th year with the big league club and his 39th in the Orioles organization. Only the third Head Athletic Trainer in the 60 seasons since the Orioles moved from St. Louis in 1954, he has the longest tenure of anyone to work as an Athletic Trainer in the Orioles organization. In 2011, Bancells received the Herb Armstrong Award, which honors non-uniformed club personnel for their significant contribution to the ballclub, the community and the sport of baseball. Bancells was inducted into the Maryland Athletic Trainers Hall of Fame in 2008.

Richie joined the Orioles organization in 1977 as an Assistant Athletic Trainer for the Miami Orioles (Class A, Florida State League). He served as head Athletic Trainer for the Bluefield Orioles (Appalachian Rookie League) in 1978-79 before moving up to AAA Rochester in 1980. He served four years as the Red Wings' Athletic Trainer/Road Secretary (1980-83). During that time, he also assisted Salvon during the Orioles' spring training camp in Miami, FL. He became Ralph's assistant trainer in 1984, serving four years before becoming head trainer in 1988, as Salvon took over the assistant title before his untimely passing in July of that year.

Richie served as President of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS) from 2007-13 and previously served as a board member and treasurer for the organization, as well as secretary of PBATS' Executive Committee. He also currently sits on Major League Baseball's Medical Advisory Committee and is a member of the American College of Sports Medicine.

Following the 2011 season, Bancells and his assistant, Brian Ebel, were named the 2011 Major League Baseball Athletic Training Staff of the Year by PBATS. Bancells has been selected as the Athletic Trainer for the American League team in two All-Star games, in 1993 at Camden Yards and in 2004 at Houston's Minute Maid Park. In November 2002, he served as Athletic Trainer for the Major League Baseball All-Stars' post-season exhibition tour in Japan. In the winter of '96, Richie was invited to Japan to speak to a group of Japanese athletic trainers and physicians.

In 2005, the Orioles created the Ralph Salvon-Richie Bancells Award for Excellence in the Field of Emergency Medical Service, to be given to local area medical professionals who think and act quickly and demonstrate excellence in the wake of an emergency medical situation. Richie was honored as the first recipient for his actions in diagnosing and promptly treating a stroke suffered by Orioles coach Elrod Hendricks, minutes before the team was to board a flight home from Tampa Bay earlier in the 2005 season.

A native of Key West, FL, Richie graduated from Miami's Biscayne College (now St. Thomas University) in 1978. He earned an M.S. degree in physical education from Eastern Kentucky University in Richmond, KY, in 1981 and was honored by EKU as a distinguished alumnus (along with Assistant Athletic Trainer Brian Ebel) in 1999. He is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and is a licensed Athletic Trainer in Maryland and Florida.

Richie and his wife, the former Carol Corcoran, were married June 10, 1978. They have three children: Christopher (34), Andrea (29) and Timothy (23), and a grandson, Ryan (son of Christopher). Carol earned a degree in theology and education from Biscayne College. In his spare time, Richie enjoys fishing. The Bancells live in Parkton, MD.

BRIAN EBEL MBA. LAT. ATC

Born: December 26, 1965

Brian is in his 19th season as the Orioles' Assistant Athletic Trainer. He was named to his current position on October 30, 1996. This is Brian's 31st season as part of the Oriole organization's training staff, Following the 2011 season, Brian and Head Athletic Trainer Richie Bancells were named the 2011 Major League Baseball Athletic Training Staff of the Year by PBATS. In 2012, Ebel received the PBATS

President's Distinguished Service Award for his work on Electronic Medical Records. Following the 2011 season, Brian was selected as the Athletic Trainer for the Major League Baseball All-Star Tour of Taiwan.

The Eastern Kentucky University graduate began his athletic training career in Bluefield in 1985 at the age of 19, serving as the head athletic trainer for the Orioles' rookie league farm club during summer breaks from college. He moved up to Class A Erie in 1988 and then served three seasons as Athletic Trainer of the Orioles' then Double-A affiliate in Hagerstown before being promoted to the post of minor league medical coordinator, where he served from 1992 through the 1996 season.

Prior to being named to his current position, Brian assisted the Orioles' spring training camp for four seasons and was also the Athletic Trainer for the Scottsdale Scorpions of the Arizona Fall League in 1994 and the St. Petersburg Pelicans of the Senior Professional Baseball Association in 1989 and '90.

Ebel is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and is a licensed Athletic Trainer in Maryland and Florida. Brian is an active member of the American College of Sports Medicine and the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS). He served on the board of PBATS from 1999-2005 as the American League Assistant Athletic Trainer Representative. Ebel received scholarships for academic excellence from PBATS in 1985 and Eastern Kentucky University in 1986. In 1999, he was honored (along with Head Athletic Trainer Richie Bancells) by EKU as a distinguished alumnus.

In 2008, Brian was named to Major League Baseball's steering committee for Electronic Medical Records. He has been a member of MLB's Medical Advisory Board since May 2003 and in 2010 was appointed to serve on MLB's Injury Surveillance System (ISS) committee. He served on the Board of Directors for the United Cerebral Palsy of Central Maryland (UCP) from 2003-2010.

Ebel holds an MBA degree in Medical Services Management from The Johns Hopkins University. In the winter of 2004, he served as an Administrative Resident in the Department of Medicine at the Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center in addition to his Orioles duties. He also served as Athletic Trainer for the American League at the 2007 All-Star Game in San Francisco.

He has authored or co-authored research papers and book chapters on shoulder and elbow injuries as it relates to the throwing motion by professional athletes, and has lectured on elbow and core injury rehabilitation. In May of 2012, he was awarded a United States patent for an orthopedic device for the foot to aid in the treatment of Plantar Fasciitis and heel pain.

Brian grew up in Versailles, IN and has two sons, Brady (21) and Brett (18), and lives in Baltimore. Brian's hobbies include playing golf and playing the drums.

2015 ORIOLES MEDIA GUIDE

JOSEPH HOGARTY

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Born: November 28, 1977

Joe starts his sixth season as the Orioles' Major League Strength & Conditioning Coach and his 12th in the Baltimore organization. Prior to joining the major league staff, he spent the previous two seasons (2008-09) as the Orioles' Minor League Strength and Conditioning Coordinator and four years (2004-07) as the strength and conditioning coach with the Orioles' Triple-A affiliates at Norfolk and Ottawa. Joe began his professional career in 2003 as an Athletic Training and Strength and Conditioning intern for the Triple-A Pawtucket Red Sox.

Hogarty is a 2001 graduate of Bridgewater State University with a degree in Physical Education (Athletic Training). While working outside the baseball calendar, Joe has spent time in sports medicine and strength & conditioning roles at Northeastern University (MA) and at the United States Olympic Training Center in Lake Placid, NY.

His Uncle, William Hogarty, was a former draft pick of the Washington Senators (1955).

RUDY ARIAS

BATTING PRACTICE PITCHER/BULLPEN CATCHER

Born: June 22, 1956

Rudy begins his 16th season with the Orioles as batting practice pitcher and bullpen catcher. Before joining the Orioles, Rudy served as bullpen catcher for the New York Yankees from 1993 to 1996. Rudy also served as the bench coach and first base coach for the independent Northern League's Winnipeg Goldeyes from 2008-10.

A native of Santa Clara, Cuba, Arias grew up in Miami and became a United States citizen in March of 2012. He graduated from Miami Senior High School in 1975 and attended Miami Dade South Community College from 1976-77, where he earned All-State and honorable mention All-American honors in baseball. Arias was inducted into Miami Senior High School's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2012.

After his two years at Dade South, Arias was offered a baseball scholarship to the University of Miami, but was drafted by the Seattle Mariners in the 1st round (secondary phase) in 1977 and spent four years in their farm system. In his first pro season, with Rookie level Bellingham (WA), he was named catcher on the Northwest League All-Star team. He spent the next two seasons in the Class A California League, with Stockton and San Jose. His career stalled when he was hit by a ball and suffered a broken jaw in 1980, and the Mariners assigned his contract to Vera Cruz of the Triple-A Mexican League, where he played in 1981-82. He later played in both Colombia and Mexico, including a two-year stint as manager of the Monteria club in the Colombian Winter League. His father, Rudy Arias Sr., pitched professionally for 17 years and went 2-0 in 34 games for the American League champion Chicago White Sox in 1959.

Rudy and his wife, Hilda, were married on December 6, 1982. They have two sons, Luis (9/27/83) and Alex (8/30/88) and two grandsons, Jaden (2/22/08) and Julian (7/18/10). The Arias family resides in Miami, FL.

JETT RUIZ

BATTING PRACTICE PITCHER/BULLPEN CATCHE

Born: February 19, 1986

Ruiz enters his second season as a batting practice pitcher and bullpen catcher for the Orioles.

Ruiz attended Boston College from 2004-08, where he was a catcher/first baseman. After his collegiate career, he played two years (2009-10) for the Kalamazoo Kings of the Independent Frontier League. Following his playing career, Ruiz coached 12-13 year-old travel baseball teams in San Diego County. Growing up in San Diego, Ruiz was a travel ball teammate of Orioles centerfielder Adam Jones.

CHRIS GUTH

HOME CLUBHOUSE/EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Born: February 16, 1958

Chris is in his third year with the Orioles and his 28th year in professional baseball as he has also worked with the Yankees, Diamondbacks, and Rangers organizations.

From 2002-12, Guth served the Texas Rangers organization as Manager of Minor League Complex Operations, where he was in charge of the minor league equipment needs and daily operations of the Rangers' complex in Surprise, AZ.

After nine years as the Yankees' minor league equipment manager from 1987-95, Guth joined the expansion Arizona Diamondbacks as their minor league equipment manager during the 1996-97 seasons when they had only minor league teams prior to the expansion draft. When the Diamondbacks joined the National League in 1998, Guth was named their equipment manager, a position he held for three seasons.

A Miami native, and graduate of Palmetto (FL) High School, Guth and his wife, Lesa, have two sons: Jason (10/18/98) and Ryan (5/2/03).

JIM TYLER

UMPIRES ATTENDANT

Born: July 4, 1948

Jim Tyler begins his 54th year working for the Orioles and his third season as the umpire's attendant. Jim ran the home clubhouse from 1979 to 2012 after serving seven years as the visiting clubhouse manager. He began working for the Orioles in 1962 as a clubhouse boy.

Born and raised in Baltimore, he is a graduate of Baltimore City College High School, located across the street from Memorial Stadium, where the Orioles played for 39 years. Jim is one of 11 children, including a twin brother, Phil, who has also worked for the Orioles in the past.

Jim has two children, Lauren (34) and Joshua (33) and three grandchildren: Luke (2), Tessa (4), Jack (8).

FRED TYLER

VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Born: September 20, 1960

Fred Tyler has been in charge of the visitors' clubhouse since 1984. He began working around the clubhouse in his teens, assisting his brother, Jim. In addition to assisting with the equipment and clubhouse needs during spring training, Fred also accompanies the Orioles on some of their road trips during the season.

Fred played baseball at Bel Air (MD) HS, Harford CC and Towson University. As a senior at Bel Air High, Fred was named the All-Harford County shortstop, while the All-Harford County pitcher that year was an Aberdeen HS right-handed pitcher named Cal Ripken, Jr.

Fred and Debbie Duffy live in Arnold, MD with their son, Sean Duffy Tyler, 28.

KEVIN BUCK

DIRECTOR OF TEAM TRAVE

Born: October 28, 1981

Kevin enters his seventh year of handling team travel arrangements and accommodations. Buck began traveling with the club in 2009 and handles all aspects of team travel and ticketing for road games.

Kevin joined the Orioles in 2003 as a part-time employee in the Sales and Fan Services department. In 2005, he became a full-time New Sales Representative and worked with Season Plan Holders and group events for two years before taking a position as Market Research Manager in 2007. In 2009, Kevin was named Coordinator of Team Travel to assist legendary Orioles' Traveling Secretary Phil Itzoe, and spent the season handling the Orioles' travel and ticket needs.

A native of Cockeysville, MD, Kevin has spent the majority of his life in the Baltimore area. A lifetime Orioles fan, he grew up playing baseball in the Cockeysville area and attended Dulaney High School before graduating in 1999 and enrolling at the University of Richmond. He graduated from UR with a degree in Marketing and Communications in 2003, and immediately began work with the Orioles.

Kevin, and his wife, Cassandra, reside in Baltimore.

NICOLE McFADYEN

HEAD GROUNDSKEEPER

Born: October 29, 1977

Nicole begins her ninth season as the Orioles' head groundskeeper. She returned to the Orioles organization in 2007 after a three-year absence, becoming just the second woman ever to serve as Head Groundskeeper with a major league team. Nicole and Heather Nabozny, who has been with the Detroit Tigers since 1999, are the only female head groundskeepers in Major League Baseball.

According to the Sports Turf Managers Association, there have been approximately 10 women who have held the position of head groundskeeper in the history of professional baseball.

After serving as the Orioles' assistant head groundskeeper from 2001 through 2003, McFadyen spent three seasons (2004-2006) as the head groundskeeper for the Eastern League's Trenton Thunder, Double-A affiliate of the New York Yankees. She was the first female head groundskeeper in Eastern League history when she was named to that post in February 2004, and twice was runner-up for the EL's top groundskeeping award. In 2006, the Thunder honored her with a bobblehead, depicting her riding a tractor.

A native of New Castle, DE, Nicole graduated from the University of Delaware with a degree in agriculture. She worked for several golf courses in Delaware and with the University of Delaware's Research and Education Center, testing new herbicides, prior to joining the Orioles in 2001 as assistant head groundskeeper. Nicole and her husband, Dan, reside in Baltimore with their son, Tyson.

- Appeared in six postseason games, posting a 3.86 ERA (4.2IP, 2ER) with two saves (Games 2 and 3 of the ALDS)

PRO CAREER

2013: Had three stints with the Orioles (April 25-30, June 18-July 9 and September 2-5), making seven starts...Combined to pitch 11.0 innings and allow two earned runs in his two victories (June 18 @DET, 5.1IP, ER and 6/29 vs. NYY, 5.2IP, ER)...Struck out season-high five, June 24 vs. CLE... Tossed season-long 7.0 innings, July 4 @CWS... Went 6-5 with a 4.27 ERA (103.1IP, 49ER) in 19 starts for Triple-A Norfolk... Was second on the Tides pitching staff with nine Quality Starts behind Josh Stinson (11)... Was 5-1 with a 3.15 ERA (54.1IP, 19ER) in nine road starts in the International League...Held Triple-A left-handed hitters to a line of .208/.299/.317 in 101 at-bats...August 28 at Charlotte, tied season-high with eight strikeouts and registered 13 groundouts... Posted a 2.98 groundout/flyout ratio, but finished 12.0 innings shy of qualifying among minor league leaders, where that ratio would have been tops at the Double-A and Triple-A levels.

2012: Began season on the DL with a left shoulder impingement and had three stints with the O's this season (7/17-8/8, 8/18-30 & 9/4-end of season)...Reinstated from DL, 6/6, and optioned to Triple-A Norfolk...Made three rehab starts with Double-A Bowie (2G; 0.75 ERA, 12.0IP, ER, 3BB, 11K) and Triple-A Norfolk (1G; 6.00 ERA, 6.0IP, 4ER, 2BB, 2K)...Went 2-0 with a 2.14 ERA (21.0IP, 5ER, 16K) in three July starts for the Tides...Recalled by the O's, 7/17, where he made five starts and posted an 8.10 ERA (23.1IP, 21ER) before being optioned back to Norfolk, 8/8...Made start for the Tides, 8/13 and was recalled back to the O's, 8/18... Tossed season-high 8.0IP and struck out career-high 10, 8/30 vs. CWS...Made first career appearance out of the pen, 10/3 @TB (IP, K)...Pitched to a 0.78 ERA (34.2IP, 3ER) in his five victories.

2011: Had his contract selected from Norfolk on April 3 and made his major league debut that night at Tampa, picking up the win as he allowed one earned run over six innings... With an 11-11 record, became the first Orioles starter with more than 20 or more decisions in a season to post a .500 or better record since Erik Bedard went 15-11 in 2006... Struck out six in his debut, including Elliot Johnson in the first inning for his first major league strikeout...Became the seventh of eight Orioles starters to win their major league debut since the start of the 2009 season, joining Koji Uehara, Brad Bergesen, Jason Berken, David Hernandez, Brian Matusz and Jake Arrieta...Allowed one earned run over his first two major league appearances (13.2 IP)...According to Elias, since the Orioles moved to Baltimore in 1954, only Tom Phoebus won his first two MLB games, both as a starting pitcher, allowing no more than one run combined... Prior to Britton, the last Oriole pitcher to allow one or fewer runs in the first 13.2 innings of his career was Kurt Birkins in May 2006 (he allowed one run, all innings pitched in relief)... The last O's pitcher to allow a total of oneor-fewer runs in his first two career starts was Chuck McElroy in Sept. of 2000 (11.0IP, 1ER)...McElroy had 603 relief outings in the bigs before his first two starts in 2000... Worked nine scoreless innings in that May 12 start and was opposed by Jason Vargas, who also worked nine scoreless innings...The last time the Orioles played a game in which both pitchers went nine innings was July 11, 2003 (Baltimore's Rodrigo Lopez and Oakland's Tim Hudson)... It also marked the first time two major league pitchers went nine innings or more each and were both non-decisioned since July 10, 2010 (Philadelphia's Roy Halladay and Cincinnati's Travis Wood)...It was just the third such occurrence in the big leagues since 2000...The last O's starter to throw nine shutout IP and not factor in the decision was Mike Morgan on April 16, 1988 against Cleveland...Joined Jake Arrieta as the first pair of Oriole starters to both have five wins by May 20th since Erik Bedard (5) and Kris Benson in 2006...Recorded five hits in his three Interleague Play starts, going 5-for-8 with a double, a homer with two RBI and three runs scored...According to Elias, his five hits were the most in one season by an AL pitcher since the creation of the designated hitter in 1974...Set a career-high with three straight wins April 20-May 1 and tied that mark August 22-September 1... Struck out a career-high seven September 17 against Los Angeles...Had a streak of 19.1 scoreless innings over three starts from May 6-18...In his two starts, July 8-30, he became the first player in major-league history to allow eight-or-more runs while lasting less than an inning in each of two consecutive starts... In his August 28 start against the Yankees (over 7.0 innings) he threw a career-high 120 pitches, the most by an Oriole pitcher in 2011 and most by an Orioles starter against the Yankees since Sidney Ponson threw 128 in 5.2 innings on June 1, 2004 in the Bronx...Pitched to a 3.09 ERA (87.1IP, 30ER) at home and a 6.58 ERA (67.0IP, 49ER) on the road...Was 3-1 with a 2.02 ERA (35.2IP, 8ER) in five starts against the AL West...Had a 4.05 ERA (104.1IP, 47ER) before the All-Star break, but pitched to a 5.76 ERA (50.0IP, 32ER) after the break... Was 4-1 with a 2.84 ERA (31.2IP, 10ER) in five April starts and 2-1 with a 2.60 ERA (17.1IP, 5ER) in three August starts...Opponents batted .228 (72-316) against him at home and .331 (90-272) on the road...Made one start for Triple-A Norfolk August 16 and allowed one run over five innings on three hits and a walk against Charlotte... Made three starts for Double-A Bowie July 15-25, going 0-2 with a 5.40 ERA (11.2IP, 7ER).

2010: Received the Jim Palmer Award as the Orioles top minor league pitcher...Was named to the Eastern League All-Star Team...Was named the 2nd best prospect in the Orioles organization by Baseball America following the 2010 season...Was named the Orioles Organizational Pitcher of the Month for June when he went 3-0 with a 0.66 ERA in four starts...Was named the Eastern League Pitcher of the Week for June 21-27, when he tossed 8.0 innings, allowing one run on four hits and striking out nine...Made seven consecutive Quality Starts at Bowie, May 21-June 25 before being promoted to Norfolk on July 1...Led all Tides pitchers who made at least 12 starts with a 2.98 ERA...Matched his career-best in strikeouts with nine on three occasions (June 25 at Altoona, August 14 against Charlotte and September 4 at Durham).

2009: Was named the 2009 Carolina League Pitcher of the Year...Was named to the 2009 CL All-Star Team and the 2009 CL Postseason All-Star Team...Was named the third best prospect in the Orioles system by Baseball America...Finished 2nd in the league in ERA (2.70) and strikeouts (131), 4th in IP (140.0) and tied for 5th in wins (9)...Led the Keys in all four categories...Also led the team in games started (24)...Tied a career-high with nine strikeouts June 29 against Wilmington...Began the season with five consecutive starts allowing two earned runs or less and ended the season with nine consecutive starts allowing three earned runs or less.

2008: Finished 7th in the league in ERA (3.12) and 4th in innings pitched (147.1)...Tied for team lead in wins (12) and starts (27) and finished 2nd on the club in strikeouts (114)...Threw a complete game (7.0 IP) on May 21 against Kannapolis, allowing one run on five hits...Made 15 Quality Starts and struck out a season-high nine batters on June 25 against Lake County.

2007: Went 6-4 with a 3.68 ERA in 15 starts for Aberdeen...Pitched to an 8.00 ERA in June (9.0IP, 8ER), but had a 2.96 ERA (54.2IP, 18ER) after July 1.

2006: Went winless in 11 starts for Rookie League Bluefield...Lost three straight starts, 7/30-8/10...Pitched a season-high 5.0 innings and did not allow a run on 8/15 at Pulaski, but did not receive a decision...Surrendered 5 runs in 1.2 innings in his next start at Burlington, the only time he allowed more than 3 runs in an outing.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

Two sets of brothers and six father-son combinations have played for the Orioles. The brother combos are the Ripkens, Cal (1981-2001) and Bill (1987-92 and 1996); and catcher Dick Brown (1963-65) and his brother Larry (1973), an infielder. The father-son duos are third baseman Bob Kennedy (1954-55) and his son, catcher Terry (1987-88); outfielders Don Buford (1968-72) and his son Damon (1993-95); pitchers John O'Donoghue Sr. (1968) and John Jr. (1993); outfielders Dave May (1967-70) and his son, Derrick (1999); outfielders Tim Raines Sr. and his son Tim (2001); and pitchers Dave (1989-91) and Steve Johnson (2012-current). The Raineses were the second father-son teammates in major league history as Ken Griffey Sr. and Jr. played together in Seattle in 1990-91.

MAKING THE LAST ONE COUNT

Ted Williams wasn't the only major leaguer to hit a home run in his last major league at-bat when he went deep off the Orioles' Jack Fisher on September 28, 1960 at Fenway Park. Two former O's are among 37 players who have homered in their farewell plate appearance. On September 30, 1956, Joe Frazier (who later managed the New York Mets) homered at Washington off Senators pitcher Ted Abernathy in his final big league plate appearance. On August 2, 1994, Jeff Tackett went deep at Minnesota off Twins hurler Mike Trombley in his last at-bat.

THE BABE RUTH BIRTHPLACE & MUSEUM

On February 6, 1895, George Herman "Babe" Ruth was born at 216 Emory Street in a Baltimore rowhouse located "just a long fly ball" from Oriole Park at Camden Yards. The Birthplace is one of the top baseball museums in the country, featuring an extensive collection of Ruthian artifacts and mementos, as well as serving as the official museum of the Baltimore Orioles and the archives of the Baltimore Colts and Johnny Unitas.

The Museum showcases different aspects of baseball in exhibits throughout the year. The Museum also hosts appearances by past, present and future Orioles and other Major League stars, as well as nationally known authors of sports publications for lectures and book signings.

Striving to exhibit its growing collection, the Museum opened Sports Legends at Camden Yards in May, 2005 in Camden Station, adjacent to Oriole Park. Orioles owner Peter Angelos donated $1,000,000 to make the Camden Station project a reality. The historic train station features many displays on the Orioles and Ruth, a full-size theatre, virtual reality exhibits and hands-on learning areas for children, including a discovery room, classrooms and much more. The Museum continues to maintain the current Babe Ruth Birthplace on Emory Street, with shuttle bus service between the sites.

For Museum information, call 410-727-1539 or visit www.baberuthmuseum.com.

DID YOU KNOW?

- O's infielder Wayne Gross became the first player in major league history to hit at least 10 homers and driver in fewer than 20 runs in a season in 1985. He hit 11 HR and drove in 18 runs. O's catcher Chris Hoiles holds the record for fewest RBI (40) for a player with 20 home runs in a season, when he did it in 1992.
- The last time a team had a right-handed and left-handed pitcher each win 20 games in a season in the American League was 1980, when RHP Steve Stone (25) and LHP Scott McGregor (20) did it for the Orioles.
- . Orioles Hall of Fame pitcher Jim Palmer is the only pitcher to win a World Series game in three different decades.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS

- Tied for the ML lead with a career-high 34 starts, also posting a career-high 207.1 IP and 21 Quality Starts
- Has recorded consecutive 200-inning seasons, the 1st Oriole to do that since Jeremy Guthrie turned in three straight, 2009-11
- His 38 wins since 2012 are T-11th in the AL and his 3.42 ERA in that time is 15th
- Has allowed a total of two stolen bases since the beginning of 2013, tied for the fewest in the majors in the last two seasons (min. 200 IP)
- Opposing runners are just 2-for-13 (84.6% caught) attempting to steal against him in that time
- Made his 1st career Opening Day start, March 31 vs. BOS (ND, 5.0IP, 7H, ER, BB, 4K, HR)
- Posted a 2.54 ERA (113.1IP, 32ER) in 18 starts at OPACY, the 2nd-best single-season mark in park history (Bud Norris, 2.44 also in 2014)
- Allowed 3ER or less in 20 straight starts, June 10-September 20, tied for the 2nd-longest streak in club history with Steve Barber (1965-66)
- · Pitched to a 2.21 ERA (130.1IP, 32ER) over those 20 starts
- Went 6-1 with a 2.33 ERA (89.0IP, 23ER) in 14 starts after the All-Star break
- Finished the season tied for the 2nd-best single-season road winning percentage by an Oriole (.889; 8-1)
- Went undefeated in his first 15 road starts of the season until taking the loss on September 26 @TOR
- . Posted his 1st career CG SHO, May 16 @KC (5H, BB, 3K)
- Struck out career-high tying 9, August 19 @CWS (8.0IP, 3H, ER, BB, HR)
- Pitched 5.0 innings or more in 31 of his 34 starts (1.0IP on May 21 @PIT and June 5 @TEX and 4.2IP on May 1 vs. PIT (G2))
- Allowed 21 runs in the 1st inning, his most in any frame (17 in the 2nd, 14 in the 3rd, 10 in the 4th, 8 in the 5th, 6 in the 6th, and 3 in the 7th)
- Posted a 2.71 ERA (176.1IP, 53ER) in 28 starts vs. the AL, ranking 4th in baseball in ERA vs. the AL (min. 25 GS)
- Went 3-0 with a 0.89 ERA (30.1IP, 3ER) in four starts vs. the AL Central
- Made his 100th career start, earning the win on June 22 @NYY (7.0 scoreless IP)
- · Earned the win in ALDS Game 1 (5.0IP, 4H, 2ER, BB, 6K), his first career postseason start

Four native Marylanders have coached for the Orioles: Cal Ermer (Baltimore, coached in '62), Ray Miller (Takoma Park, '78-'85, '97 & '04-'05), Sam Perlozzo (Cumberland, '96-'05) and Cal Ripken, Sr. (Aberdeen, '76-'86 & '89-'92)...

Former pitching coach Leo Mazzone was born in Keyser, WV but grew up near Cumberland, MD...Miller ('98-'99), Ripken ('87-'88) and Perlozzo ('05-'07) are the only Marylanders to manage the Birds.

NOW PITCHING...

The Orioles have used non-pitchers on the mound on six occasions, including twice in one game; June 26, 1978 during a 22-10 loss at Toronto. Chris Davis' appearance at Boston on May 6, 2012 was the first pitching victory recorded by an AL position player since Rocky Colavito did it in 1968. The other five pitching appearances by position players have taken place in Orioles road losses.

Miguel Cabrera	385
Mike Trout	282
CHRIS DAVIS	232
Josh Donaldson	222
Robinson Cano	150

Davis is just the fourth Oriole since 1997 to finish in the top six in MVP voting, joining Adam Jones (sixth in 2012), Miguel Tejada (fifth in 2004) and Randy Myers (fourth in 1997).

THREE'S COMPANY

On October 8, 2012, Wei-Yin Chen beat the New York Yankees in the AL Division Series to become the third Taiwanese pitcher to win a postseason game. Chen joined Hong-Chih Kuo (October 16, 2009) and Chien-Ming Wang (October 3, 2006).

MAKING TAIWAN PROUD

On October 14, 2014, Wei-Yin Chen became the first Taiwaneseborn pitcher to start a League Championship Series game.

2014 IN REVIEW

OVERALL: The Orioles finished with a 96-66 record, the second-best record in the American League behind the Los Angeles Angels (98-64) and tied with the Washington Nationals for the second-best record in all of baseball...The Orioles won the AL East by 12.0 games, becoming the first team to win the division by a double-digit margin since the 2006 Yankees won the East by 10.0 games...The 2014 Orioles were the 20th club in franchise history to record 90+ wins...The Birds have posted three consecutive winning seasons for the first time since they had four straight from 1982-85...The Orioles posted the best in-division winning percentage in the AL (47-29, .618).

THANK YOU FANS!: The Orioles drew 2,458,970 fans in 2014, marking the largest season attendance figure since 2005 (2,624,740).

ALL-STAR GAME REVIEW: The Orioles sent three players to the All-Star Game in Minneapolis as Adam Jones, Nelson Cruz, and Matt Wieters were elected as starters by the fans...Cruz and Jones were hitless in two at-bats each while Wieters sat out following elbow surgery...RHP Hunter Harvey and OF Dariel Alvarez represented the Orioles organization in the 2014 All-Star Futures Game.

2014 /// REVIEW

SOLID STARTERS: The Orioles had four different starting pitchers record 10 or more wins (Chris Tillman, Wei-Yin Chen, Bud Norris, and Miguel Gonzalez) for the first time since 1997 (Mike Mussina, Jimmy Key, Scott Erickson, and Scott Kamieniecki)...Bud Norris (2.44 in 13 starts) and Chris Tillman (2.56 in 18 starts) posted the two lowest ERAs by Orioles starting pitchers with a minimum of five starts in Oriole Park history...The 2014 Orioles had three pitchers with 13 or more wins, equaling their total from the previous eight seasons combined (Chris Tillman in 2013, Erik Bedard in 2006 and 2007)....The last time the Birds had three pitchers with 13 or more wins in a season was 1997 (Scott Erickson-16, Jimmy Key-16, and Mike Mussina-15)...The last time the Orioles had three 10-game winners in a season was 2005.

THE BOMB SQUAD: The Orioles led the majors with 211 home runs, 25 more than the second place Colorado Rockies and 34 more than the next highest AL club (Toronto, 177)...The Orioles' 107 home runs at home were the most by an AL club...The Birds have gone deep at least 200 times in three straight seasons for the first time in club history (2014, 2013, 2012, 1999, 1998, 1996, 1987 and 1985)...The Orioles have hit at least 210 home runs in three straight seasons...Only the Yankees and White Sox (both in 2012) have hit at least 210 in any one of the last three years...Adam Jones became the first outfielder in Orioles history with four straight seasons of 25 or more homers.

BIG ACQUISITION: Nelson Cruz signed with the Orioles in February and set new career-highs with 40 home runs and 108 RBI...His 40 homers were the second-most in club history for a player in his first season with the Birds (49 by Frank Robinson in 1966)...Cruz became the sixth Oriole with a 40-homer season, joining Chris Davis (53 in 2013), Brady Anderson (50 in 1996), Robinson (49 in 1966), Jim Gentile (46 in 1961) and Rafael Palmeiro (43 in 1998)...Cruz recorded the 18th season in club history with at least 30 doubles and 30 homers.

SULTANS OF SWAT: The Orioles became the fourth team since 1920 to have two different players win the home run title in consecutive years (Nelson Cruz in 2014 and Chris Davis in 2013), joining the 1936-37 Yankees (Lou Gehrig 49 and Jose DiMaggio 46), 1987-88 Athletics (Mark McGwire 49 and Jose Canseco 42), and 1993-94 Giants (Barry Bonds 46 and Matt Williams 43).

PITCH PERFECT: The Orioles pitched to a 3.43 ERA, their lowest in a full season since 1979, when the AL champions posted a 3.26 mark...The Birds recorded the third-best ERA in the AL behind Seattle (3.17) and Oakland (3.22).

SOUTHPAW SAVES: Zach Britton recorded 37 saves after being placed in the closer role on May 15...Britton became the seventh AL left-hander to record 37 or more saves in a season and just the second Oriole as he joined Randy Myers, who saved 45 games in 1997...With his 30th save on August 30, Britton became the 10th different Oriole to record a 30-save season (the 14th total 30-save season by an Oriole).

ROAD WARRIOR: Chris Tillman was undefeated in his first 15 road starts until he fell at Toronto on September 26...His 8-1 mark on the road tied for the second-best road winning percentage in a season by an Oriole pitcher (Scott McGregor holds the record with a .933 mark (14-1) in 1983)...Had he won or taken a no-decision, Tillman would have had the most road starts in a season without a loss (16) since 1914...Greg Maddux holds the record, going 13-0 in 15 away starts in 1995.

QUALITY STREAK SNAPPED: Chris Tillman allowed three earned runs or fewer in 20 straight starts from June 10-September 20...The streak tied for the second-longest streak in club history with Steve Barber (1965-66)...Dave McNally (1968) holds the club record with 25 straight starts allowing three earned runs or fewer.

BIG FLOCK: 46 different players donned the black and orange in 2014, with 22 making their Orioles debuts...Three players got their first taste of the big leagues in 2014 (Tim Berry, Caleb Joseph, and Christian Walker).

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

SHOWING SOME POP: The Orioles recorded 211 homers and 264 doubles, marking the third consecutive season they hit 200 or more of each...Prior to 2012, the Birds had done that only three times in franchise history: 1999 (203 homers and 299 doubles), 1998 (214 homers and 303 doubles), and 1996 (257 homers and 299 doubles).

WALK IT OFF: The Orioles recorded 10 walk-off wins in 2014, with three of them coming on home runs (Matt Wieters on May 1 vs. Pittsburgh, Chris Davis on June 23 vs. Chicago-AL, and Manny Machado on July 29 vs. Los Angeles-AL)...The Orioles won the June 25 game against the White Sox on a walk-off wild pitch...The Orioles' nine walk-off hits all came from different players (Steve Clevenger, Davis, Nick Hundley, Kelly Johnson, David Lough, Machado, Nick Markakis, Jimmy Paredes, and Wieters).

ALL HANDS ON DECK: The Orioles used 23 players on September 7 vs. Tampa Bay, the most by the club since also using 23 on September 14, 1960 at Detroit (one shy of the franchise record – 24, September 7, 1958 vs. Boston).

INTERLEAGUE IMPROVEMENT: The Orioles went 12-8 in Interleague Play, setting a new club record for most Interleague wins in a season...The Birds won the season series against Cincinnati (3-0), Pittsburgh (3-1), Washington (3-1), and St. Louis (2-1), while losing series to Milwaukee (1-2) and the Cubs (0-3)...Baltimore has finished over .500 against the NL in five of the last seven seasons since 2008, after having a winning record just twice in the first 11 years of Interleague Play.

TAKE ANOTHER LOOK: The Orioles were the last AL team to challenge a call with the new replay rules...Buck Showalter challenged an out call on Nelson Cruz at first base on April 19 at Boston, and the call was overturned, giving Cruz an RBI single to tie the game in the sixth inning.

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT AWARDS: The Orioles Player Development Department named INF Christian Walker the Brooks Robinson Minor League Player of the Year and RHP Tyler Wilson won the Jim Palmer Prize as Minor League Pitcher of the Year...Walker hit a combined .288/.357/.489 with 53 extra-base hits, 96 RBI and 73 runs scored in 139 total games with Double-A Bowie (.301/.367/.516 in 95 games) and Triple-A Norfolk (.259/.335/.428 in 44 games), leading all Orioles minor leaguers in home runs (26) and RBI (96) in 2014... Walker was named the first baseman for the 2014 Eastern League Season Ending All-Star Team, finishing the season among the EL leaders despite being promoted to Triple-A in July, ranking 2nd in RBI (77), 3rd in slugging (.516), and 6th in average (.301)...He also was named EL Player of the Week twice, for the weeks ending April 20 and May 18... Walker was selected by the Orioles in the 4th round of the 2012 First Year Player Draft out of the University of South Carolina...Wilson went a combined 14-8 with a 3.67 ERA in 166.2 innings pitched for Double-A Bowie (10-5, 3.72 ERA in 96.2 IP over 16 starts) and Triple-A Norfolk (4-3, 3.60 ERA in 70.0 IP over 12 starts)...He led all Orioles minor leaguers in wins (14) and strikeouts (157) and ranked 7th in ERA (3.67)...Wilson was named the Organizational Pitcher of the Month for April, when he went 4-0 with a 2.76 ERA (29.1IP, 9ER) in five starts for the Baysox...He also received EL Pitcher of the Week honors for the week ending April 27...Wilson was selected by the Orioles in the 10th round of the 2011 First Year Player Draft out of the University of Virginia...RHP Mark Blackmar was named the 2014 recipient of the Elrod Hendricks Minor League Community Service Award...Blackmar displayed outstanding dedication to the community while spending his season with the Frederick Keys...He made numerous appearances in the Frederick community on behalf of the Keys, including helping with a camp at the stadium, telling stories to children at multiple library appearances, and mingling with fans at the annual Celtic festival...Blackmar was traded to the Chicago White Sox on August 30 as part of a deal for Alejandro De Aza...The Delmarva Shorebirds coaching staff of Ryan Minor (manager), Alan Mills (pitching coach), Paco Figueroa (hitting coach), and Shawn McGill (coach) was named the winner of the Cal Ripken Sr. Player Development Award, presented to a minor league staff member(s) who exemplifies the qualities of the late Oriole who is regarded as the architect of "The Oriole Way"...The Shorebirds staff earned the award due to multiple player development successes, including producing seven league All-Stars, coaching the league batting champion (Chance Sisco), and overseeing a pitching staff that led all of the minor leagues in ERA in the month of May...Midwest Supervisor Jim Richardson received the Jim Russo Scout of the Year Award, named in honor

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc is a unique non-profit organization, dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. Founded in July of 1960, the Advocates are in their 53rd year of "Promoting and Stimulating Interest in Baseball." Membership comprises some 75 men and women, drawn from a broad cross-section in the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial donations to worthy causes, primarily to baseballoriented youth organizations; have played a key role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Street and its conversion into the Babe Ruth/Orioles Museum; and established the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1977.

The organization has also served as an essential right arm to the Orioles Public Relations, Community Relations, and Marketing Departments. In that connection, the Advocates initiated the popular Junior Orioles program (now the Dugout Club) back in 1963 and administered it for 25 years. Membership rose from 75 youngsters the first year to a record 20,000 in 1977. The Oriole Advocates don't get paid for anything they do, instead serving as volunteers that constantly demonstrate the importance of competence and dedication whenever there is a job to be done.

2015 Oriole Advocates officers: President - Rick Young...First Vice President - Tom Cummings...Second Vice President - Bob Brandenberger...Treasurer - Rich Barnhart...Secretary - Arlene Grimes...Board Members at Large - Mike Licea, Skip Gormley, and Larry Miles...Immediate Past President - Carol Avery

ORIOLES DESIGNATED HITTERS

The Baltimore Orioles Designated Hitters were established in the fall of 1979 as a volunteer sales force and designed primarily to keep baseball in Baltimore by increasing season ticket sales. The Designated Hitters (DHs) became an instrumental part of the Orioles' organizational drive to put fans in the stands. Today, DHs work within the regional corporate community as well as small businesses, non-profit organizations, schools, local government and individual customers to sell them on the Orioles. The DH staff members participate out of passion for their hometown team and represent the Orioles as a strong volunteer sales support staff dedicated to the continuing success of the Orioles' organization. For more information about the DHs, call 410-547-6071 or e-mail dh@orioles.com.

^{*}Tie games: The Orioles have played 12 tie games; all except one were in Baltimore (one each in '03, '01, '96, 82, and eight others between '55 and '64). Most were Baltimore curfew related. Those curfews, which prohibited starting an inning after 11:50 p.m. six days a week and required the immediate suspension of play at 11:50 p.m. on Saturdays, are no longer in effect... Tie games were played against: Chicago White Sox-4, New York Yankees-3, Kansas City A's-2, Milwaukee-1, Oakland-1, Texas-1.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS: The Birds won the season series for the third straight year after going 0-6-1 against the Jays in season series from 2005-'11 • The O's have posted three straight seasons of 10-plus wins against the Blue Jays for the first time in franchise history. The Orioles have lost 44 of the last 64 games at Rogers Centre since June of 2008 • The O's completed the first three-game sweep of the Blue Jays at Oriole Park since April 24-26, 2012 after taking three straight, September 15-17 • The Orioles clinched their ninth AL East division title in club history and first since 1997 with an 8-2 win over the Blue Jays on September 16 • Nelson Cruz batted. 333/375/545 with three home runs and 14 RBI in 17 games against the Blue Jays • Christian Walker recorded his first ML hit in his first ML game with a double off of J.A. Happ in the seventh inning, September 17 • Steve Pearce posted the second multi-homer game of his career with a pair of blasts off of Happ in the same game • Since 2012, Chris Davis (21 HR) and Adam Jones (16) rank #1 and 2 in MLB in HR vs. TOR • RHP Bud Norris went 4-0 with a 1.78 ERA (30.1IP, 6ER) in five starts against the Blue Jays, matching his season-high win total against any opponent (also 4-0 vs. NYY)• In nine appearances, LHP Zach Britton went 1-0 and 5-for-5 in save opportunities with a 0.90 ERA (10.0IP, ER) • RHP Darren O'Day posted a 1.35 ERA (6.2IP, ER) in six games and has now pitched to a 2.37 ERA (30.1IP, 8ER) in 34 career outings against Toronto

ALL-TIME HIGHLIGHTS: Jose Bautista's nine homers in 2010 tied Tony Batista (TOR, 2000) and Frank Howard (WAS, 1968) for most homers in a season by an Orioles opponent and were one more than the O's hit against Toronto . The Orioles lost 16 straight games in Toronto from August 8, 2009-June 15, 2011 . Mark Reynolds homered into the second deck at Camden Yards August 7, 2011 off Ricky Romero... It was just the second ball to reach the second level in Camden Yards history (Rex Hudler 6/11/95) • The Orioles are 22-47-7 in their last 76 series against Toronto since June 2001 and have been swept 17 times during that stretch • On September 28, 2000, the Birds set a club record for runs in a game in a 23-1 win over the Blue Jays • On September 24, 1997, the Orioles defeated Toronto 9-3 and clinched their first AL East title since 1983 • Roberto Alomar's game-winning home run in the 10th inning at Skydome on September 28, 1996 helped the Orioles defeat the Blue Jays to clinch the Wild Card • On July 15, 1996 against Toronto, Cal Ripken Jr. played third base for the first time since June 30, 1982, snapping a streak of 2,216 consecutive games at shortstop • In 1989 the O's went to Toronto on the last weekend of the season, trailing the Jays by one game... Toronto won the first two games to win the division • Toronto hit a major-league record 10 home runs against the Birds on September 14, 1987, giving them an 18-3 lead • Manager Cal Ripken Sr. then removed Cal Ripken Jr. from the game and ended his consecutive innings streak at 8,265, a ML record • On August 24, 1983, Tippy Martinez picked off three Toronto runners from first base in the same inning • Utility infielder Lenn Sakata, catching the inning Martinez picked off the runners. hit a 10th inning game-winning home run to give the O's a 7-4 victory • The Blue Jays beat the O's 24-10 on June 26, 1978, a game in which player/coach Elrod Hendricks pitched 2.1 scoreless innings

2014 HIGHLIGHTS: Kansas City won the season series for the second straight year...The O's won two games by one run (including an extra-inning affair), and posted a shutout in their other victory • The Birds were shut out twice by the Royals, once each in Baltimore (5-0 by Yordano Ventura/Greg Holland in the season pasted a shifted in their other victory. The Bloss were shifted time by the Nydels, bline each in Ballining (or or by Fordard Vertidance) and the season in the third and sixth before Nick Markakis walked everyone off with a one out, bases loaded single in the 10th • KC won the series rubber game on April 27 behind 7.0 innings of two run ball from James Shields and six RBI from Omar Infante • In the series opener in KC on May 15, Nelson Cruz hit a two-run HR in the fourth inning and that would be all the O's needed thanks to 3.2 perfect innings from four relievers after Wei-Yin Chen went 5.1 innings and allowed just one run • On May 16, Chris Tillman tossed the first complete game shutout (5H, BB, 3K) of his career in the O's 4-0 win... Cruz had two of the four RBI and Chris Davis homered for the O's • The O's suffered their first 1-0 loss since September 20, 2008 when they were blanked by Duffy and company on May 17... A first inning RBI single by Billy Buller was the difference • The Royals won the rubber game of the season series on May 18 on the strength of two Alex Gordon home runs (six RBI) and a Quality Start from Shields (7.0IP, 3ER) • The Orioles advanced to the ALCS for the first time since 1997 and were swept by KC, the club's first losing playoff series sweep in history • Despite being swept, the Orioles were within one run in the 9th inning all four games of the series

ALL-TIME HIGHLIGHTS: Scott Feldman worked eight innings and allowed two runs in the series opening win at Kansas City July 22, 2013 while Chris Davis and J.J. Hardy each drove in three runs • Manny Machado made his ML debut against the Royals on August 9, 2012 and hit his first two homers the following night on August 10 • The Orioles won 12 consecutive games against Kansas City from July 26, 2006-May 10, 2008... It was the O's longest winning streak over one team since winning 13 straight against Toronto from 1978-1979 • The Royals swept three games from Baltimore in April of 2000 with a pair of walk-off home runs and a RBI single in the bottom of the ninth inning • On April 27, 1999 in Baltimore, B.J. Surhoff matched a then-Orioles record with five hits against the Royals Cal Ripken played in his 2,216th consecutive gameon June 14, 1996 at Kansas City, setting a world record for most consecutive games played... The previous record had been held by Sachio Kinugasa of the Hiroshima Carp in Japan's Central League • The Orioles and Royals combined for 36 runs in a doubleheader June 23, 1991 • Cal Ripken Jr. made his major league debut against Kansas City on August 10, 1981 as he entered the game as a pinch-runner and scored a run • Cal Ripken Jr. hit his first major league home run against the Royals on Opening Day the following season (April 5, 1982) • The Orioles won 24 of their first 25 games against Kansas City and set a major league record by defeating the Royals 23 straight games from April 10, 1969-August 2, 1970

2014 HIGHLIGHTS: The O's took the season series, 4-2, with all games being decided by one (O's had a 2-2 record) or two runs (2-0) • In the season series opener on July 21, Adam Jones smashed two home runs and Bud Norris turned in a Quality Start (6.2IP, 2R/IER) in the O's 4-2 win • Miguel Gonzalez (7.2IP, 2ER) allowed just a two out two-run HR to Mike Trout in the eighth, but the O's earned the road series victory on July 22 with a 4-2 win...J.J. Hardy and Jonathan Schoop each had two hits and two RBI for the Birds • Chris Tillman (6.0IP, ER) turned in the O's third Quality Start of the series, but two Angels runs in the eighth off Tommy Hunter gave LA a 3-2 win to avoid the sweep on July 23 * In the Baltimore series opener on July 29, six O's relievers followed Chris Tillman (5.0IP, 5R/3ER) with 7.0 innings of one-run ball before Manny Machado hit his first career walk-off home run leading off the bottom of the 12th • The Birds secured the win in both the series and season series with a 4-3 win on July 30, getting out to a 4-0 lead by the fourth before Kevin Gausman (7.0IP, 3ER) allowed three runs in the fifth...Zach Britton earned his third save in four head-to-head wins • On July 31, Bud Norris (7.0IP) and Tyler Skaggs (4.2IP) locked up in a pitcher's duel that remained scoreless until the Angels scored once in the 13th to win it... It was the O's first 1-0 loss in extra innings since October 3, 1999

ALL-TIME HIGHLIGHTS: The O's swept the season series for the first time in franchise history in 2010, allowing just 15 runs in the six games • Felix Pie became Oriole to hit for the cycle on August 14, 2009, little more than two years after Aubrey Huff also did it against the Angels - Aubrey Huff also did it agains 1979 ALCS gave the O's a 6-3 win (O's won series, 3-1) • Nolan Ryan pitched his fourth career no-hitter on June 1, 1975 against Baltimore • Bo Belinsky tossed a no-hitter against the Birds on May 5, 1962 • The Angels defeated the Orioles, 7-2, at Memorial Stadium in their inaugural game on April 11, 1961

2014 HIGHLIGHTS: The O's won the season series for the third time in the last four seasons, going 5-2 vs. Seattle...The Birds won two shutouts, two extra-inning games and four of five wins came by one run • Baltimore won the season series opener on July 24, 4-0, thanks to 8.0 shoutout innings from Wei-Yin Chen and three hits from Delmon Young, including a home run • On July 25, Kevin Gausman (6.2IP, ER) matched Felix Hernandez (7.0IP, ER, 10K), giving Chris Davis a chance to give the Birds a 2-1 win with a 10th inning HR off Charlie Furbush • The Birds rallied for three unearned runs in the eighth, but could get no closer in a 4-3 loss on July 26...Chris Young tossed 7.0 shutout innings for the M's • The teams traded single runs in the eighth, and the game went to the 10th tied, 2-2, before a Manny Machado sac fly won it for the O's, 3-2, to earn the series victory • In the series opener in Baltimore on August 1, Wei-Yin Chen (7.1IP, ER), the newly-acquired Andrew Miller (0.2IP) and Zach Britton (IP) combined to hold down Seattle's offense in a 2-1 O's win... A two-out RBI single in the sixth from J.J. Hardy was the difference • Seattle evened the series on August 2, with Dustin Ackley collecting three hits and three runs scored in the 6-3 M's win...Manny Machado had three knocks for the Birds • The Orioles closed out the season series with a 1-0 win on August 3, with their lone run coming on a lead-off HR (Nick Markakis's first career) for the first time in club history...Tillman (7.0IP), Miller, and Britton (IP each) combined on the shutout against Seattle in 2011 and 2012 after not having done so since 2005 • After losing their first 14 games at Safeco Field, the O's are 27-28 in the last 55 games in Seattle (7-3 in last 10 games) • Kevin Millwood and AL Cy Young winner Felix Hernandez each pitched complete games on April 21, 2010, the first time that happened in an O's 9-inning game since July 11, 2003 • Rafael Palmeiro collected his 3,000th career hit, a double off Joel Pineiro, July 15, 2005 at Safeco Field • On May 8, 1997, the O's defeated Randy Johnson to end his 16-game winning streak and would beat him four times that year (twice in the ALDS) • Baltimore defeated Seattle, the contraction of the ALDS) • Baltimore defeated Seattle, three games to one, to win the 1997 American League Division Series • Chris Holles hit a two-out grand slam to give the O's a 14-13 win on May 17, 1996, the 12th two-out, walk-off grand slam in ML history • Randy Johnson (13) and Dave Fleming (4) combined to strike out 17 O's on May 26, 1995, tying the single game record by an opponent • The O's tied an AL record, stranding 15 baserunners in a shutout loss to Seattle on April 9, 1993 • Mike Flanagan faced the minimum in his shutout on May 3, 1983 against the Mariners, despite allowing three hits and a walk

2012 HIGHLIGHTS: The Orioles were swept by the Mets at Citi Field, the second series sweep in head-to-head history (also NYM 2010) • Just two days after Jason Hammel tossed a one-hit CG shutout vs. ATL, R.A. Dickey did the same to the O's on June 18 • Wilson Betemit recorded the only hit in the 5-0 loss on June 18... Ike Davis hit a grand slam for the Mets • The Mets blanked the O's in game two on June 19 behind Johan Santana (6.0IP) and three relievers • New York completed the sweep on June 20 in a 4-3 win, just one of nine losses by the O's all season in one-run games • Betemit batted .429/.500/.857 (3-for-7) with a walk and home run in the three games.

ALL-TIME HIGHLIGHTS: New York has swept the last two series (2010 & 12) • Cy Young Award winner R.A. Dickey threw a complete game one-hit shutout on June 18, 2012, a 5-0 Mets win • The Orioles won their first-ever season series against the Mets in 2006, taking two of three at Shea Stadium • In the 2nd game of the 2001 series at Camden Yards, shortstop Mike Bordick suffered a separated shoulder & missed the remainder of the season • Brian Roberts replaced Bordick on the roster & made his majorleague debut in the finale against the Mets, singling in his second at-bat • The O's and Mets were rained out at Shea Stadium in June 2000, extending their series one more day • A lack of hotels in the New York area forced the Orioles to return to Baltimore and fly back to New York for the final game, which the Mets won in the 10th inning • Mike Mussina pitched a complete-game two-hitter against New York on June 22, 1998 • The Mets defeated the Orioles in the 1969 World Series, four games to one.

MINOR LEAGUE PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

The Orioles winners of their player development and scouting awards for 2014 were INF CHRISTIAN WALKER as the club's top minor league player and RHP TYLER WILSON as the club's top minor league pitcher.

Walker, the Brooks Robinson Minor League Player of the Year, hit a combined .288/.357/.489 with 53 extra-base hits, 96 RBI, and 73 runs scored in 139 total games with Double-A Bowie (.301/.367/.516 in 95 games) and Triple-A Norfolk (.259/.335/.428 in 44 games), leading all Orioles minor leaguers in home runs (26) and RBI (96) in 2014. Walker, 23, was named the first baseman for the 2014 Eastern League Season Ending All-Star Team, finishing the season among the EL leaders in several categories despite being promoted to Triple-A in July, ranking second in RBI (77), third in slugging (.516), and sixth in average (.301). He also was Named EL Player of the Week twice, for the weeks ending April 20 and May 18. Walker was selected by the Orioles in the fourth round of the 2012 First Year Player Draft out of the University of South Carolina.

Wilson, the Jim Palmer Minor League Pitcher of the Year, went a combined 14-8 with a 3.67 ERA in 166.2 innings pitched for Double-A Bowie (10-5, 3.72 ERA in 96.2 IP over 16 starts) and Triple-A Norfolk (4-3, 3.60 ERA in 70.0 IP over 12 starts) in 2014. He led all Orioles minor leaguers in wins (14) and strikeouts (157) and ranked seventh in ERA (3.67). Wilson was named the Organizational Pitcher of the Month for April, when he went 4-0 with a 2.76 ERA (29.1IP, 9ER) in five starts for the Baysox. He also received Eastern League Pitcher of the Week honors for the week ending April 27. Wilson, 24, was selected by the Orioles in the 10th round of the 2011 First Year Player Draft out of the University of Virginia.

RUSSO AWARD

Midwest Supervisor JIM RICHARDSON received the Jim Russo Scout of the Year Award In 2014, named in honor of the man who spent 33 years in various scouting capacities with the Orioles beginning with their move from St. Louis in 1954. Richardson has been an Orioles scout for 10 drafts, having started with the organization in 2004. His draft signings for the Orioles as an area scout or supervisor include current Orioles ZACH BRITTON and KEVIN GAUSMAN and minor leaguers PARKER BRIDWELL, DYLAN and BOBBY BUNDY, TANNER SCOTT and ASHUR TOLLIVER.

ORIOLES DRAFT NOTES

The 2015 First Year Player Draft will be held June 8-10. The Orioles will have the 25th pick in the first round of the draft. The First Year Player Draft began in 1965. The first player chosen in that first draft to reach the major leagues with the Orioles was sixth round selection Bill Dillman, a RHP from Wake Forest University. The most dazzling 1-2 picks in Orioles history came out of the 1967 draft when the Birds selected Bobby Grich No. 1 and Don Baylor No. 2. The Orioles selected a record four players in the first round of the 1999 draft as compensation for free agents lost the previous year.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Former Orioles pitcher Scott McGregor, now a coach in the Orioles minor league system, is one of 27 first-round draft picks ever to win 20 games in a season. A first-round pick of the Yankees in 1972 (12th overall pick), he won 20 games for the Orioles in 1980. In addition to McGregor, first-round picks who were 20-game winners at least once in their careers include Josh Beckett, Kevin Brown, Chris Carpenter, Roger Clemens, Joe Coleman, R.A. Dickey, Dwight Gooden, Gio Gonzalez, Bill Gullickson, Roy Halladay, Rick Helling, Ian Kennedy, Clayton Kershaw, Jack McDowell, Matt Morris, Mark Mulder, Mike Mussina, David Price, C.C. Sabathia, Max Scherzer, Rick Sutcliffe, Justin Verlander, Adam Wainwright, Jered Weaver, Bob Welch, and Barry Zito.
- Former Orioles pitcher Milt Pappas is one of 12 pitchers in major league history to hit a solo home run and win a game 1-0. He did it April 18, 1962, homering in the fifth inning to beat the Yankees' Bill Stafford at Memorial Stadium in Baltimore.
- Orioles RHP Moe Drabowsky struck out 11 Dodgers in relief in Game 1 of the 1966 World Series, to become the only reliever to fan more than nine batters in a World Series game. Harvey Haddix has the Orioles' regular season record for strikeouts by a reliever, also with 11, on June 15, 1964 vs. Chicago.
- The 1998 Orioles were the only team in history to field a batting order that featured four players with 300 career home runs: Joe Carter (387 at the time), Cal Ripken (384), Harold Baines (348) and Rafael Palmeiro (314).
- 4 Al Bumbry is one of 20 American League players to hit three triples in one game. He did it September 22, 1973 at Milwaukee.
- Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally won at least 20 games each for the Orioles from 1969 through 1971, the only teammates to do that three straight seasons since 1951.

EUTAW STREET HOME RUNS

Of the 79 home runs hit onto the Eutaw St. promenade since Oriole Park opened in 1992, 30 of them have been hit by Orioles, including six by Luke Scott, the most by an individual. Jason Giambi's three are the most by an opposing player. A single season-high 11 homers landed on Eutaw St. in 2012, Luke Scott's blast on July 19, 2008 is the only walk-off Eutaw St. home run in park history.

(1) Oct 2, '09

Bal vs. TB

Min vs. KC

OVERALL: The O's have out-slammed their opponents, 239-208, in their 61-year history...The Orioles have hit three postseason grand slams (one on the road and two in Baltimore - one each at Memorial Stadium and Oriole Park),...They have a 138-90 advantage in Baltimore during the regular season, including a 64-49 edge at Oriole Park at Camden Yards...THREE IN ONE GAME: The Orioles and Texas combined to hit a major league-record three grand slams on August 6, 1986 in the Rangers' 13-11 win at Memorial Stadium...Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit fourth inning grand slams for the Orioles, only the fifth time in history one club has hit two grand slams in an inning... Toby Harrah hit Texas' grand slam...Houston and the Chicago Cubs tied the record on June 3, 1987...TWO IN ONE GAME; Only 10 major leaguers have hit two grand slams in the same game and it has been done by an Oriole three times...Chris Holles hit a pair of grand slams on August 14, 1998 at Cleveland, connecting in the third and eighth innings...Jim Gentile and Frank Robinson previously did it for the O's, and are among four players who have done it in consecutive at bats...Gentile hit slams in the first and second innings at Minnesota on May 9, 1961...Robinson did it in the fifth and sixth innings at Washington on June 26, 1970...GENTILE HIT 5 IN 1961: Gentile set an American League record and tied the major league record then held by the Cubs' Ernie Banks when he hit five bases loaded homers in '61...The Yankees' Don Mattingly broke the mark with six grand slams in 1987 and Cleveland's Travis Hafner matched that record in 2006... POSTSEASON SLAMMING PITCHERS: Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally are the only two major league pitchers to hit grand slams in post-season play, and both did it in 1970 with the Orioles...Cuellar connected in ALCS Game 1 off the Twins' Jim Perry (at Minnesota)... McNally hit his in World Series Game 3 off the Reds' Wayne Granger at Memorial Stadium...Cuellar's slam was the first in LCS history... OPPONENTS: The 2006 Orioles allowed a major-league leading and club record 12 grand slams...The previous club record was nine allowed in 2000...The 1978 and 1993 Orioles allowed grand slams in three consecutive games, tying the major league record set by the 1901 Reds...The 1978 O's allowed slams in three straight games, April 7-9, at Milwaukee...The 1993 O's did it August 10-12, all at Detroit...Alex Rodriguez is the only player with four grand slams against the Orioles, while Edgar Martinez and Jim Thome are the only players with three grand slams against the O's...Oakland's Carlos Reyes in 1996 became the third opposing pitcher to give up two grand slams in the same season to the Orioles, joining Chicago's Terry Forster (1976) and Jack Harshman (1955)...GOPHER PITCHERS: Milt Pappas gave up six bases loaded homers as an Oriole, most by any O's hurler...Pappas gave up nine overall in his career, tying Jerry Reuss (1969-90) and Ned Garver (1948-61) for second-highest career grand slams allowed in major league history behind Mike Jackson, who allowed 10...Jake Arrieta, Dave McNally, Scott McGregor, Alan Mills, Jesse Orosco, and Chris Ray are next among Oriole pitchers, allowing four apiece...Jim Palmer never allowed a slam in 558 games spanning nearly 4,000 innings.

THE ORIOLES 20-20 CLUB

Four different Orioles have hit at least 20 home runs and stolen at least 20 bases in the same season. Brady Anderson (three times) is the only player to do it more than once:

> 1969 Paul Blair (26 HR, 20 SB) 1975 Don Baylor (25 HR, 32 SB)

1976 Reggie Jackson (27 HR, 28 SB)

1992 Brady Anderson (21 HR, 53 SB)

1996 Brady Anderson (50 HR, 21 SB)

LIFETIME GRAND SLAMS BY ORIOLES

The Orioles have hit 138 regular season grand slams at home and two more in the postseason in Baltimore (Dave McNally in 1970 and Bobby Bonilla in 1996).

The O's have out-slammed their opponents 65-49 at Camden Yards (including Bonilla's postseason grand slam).

INSIDE THE PARK HOME RUNS

On August 22, 1993, Texas Rangers (and former Orioles) outfielder Butch Davis circled the bases for an inside-the-park home run off Arthur Rhodes at Oriole Park. It was the first ever hit in the new park and first by a visiting player in Baltimore since August 17, 1960 when Washington's Lenny Green hit one off Jack Fisher.

On July 21, 2004, David Newhan hit one off Boston's Pedro Martinez at Fenway Park. It was the first by an Oriole since Phil Bradley accomplished the feat June 8, 1990 at Memorial Stadium against the New York Yankees.

When Bradley circled the bases, it was the Orioles' first inside-the-park home run since Al Bumbry did it against the Chicago White Sox on August 21, 1976 at Comiskey Park.

The Orioles allowed two inside-the-park home runs in 2003. Detroit's Shane Halter performed the feat May 6 at Camden Yards off Pat Hentgen, who was victimized again September 13 at Toronto by Greg Myers.

On May 22, 2010, at Washington, ADAM JONES hit an inside-the-park home run off Craig Stammen as Nyjer Morgan got a glove on the ball keeping it in the park, but thought it went over. Jones circled bases as Morgan reacted in disbelief that he hadn't caught it.

On September 26, 2011, Robert Andino hit the first inside-the-park home run by an Oriole at Oriole Park. Andino's fly ball off Josh Beckett caromed off the glove of Jacoby Ellsbury as he slammed into the center-field wall. Ellsbury was unable to retrieve it as Andino circled the bases.

Orioles pitcher Jeremy Accardo allowed two inside-the-park home runs in 2011 as Boston's Jacoby Ellsbury accomplished the feat September 19 in Boston and Tampa Bay's Evan Longoria tagged Accardo June 12 in Baltimore for just the second inside-the-parker by an opponent at Oriole Park.

On September 7, 2014, David DeJesus hit an inside-the-park home run off BUD NORRIS as ALEJANDRO DE AZA and DAVID LOUGH nearly collided in left-center field. The ball caromed off Lough into the left field corner and DeJesus circled the bases for his fourth career inside-the-park homer.

NOTES ON 20-GAME WINNERS: Although the Orioles have not had one in the past 30 seasons, Baltimore pitchers have produced 24 20-win seasons including 23 in the past 47 years (starting in '68), more than any other major league club...The A's (17), Yankees (16), Cardinals (13), Red Sox (12), White Sox (12), Braves (12), Dodgers (12), Tigers (11), and Twins (10) are the only other teams with 10 or more since 1968.

In 1971, four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau...The only other foursome in the history of major league baseball to have achieved the feat was a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21, and Ed Cicotte-21...Despite that achievement, the White Sox finished second that year, two games behind Cleveland.

Steve Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19 en route to a team record 25 victories in 1980...Three other Orioles hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: McNally (August 25) and Cuellar (August 27) in 1971 and Palmer (August 20) in 1975.

The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore (1954 thru 1967), was lefthander Steve Barber in 1963.

TRIPLE PLAYS

The Orioles have executed 12 triple plays and have hit into 17 in 61 seasons.

The most recent triple play, and arguably most bizarre, took place on September 1, 2000 at Cleveland. In the second inning, with Sandy Alomar, Jr. at the plate, Travis Fryman at second base and Wil Cordero at first base, SS Melvin Mora allowed Alomar's short fly to left to bounce in front of him. The Cleveland runners, thinking the infield fly rule had been called, did not run and Alomar headed to the dugout. Mora picked up the ball and threw to 2B Jerry Hairston, who tagged Fryman and stepped on second to force Cordero. After realizing Alomar had not reached first base, Sidney Ponson flipped the ball to Jeff Conine at first to retire Alomar. After some discussion by the umpires and the ejection of Charlie Manuel, the play stood and the inning ended.

The Orioles' previous triple play, and their most recent one at home, came on August 25, 1992 against California. With Tim Salmon at third and Chad Curtis at first, Gary Gaetti lined to 3B Leo Gomez who stepped on third to retire Salmon and threw to 1B Randy Milligann to complete the triple play. It is the only triple play turned by the Orioles at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

The Orioles have hit into two triple plays at Oriole Park. The most recent one was April 3, 1996 against Kansas City, when DH Bobby Bonilla grounded into a 5-4-3-2 triple play. With Roberto Alomar at third base and Rafael Palmeiro at first, 3B Joe Randa gloved Bonilla's grounder and threw to 2B Bip Roberts to force Palmeiro. As Roberts threw to first to double up Bonilla, Alomar streaked towards the plate and was thrown out by 1B Bob Hamelin, who threw to C Sal Fasano.

On April 12, 2013 at New York, MANNY MACHADO hit into a 4-6-5-6-5-3-4 triple play, the most recent triple play turned against the Orioles.

GOLD GLOVE AWARDS

The Gold Glove Award was initiated in 1957 by the Rawlings Sporting Goods Company in cooperation with The Sporting News to acknowledge individual defensive excellence by a vote of managers and coaches in each league.

Gold Glove totals by each team: Cardinals 85, ORIOLES 70, Yankees 64, Reds 53, Braves 50, Phillies and Pirates 46, Dodgers 43, Twins and Red Sox 42, Tigers 41, Mariners 39, Giants 38, White Sox 37, Cubs and Senators/Rangers 36, Angels 34, Indians 30, Royals 26, Expos/Nationals and Blue Jays 23, Astros and Padres 22, Athletics 21, Mets 19, Rockies 17, Brewers and Marlins 10, Arizona 7, and Tampa Bay 5

A total of 17 Orioles have Gold Gloves, with 16 winning multiple times, led by Brooks Robinson, who is tied with pitcher Jim Kaat for second place all-time with 16 Gold Gloves. Greg Maddux is first all-time with 18 Gold Gloves. Other Oriole multiple winners include: Paul Blair and Mark Belanger (eight each), ADAM JONES, Jim Palmer, Bobby Grich and Mike Mussina (four each), J.J. HARDY, Davey Johnson, and Eddie Murray (three each). Roberto Alomar, Luis Aparicio, Nick Markakis, Rafael Palmeiro, Cal Ripken Jr., and MATT WIETERS (two each). Alomar won a total of 10 Gold Gloves in his career, Aparicio 9, Mussina 7 and Palmeiro 3.

ALL-STAR NOTES

In 2013, the Orioles sent five players (CHRIS DAVIS, J.J. HARDY, ADAM JONES, MANNY MACHADO and CHRIS TILLMAN) to the All-Star Game in New York (Citi Field)... It was the first time since 1997 the Orioles had five or more All-Stars.

In 2009, in his first All-Star Game, CF ADAM JONES was 0-1 with a sacrifice fly and the game-winning RBI...At 23 years old, he was the third-youngest player with a game-winning RBI in the eighth inning or later of an All-Star Game, behind Ted Williams (1941) and Hank Blalock (2003) each of whom did it at age 22...JONES was the youngest Oriole to make the AL squad since Mike Mussina (also 23) in 1992 and the youngest O's position player to make the squad since Cal Ripken Jr. (22) in 1983.

LHP George Sherrill, who had spent all or parts of five years in independent baseball, was named to the 2008 All-Star team and pitched 2.1 scoreless innings in the game which was held in the old Yankee Stadium...After having 28 saves at the break, Sherrill became the first pitcher since 1987 to work more than two innings in an All-Star Game.

DOUBLE-PLAY DUOS: In 2005, 2B Brian Roberts and SS Miguel Tejada became the first Orioles teammates to start in the All-Star Game since 2B Roberto Alomar and 3B Cal Ripken each started in 1998. They were the third 2B-SS tandem from the same team to start for the AL since fan balloting returned in 1970, joining New York's Willie Randolph and Bucky Dent in 1981 along with Alomar and Ripken in 1996.

THREE IN A ROW: Shortstop Miguel Tejada was named to his 3rd straight All-Star team in 2006, becoming the 12th player in club history to make the team in at least 3 straight seasons...He joined Cal Ripken (1983-2001), Brooks Robinson (1960-74), Eddie Murray (1981-86), Boog Powell (1968-71), Frank Robinson (1969-72), Gus Triandos (1957-59), Jim Gentile (1960-62), Davey Johnson (1968-70), Jim Palmer (1970-72), Mike Mussina (1992-94) and Roberto Alomar (1996-98).

CAL'S FINALE: 3B Cal Ripken, playing in his final All-Star Game, homered on the first pitch he saw in the third inning and went on to win his second All-Star MVP Award in the 2001 All-Star Game at Seattle's Safeco Field...Ripken, the lone Oriole selected to play in the game, led off the inning and turned on the first pitch from Los Angeles' Chan Ho Park to give the American League a 1-0 lead it would not relinquish... It was the 19th time Ripken was either elected or selected to the AL All-Star squad, breaking Brooks Robinson's AL mark; he technically started at shortstop after Texas' Alex Rodriguez 'pushed' him to the position and played third base himself in the first inning...Cal also won MVP honors in the 1991 game, homering at Toronto...With the 2001 home run, he became the oldest player to homer in an All Star Game and the only Oriole to homer twice in All-Star play.

ALL-STAR STARTS/APPEARANCES: With the 2014 selections of 1B CHRIS DAVIS, CF ADAM JONES and SS J.J. HARDY, 16 different Orioles have been elected starters since fan voting was reinstituted in 1969...Cal Ripken was elected to start 18 years, 17 of those by fan vote...He was unable to play because of injury in 2000...Other Orioles elected to starting berths are Brooks Robinson (4 times); Roberto Alomar (3 times); Boog Powell & Frank Robinson (2 each); ADAM JONES has two, and NELSON CRUZ, J.J. HARDY, CHRIS DAVIS, Bobby Grich, Ken Singleton, Eddie Murray, Terry Kennedy, Brady Anderson, Brian Roberts and Miguel Tejada (1 each).

HOME RUN DERBY. In 2014, ADAM JONES was selected by captain Jose Bautista to represent the AL at Target Field (Minneapolis)...

After blasting four in the First Round, JONES was ousted by Yoenis Cespedes in the Second Round, finishing with seven home runs total...

After leading the majors in homers at the break, CHRIS DAVIS took part in the 2013 Home Run Derby at Citi Field in New York...He finished fourth...A last-minute replacement to the 2004 Home Run Derby at Minute Maid Park in Houston, Miguel Tejada set records for home runs in one round (15) and overall (27) to win the contest...He was the second Oriole to win the derby, joining Cal Ripken, who hit 12 homers at Toronto's SkyDome in 1991...Tejada also took part in the 2006 Home Run Derby in Detroit after declining to participate in the 2005 contest, instead bowing to David Ortiz to represent the Dominican Republic in the revised United States vs. the World format.

ORIOLES ALL-STAR HOMERS: Miguel Tejada's home run in the 2005 game at Detroit was the 7th overall by an Oriole in an All-Star Game...Cal Ripken also hit two home runs in All-Star games, in 1991 (7/9 at Toronto off Dennis Martinez, two on) and 2001 (7/10 at Seattle off Chan Ho Park, none on)...The others were by Brooks Robinson (7/11/67 at Anaheim off Fergie Jenkins, none on); Frank Robinson (7/13/71 at Detroit off Dock Ellis, one on); Ken Singleton (8/9/81 at Cleveland off Tom Seaver, none on); and Roberto Alomar (7/7/98 at Colorado off Trevor Hoffman, none on).

BALTIMORE AS ALL-STAR HOST. The Orioles have played host to two All-Star Games...The 25th Midsummer Classic was held at Memorial Stadium in 1958, and the 64th All-Star Game was held at Oriole Park in 1993...On July 8, 1958, Orioles pitcher Billy O'Dell retired the final 9 batters as the AL posted a 4-3 win before 48,829 fans at Memorial Stadium...The Orioles' Gus Triandos was the starting catcher, and 11 future Hall of Famers saw action in the game...In its 2nd year of existence, Oriole Park at Camden Yards played host to baseball's first-ever All-Star Week, including the AL's 9-3 win on July 13, 1993...The game drew 48,147 fans...Cal Ripken was the only Oriole to appear in the game, going 0-for-3...Pitcher Mike Mussina was selected to the team but did not get into the game...FanFest, the baseball theme park that is now a part of All-Star Week, drew 111,883 visitors during the five-day celebration...Perhaps the most lasting memories from All-Star Week '93 came on Monday, July 12, at the annual Gatorade All-Star Workout...Juan Gonzalez crushed a ball off the facing of the upper deck in left field, and Ken Griffey Jr. became the first player to hit the B&O Warehouse during the home run hitting contest.

POSTSEASON NOTES

For the first time since 1997, the Orioles won the American League East in 2014, securing a spot in the postseason for the second time in the last three seasons (also 2012)...The Birds swept the Detroit Tigers in the American League Division Series, 3-0, facing each of MLB's last three AL Cy Young-award winners (Scherzer '13, Price '12, Verlander '11) before falling to the Wild Card champion Kansas City Royals in the ALCS, 4-0...The Orioles advanced to postseason play in 2012 for the first time since 1997...The Orioles won the Wild Card game over Texas in Arlington before losing to the New York Yankees in the 2012 Division Series, 3-2...The Orioles reached the playoffs in consecutive seasons in 1996-97, the only time they've made back-to-back postseason appearances since 1973-74...For the second straight year, the Orioles won their Division Series before losing in the American League Championship Series...In 1997 they beat the Seattle Mariners, 3-1, in the Division Series before losing to the Cleveland Indians, 4-2 in the ALCS...In 1996 they topped the Cleveland Indians, 3-1, in the Division Series and fell to the New York Yankees, 4-1, in the ALCS...

DIVISION SERIES: The Orioles have appeared in four Division Series, winning three...They are 11-5 overall (.688)...The O's are 6-2 at home and 5-3 on the road

ALCS: The Orioles have appeared in 10 LCS, going 5-5...They are 21-20 (.512)...The O's are 10-11 at home and 11-9 on the road...Only the New York Yankees (39 wins), Atlanta Braves (27 wins), San Francisco Giants (24 wins), Oakland A's, and St. Louis Cardinals (23 wins) have won more games in League Championship Series play...The O's won the first 10 ALCS games they played (including the first nine ever played)...They swept the Twins twice ('69-'70) and the A's ('71) in the first three ALCS, then won Game 1 against Oakland in '73 before losing the second game that year.

WORLD SERIES: Baltimore has gone 3-3 in its six World Series, but has a .576 pct. in championship games (19-14)...The Birds are 10-7 at home and 9-7 away.

POSTSEASON TOTAL: The O's have gone to the postseason in 12 different seasons and are 52-39 (.571)...They are 26-20 at home and 26-19 on the road...Since their inception in 1954, the Orioles have the third-best postseason record of any team (behind Miami's .667 winning percentage and the Mets' .581 mark)...They also have a 2.75 ERA in postseason play, the lowest of any team.

ATTENDANCE: The Orioles played 30 postiseason games at Memorial Stadium, drawing a total of 1,422,209 fans (average 47,407)...ln their 16 postseason games at Oriole Park at Camden Yards (1996, 1997, 2012, 2014), the Orioles drew 774,043 fans (average 48,378)...The largest crowd for a postseason game in Baltimore was 54,458 for Game 4 (the final game) vs. the Dodgers in '66...That also is the largest crowd for any Orioles home game...The largest home LCS crowd was 52,787 for Game 1 vs. the Angels in '79.

The Orioles went 97-63 to claim their first American League pennant, but had to face the defending World Champion Los Angeles Dodgers and a couple of pitchers named Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale in the World Series.

The underdog Orioles swept the four game series, beating Drysdale in Games 1 and 4. At the age of 20, Jim Palmer beat Koufax in Game 2 to become the youngest pitcher to ever throw a shutout in the World Series.

Frank Robinson, who also won the Triple Crown in 1966, was named the World Series Most Valuable Player after homering twice, but it was the pitching that led the way as the Orioles allowed just two runs on 17 hits in the entire series, shutting out the Dodgers over the final three games.

Following the season, Frank Robinson, Brooks Robinson and Boog Powell finished 1-2-3 in American League MVP voting.

American League MVP Frank Robinson led the 1966 Orioles to their first World Championship.

1969

The 1969 Orioles went a franchise record 109-53 and won the division by a whopping 19 games. They continued their demolition of the AL in the League Championship Series, sweeping the Minnesota Twins in three games.

After the first two games were decided by a run in extra innings in Baltimore, including a two-out RBI bunt single by Paul Blair in the 12th inning in Game 1, the Orioles broke out for 11 runs on 18 hits in Minnesota to make a winner out of Palmer and advance to their second World Series.

Squaring off in the World Series against the New York Mets, the Orioles claimed Game 1 by a score of 4-1. The Orioles' bats went silent the rest of the series as they managed just five runs on 17 hits over the next four games as the "Miracle" Mets won four straight for their first World Championship.

A year after winning 109 games, the 1970 Orioles went 108-54 and steamrolled into the postseason, again facing the Twins in the ALCS. The Birds brought their bats, scoring 27 runs on 36 hits in the three — game sweep. Earl Weaver's crew battered the Twins for six home runs in the three games, including a Game 1 grand slam by starting pitcher Mike Cuellar.

In the World Series, the Orioles would face the mighty Cincinnati Reds, led by Johnny Bench, Tony Perez, and Pete Rose. The Reds had recorded a 102-win season of their own and swept the Pittsburgh Pirates in the National League Championship Series.

The Orioles clubbed 10 home runs in the series and outscored the Reds 33-20 in the five game set to claim their second World Series crown. Series MVP Brooks Robinson made himself a household name with several sterling defensive plays in the series which led Lee May to nickname him "Hoover" — like the vacuum cleaner.

The Orioles recorded their franchise record third consecutive 100-win season, going 101-57. On the strength of starting pitchers Dave McNally, Cuellar, and Palmer, the Oakland Athletics proved no match for the mighty Orioles in the ALCS as the Birds swept the Athletics in three games, limiting them to seven runs over three games.

Waiting for the Orioles in the World Series were the Pirates, with superstars Roberto Clemente and Willie Stargell. The Orioles took a commanding 2-0 lead in the series, as McNally and Palmer recorded wins at home. The Pirates rebounded to take all three games in Pittsburgh, pushing the Orioles to the brink of elimination in Game 6. With the game tied through nine innings, Brooks Robinson's sacrifice fly in the bottom of the 10th inning scored Frank Robinson, setting up Game 7. Clemente homered and Steve Blass went the distance to knock off the Orioles for the Pirates' fourth World Series title.

The 1973 Orioles went 97-65 to claim their fourth AL East crown in a five-year span, and again squared off with the Athletics in the ALCS.

Despite a Game 1 shutout by Palmer, the Athletics won Games 2 and 3 to take a 2-1 lead in the series. After the Orioles claimed Game 4, they faced Oakland's Jim "Catfish" Hunter in Game 5 at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. Hunter went the distance for his second win of the series, eliminating the Orioles.

The 1974 Orioles won the AL East with a 91-71 record and were rewarded with yet another ALCS matchup with the Oakland Athletics.

Cuellar started the series opener for the Birds and won, 6-3, on the strength of homers by Paul Blair, Bobby Grich, and Brooks Robinson. That game would be their only win of the 1974 postseason as Ken Holtzman, Vida Blue, and Hunter held the Orioles to one run on 12 hits over the next three games.

Earl Weaver led the O's to five AL East titles in his first six full seasons as manager (1969-74)

Many Orioles fans will tell you the 1979 playoff run began on June 22, when Doug DeCinces' two-out, two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth inning capped a monumental comeback against Detroit, giving birth to "Orioles Magic." The Orioles finished 102-57, winning the division by eight games.

The Orioles played the California Angels in the ALCS and won the series opener in dramatic fashion on a pinch-hit, three-run homer in the bottom of the 10th inning by John Lowenstein. The Birds continued their offensive attack in Game 2, jumping out to a 9-1 lead after three innings. The Angels stormed back, but the Birds held on for a 9-8 win and 2-0 series advantage. The Angels claimed Game 3 in Anaheim, but Scott McGregor went the distance in a six-hit shutout in Game 4 to seal the American League crown.

Facing the "We Are Family" Pirates in the World Series, the Orioles jumped out to a 3-1 series lead, but the Pirates battled back on the strength of their pitching staff as they allowed one run in Games 5 and 6 combined to force a Game 7 in Baltimore. The Birds took an early lead on a home run to lead off the third inning by Rich Dauer. But Stargell, the Series MVP, answered with a two-run shot in the sixth inning off McGregor to lift the Pirates to a 4-1 win and World Championship.

The Orioles were in fourth place in the East on August 12, but went 36-15 to finish the season and win the division by six games. The Birds squared off with the Chicago White Sox in the ALCS and dropped a heartbreaker at home in the series opener. Rookie Mike Boddicker, making his first postseason start in Game 2, tossed a five-hit shutout, striking out 14, to even the series for the Orioles. Eddie Murray's three-run homer in the first inning set the tone in Game 3 as the Orioles rolled to an 11-1 win. Storm Davis and Tippy Martinez combined to blank the White Sox for 10 innings in Game 4, and Tito Landrum's homer in the 10th helped the Birds to a 3-1 series win and their sixth World Series appearance.

After losing the series opener at home in a game where solo homers accounted for all three runs, the Birds bounced back behind Boddicker's second win of the postseason as he allowed just one unearned run in a 4-1 win. With a relief win in Game 3 start, Palmer put the Orioles up two games to one, and became the only pitcher to win World Series games in three different decades. McGregor took the hill in Game 5 on the brink of a World Championship, delivering a shutout and the Orioles' third World Championship.

The 1996 Orioles claimed the Wild Card spot in the postseason after setting a major league-record with 10 different players hitting at least 10 home runs. They continued their longball prowess by homering nine times in the four-game ALDS against Cleveland, winning the series 3-1.

Home runs would be a factor again in the ALCS against the New York Yankees as the Birds had a 4-3 lead entering the bottom of the eighth inning in Game 1. Derek Jeter's fly ball to right was caught by a 12-year-old fan named Jeffrey Maier, who reached over the wall into the field of play just before O's right fielder Tony Tarasco could make a play on the ball. The umpires ruled it a home run, tying the game before series MVP Bernie Williams won it with a walk-off homer in the 11th inning.

The Orioles left New York with a split of the first two games of the series, but the Yankees swept all three games in Baltimore to advance to the World Series. The clubs combined for 19 home runs in the series (the Orioles hit nine), accounting for 29 of the 46 runs scored.

The Orioles led the AL East from start to finish and entered the postseason with an ALDS matchup against Seattle, These "Wire to Wire" Birds roughed up Mariners starter Randy Johnson in Game 1 en route to a 9-3 win, and captured Game 2 at the Kingdome by an identical score. After the Mariners won Game 3 in Baltimore, the Orioles were set to face off with Johnson once again. The Birds beat the Big Unit once more, 3-1, on the strength of homers by Jeff Reboulet and Geronimo Berroa.

The Orioles opened the ALCS at home against the Cleveland Indians, with Scott Erickson dazzling for eight scoreless innings in Game 1 as the Orioles won, 3-0. The next three games would be decided by one run, all going in favor of the Tribe. The Orioles bounced back in Game 5, winning 4-2. Game 6 was a pitcher's duel for the ages, as Mike Mussina worked eight scoreless innings for the Orioles, but Cleveland's Charles Nagy and a cast of relievers were equally as tough, leading to a scoreless game through 10 innings. Tony Fernandez hit a two-out home run off Armando Benitez in the 11th inning to win the game to eliminate the Orioles.

After a 14-year hiatus, the Orioles returned to the postseason in 2012, meeting the Texas Rangers in the first-ever Wild Card Game. The Orioles won 5-1 behind starter Joe Saunders, some strong relief pitching, and a pair of RBI from leadoff man Nate McLouth.

The Orioles and Yankees squared off in the ALDS with the first two games before raucous crowds at Oriole Park. Game 1 was tied through eight innings before the Yankees tagged closer Jim Johnson for five runs in the ninth inning. WEI-YIN CHEN worked into the seventh inning allowing just two runs in Game 2 to help even the series with a 3-2 win. In Game 3 in the Bronx, RYAN FLAHERTY and MANNY MACHADO became the first Orioles rookies to homer in the postseason, but the Birds fell 3-2 in extra innings. Game 4 was another nail biter as the teams were tied through 12 innings. J.J. HARDY doubled home MANNY MACHADO in the 13th to even the series at two wins apiece. C.C. Sabathia proved to be too much for the Orioles in the fifth and deciding game as he allowed just one run in a complete game effort.

After pulling into a tie for the division lead on July 3, the Orioles would not relinquish their first-place standing, eventually finishing with the second-best record in Major League Baseball at 96-66 and their first American League East division title since 1997. The Birds would draw the American League Central division champion Detroit Tigers in the ALDS, and faced the AL's last three Cy Young Award winners in Max Scherzer, Justin Verlander, and David Price. After the Tigers pulled within one run in the top of the eighth inning in Game 1, the Orioles erupted for eight runs in the bottom half of the frame en route to a 12-3 rout. In Game 2, Detroit would climb out of an early hole with a five-run fourth inning, but the Birds would battle back, taking the lead in the bottom of the eighth after a bases-clearing, three-run double off the bat of pinch hitter DELMON YOUNG. The Orioles would complete the sweep at Comerica Park in Game 3 behind 6.1 scoreless frames from starter BUD NORRIS and Nelson Cruz's two-run home run in the sixth inning, winning 2-1 to set up an ALCS showdown with the Wild Card champion Kansas City Royals.

In the first American League Championship Series game at Oriole Park since 1997, the Orioles would rally to send Game 1 against Kansas City into extra innings. After going a Major League-best 14-6 in extra-inning games during the regular season, a pair of home runs in the top of the 10th by Alex Gordon and Mike Moustakas would sink the Orioles, 8-6. In Game 2, the Birds and Royals would remain locked in a 4-4 draw before Kansas City pushed two runs across in the top of the ninth for a 6-4 victory and a 2-0 lead in the series. The Orioles jumped out to a 1-0 lead early in Game 3, but the Royals tied the game in the fourth and took a one-run lead in the sixth. The Kansas City bullpen posted four straight hitless innings to win 2-1. With Games 1-3 decided by a total of five runs, Game 4 proved to be yet another thriller as the Royals scored twice in the first inning to take a 2-0 lead. After a solo home run from RYAN FLAHERTY cut Kansas City's lead in half, the Royals' bullpen once again stifled the Oriole lineup, tossing 3.2 scoreless innings in relief of starter Jason Vargas to complete the sweep.

BASEBALL IN BALTIMORE

1872 – The Lord Baltimores, the city's first professional team, begin play in the National Association. In their inaugural game on April 18 in Washington, they beat the Olympics, 16-0. In their home opener on April 22, before 3,500 fans at Newington Park (on Pennsylvania Ave. below Baker Street), they beat the New York Mutuals, 14-9. The team folded in its third season as a rival franchise, the Maryland Base Ball Club, turned from amateur to pro and took its place in the league through 1874. By 1875 the National Association itself had folded.

1882 – A newly formed Lord Baltimores team makes its debut in the American Association, a new rival to the National League. A year later, the franchise moves to newly built Oriole Park (on the southwest corner of what is now Greenmount Ave. and 25th Street) and adopts the name "Orioles," the first time that Maryland's state bird would be used as a nickname in association with Baltimore's professional baseball team.

1884 – Two more Baltimore teams are formed. One, also named the Orioles, plays in the new Union Association; by mid-season they transferred to Lancaster, PA, and the league folded after one season. The other, the Monumentals, becomes a charter member of the Eastern Association, which would become today's International League, but the team breaks up after a mere 13 games.

1892 – Baltimore joins the National League. Games are played at Union Park, a 12,000-seat stadium at the northeast corner of Barclay and 25th streets.

1894-1896 – With innovative Ned Hanlon as manager, the scrappy Orioles win three straight National League pennants, led by future Hall of Famers John McGraw, Dan Brouthers, Joe Kelley, Willie Keeler and Hughie Jennings.

1899 – With most of their star players having been sold to Brooklyn, the Orioles finish their eighth season before folding. There would be no professional team in Baltimore as the new century dawned.

1901 – A new Baltimore Orioles team joins the upstart American League, with John McGraw as manager and an overflow crowd of 10,371 at Opening Day. The Orioles play two seasons in Baltimore before relocating to New York as the Highlanders – eventually to become the New York Yankees.

1903 – A minor league team using the name Baltimore Orioles joins the Eastern League. They are in existence for nine seasons, playing at American League Park, at York Road and 29th Street. The team wins the league pennant in 1908 under second-year manager Jack Dunn.

1912 – The minor league Orioles join the International League. They would be part of the league for the next 42 seasons until major league baseball returned.

1914 — A second Baltimore team, the Terrapins (named for an edible type of turtle common to the state of Maryland), enters the newly formed Federal League. The league would fold after just two seasons. The team plays at Terrapin Park, built on the west side of Greenmount Ave, between 29th and 30th streets; two years later, Jack Dunn buys the ballpark and renames it Oriole Park.

1914 – Jack Dunn, owner, general manager and manager of the International League Orioles, signs 19-year-old George Herman Ruth out of a Baltimore orphanage. Oriole players kid Dunn about his "babe," and a nickname is born. By July, Babe Ruth was sold to the Boston Red Sox.

1919-1925 – The Orioles, led by Dunn, win a record seven straight International League titles. For five of those years, 1920-24, future Hall of Famer Lefty Grove leads the pitching staff, going 108-36.

1920s-40s – The city fields two teams in the Negro Leagues – the Elite Giants and the Black Sox. Second baseman James "Junior" Gilliam and Hall of Fame catcher Roy Campanella played two different stints for the Elite Giants on their way to major league careers with the Brooklyn Dodgers' "Boys of Summer."

1944 – After winning the International League title, the Orioles beat Louisville of the American Association to win the Junior World Series. It wasn't easy, however; a fire in the early morning hours of July 4 destroyed Oriole Park, leading the team to use Municipal Stadium, a football facility on 33rd Street. One game of the Junior World Series drew 52,833 paid fans, outdrawing each of World Series games in St. Louis between the Browns and Cardinals and attracting interest from teams in the major leagues and professional football.

1953 – The Orioles, owned by Jack Dunn III, play their final season in the International League. After two votes fail, on September 29, American League owners approve the sale of the financially struggling St. Louis Browns franchise to a Baltimore-based consortium led by attorney Clarence W. Miles and brewery owner Jerold C. Hoffberger.

BACK IN THE MAJORS

1954 - Playing in renovated Municipal Stadium - now called Memorial Stadium - Baltimore returns to the major leagues and the Orioles return to the American League after 52 years. After splitting two games in Detroit to begin the season, the Orioles return to Baltimore by train - arriving, ironically, at Camden Station, just a few yards from the current ballpark - and a lengthy parade through the streets prior to their home opener on April 15. They beat the Chicago White Sox, 3-1, but go on to a 54-100 season.

November 18, 1954 - In a trade that took two weeks to complete, the Orioles and Yankees swap 18 players as new manager/general manager Paul Richards lays the groundwork for the coming years. The Orioles get 11 players, including catcher Gus Triandos, outfielder Gene Woodling and Willie Miranda, first in a long line of outstanding defensive shortstops.

1955 – Brooks Robinson is signed; he makes his major league debut on September 17 but does not establish himself as the regular third baseman and future Hall of Famer until 1958.

July 8, 1958 - Memorial Stadium hosts its first and only All-Star Game. The Orioles' Billy O'Dell retires the last nine batters to preserve a 4-3 win for the American League.

September 20, 1958 - Knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm hurls the first no-hitter in Orioles history, beating the Yankees 1-0 at Memorial Stadium, Two years later, Manager Paul Richards will introduce the "big mitt" designed to help catchers cut down on passed balls and wild pitches from Wilhelm's knuckleball.

May 9, 1961 – Jim Gentile becomes the first player in major league history to hit grand slams in consecutive at bats in a 13-5 win at Minnesota.

September 18, 1963 - Steve Barber becomes the first 20-game winner in club history, beating the Angels, 3-1, in California. He is the first of the Orioles' 20-game winners; they have had 23 more over the last 40 years, more than any other team.

June 1965 - Jerry Hoffberger, whose family was among the original group of owners of the Orioles when it moved to Baltimore, takes control of the ballclub as majority owner. He will lead the club for 14 years, during which the Orioles go to the postseason six times.

December 9, 1965 – The Orioles make arguably the greatest trade in franchise history, acquiring former All-Star outfielder Frank Robinson from the Cincinnati Reds for Milt Pappas and two players acquired earlier in the week, Jack Baldschun and Dick Simpson. New GM Harry Dalton completes the trade, which was begun a month earlier by his predecessor, Lee MacPhail Jr.

May 8, 1965 - Frank Robinson hits the only fair ball ever to leave Memorial Stadium, a shot over the left field bleachers measured at 465 ft. The Orioles later commemorate the event with a flag at the top of the bleachers where the ball left the park, simply saying "HERE."

September 22, 1966 - 20-year-old Jim Palmer pitches a complete game as the Orioles clinch their first American League pennant with a 6-1 win at Kansas City. Palmer will win 268 games and three Cy Young Awards in a 19-year career with the Orioles on his way to the Hall of Fame.

1966 - "Would You Believe 4 Straight?" The Orioles stun the baseball world by sweeping the favored Los Angeles Dodgers in the World Series, Frank Robinson wins the American League triple crown (.316-49-122), Frank, Brooks Robinson and Boog Powell finish 1-2-3 in the American League MVP voting.

1968 – Longtime minor league manager Earl Weaver is added to the coaching staff at the beginning of the season and, on July 11, is named manager of the Orioles. He goes on to post a 1,480-1,060 record in 17 seasons before being elected to the Hall of Fame.

1969-71 - Pitching, three-run homers, and defense stamp Weaver's Orioles, as they capture three straight American League East titles, a trio of AL pennants, and the 1970 World Series, Brooks Robinson earns the nickname "Hoover" from future teammate Lee May after showing off his defensive skills in the '70 series triumph over the Reds.

1973-74 – The Orioles win back-to-back AL East titles, giving them five division titles in six years. However, they are beaten by Oakland in the AL Championship Series both years.

June 15, 1976 – Hank Peters, in his first year as Orioles general manager, begins to remake the club with a 10-player trade with New York. Future Orioles Hall of Fame members Scott McGregor, Tippy Martinez and Rick Dempsey come from the Yankees; catcher Elrod Hendricks, who later will be traded and return twice more, is among those sent to New York.

September 18, 1977 – Memorial Stadium is filled with 51,798 fans on "Thanks, Brooks Day," celebrating the end of the third baseman's 23-year career, all with the Orioles.

June 22, 1979 – Doug DeCinces' two-out, two-run homer in the bottom of the 9th caps a monumental comeback against Detroit and gives birth to "Orioles Magic."

1979 – The Orioles win the AL pennant for the 5th time and take a 3-1 lead over Pittsburgh in the World Series. But the Pirates' "fam-i-lee" comes back to win the last three games and the World Championship.

November 1, 1979 – American League owners approve the August sale of the Orioles to Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams. The purchase ends both local and public ownership of the club.

August 10, 1981 – Cal Ripken Jr. makes his major league debut, scoring the winning run as a 12th-inning pinch-runner vs. Kansas City at Memorial Stadium.

1981 – The Orioles' 59-46 record is the best in the American League, but not good enough for the playoffs. Following a mid-year strike, baseball decides to play the season in two halves and the Orioles finish second to New York and Milwaukee in the two halves.

October 1-3, 1982 – The Orioles, three games behind Milwaukee with 4 games to play heading into a final weekend series with the Brewers, take the first three games at Memorial Stadium to forge a tie for first. But the Brewers spoil the comeback with a 10-2 win in the season finale. Earl Weaver, who two months earlier had announced his retirement at the end of the season, is saluted by 51,462 fans in an emotional celebration and farewell following the game.

1983 – The Orioles lose the first game of the AL Championship Series before coming back to beat the Chicago White Sox three straight games. They lose the World Series opener to the Philadelphia Phillies before coming back to win four straight for their third World Championship. Cal Ripken is named AL MVP (.318-27-102) in a close race over teammate Eddie Murray (.306-33-111).

1988 – The Orioles lose a major league record 21 games to start the season.

May 2, 1988 – Returning home to Memorial Stadium with a 1-23 record, the Orioles play before 50,402 fans on a Monday night. In a dramatic pre-game announcement, Governor William Donald Schaefer announces that Orioles owner Edward Bennett Williams and the Maryland Stadium Authority have agreed on a 15-year lease for a new ballpark to be constructed at Camden Yards for the 1992 season.

December 1988 – Investor Eli S. Jacobs buys the Orioles from the estate of Edward Bennett Williams, who had passed away in August.

1989 – "Why Not?" is the rallying cry of the young Orioles, who improbably lead the AL East into September. They eventually lose at Toronto on the next-to-last day of the season, giving the Blue Jays the division crown.

Dctober 6, 1991 – After 38 years, the Memorial Stadium era ends as the Orioles play their last game on 33rd Street. Cal Ripken Jr. – who would add his second MVP Award to the All-Star Game MVP trophy he won in mid-season – hits into a gameending double play, but the 7-1 loss to Detroit does not diminish an emotional "Field of Dreams" celebration afterward as more than 100 former Orioles return in uniform to take their old positions one last time before 50,700 fans.

July 13, 1993 - Oriole Park hosts the city's second All-Star Game, following a week-long "All-Star Fan Fest," the first of its kind.

August 2, 1993 – Baltimore attorney Peter Angelos leads a group of investors – most of whom are Baltimoreans – in buying the Orioles at auction from Eli S. Jacobs. American League owners approve the sale on October 4.

September 6, 1995 – The Iron Man tops the Iron Horse: Cal Ripken Jr. surpasses a record once thought unbeatable, playing in his 2,131st consecutive game to pass Lou Gehrig's all-time record. Ripken's homer in the game helps beat the Angels, 4-2.

1995 – The Orioles draw 3,098,475 fans in the strike-shortened season to lead the American League in attendance for the first time in their history. They will go on to lead the league in attendance for four straight years.

September 6, 1996 – Future Hall of Famer Eddie Murray, who returned to the club in a mid-season trade with Cleveland, hits his 500th career home run into the right field seats at Camden Yards.

1996 – A major league-record 10 different Orioles hit at least 10 home runs during the season as the Orioles break New York's 35-year-old mark for home runs by a team. The Orioles advance to the playoffs as the "wild card" team, finishing 2nd in the AL East. They beat Cleveland in the AL Division Series before the Yankees – with help from 12-year-old Jeffrey Maier – end the Orioles postseason hopes in the ALCS.

1997 – The Orioles go wire-to-wire to win the AL East. They beat Seattle in the Division Series before falling in six games to Cleveland in the ALCS.

September 20, 1998 – Cal Ripken Jr. ends his consecutive game streak at 2,632, sitting out the Orioles' final home game of the season at Camden Yards vs. the New York Yankees. Ryan Minor starts in his place at third base.

April 15, 2000 – Cal Ripken Jr. singles at Minnesota's Metrodome off Hector Carrasco for his 3,000th career hit, the first Oriole and 24th player to reach that milestone. He is one of eight players with 3,000 hits and 400 home runs.

October 6, 2001 – Having announced in May his plans to retire at season's end, Cal Ripken plays his last game as an Oriole before 48,807 fans at Camden Yards. His 21-year career will result in a first-ballot election to the Hall of Fame with the 3rd highest vote percentage in history.

July 31, 2006 – The Mid-Atlantic Sports Network, a regional television channel owned primarily by the Orioles, begins 24-hour programming. The network is the rightsholder for both Orioles and Washington Nationals games.

November 12, 2008 – The Orioles unveil their new road uniform with a script "Baltimore" across the chest. The Orioles' road uniform had featured a script "Orioles" across the chest since 1973.

October 5, 2012 – The Orioles and Rangers meet in the first American League Wild Card "play-in" game in Arlington...The Orioles win 5-1 to advance to the ALDS, where they fell in five games to the Yankees.

2013 – CHRIS DAVIS homers for the 51st time on September 17 at Boston, breaking Brady Anderson's club record set in 1996...Davis would add two more before season's end, finishing with 53...The Orioles finish with a .991 fielding percentage, the best in major league history...Three Orioles start the All-Star Game.

August 8, 2014 – A post-game ceremony honoring the 60th anniversary of Orioles baseball features 23 members of the Orioles Hall of Fame, the largest gathering of Orioles Hall of Famers ever assembled.

September 16, 2014 – With an 8-2 victory over the Toronto Blue Jays, the Orioles secure the ninth AL East Dvision title in team history, marking the third time the club has clinched in Baltimore, the first time since 1979, and the first division clinch via a win in Baltimore since 1969.

October 5, 2014 – The Orioles sweep the Detroit Tigers with a 2-1 victory in Game 3 of the American League Division Series to advance to the ALCS for the first time since 1997, where they fell to the Kansas City Royals in four games.

2015 ORIOLES MEDIA GUIDE

MODERN ORIOLES IN BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

In 2007, Cal Ripken Jr. became the sixth man to be inducted into the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown as an Oriole, joining Eddie Murray, Jim Palmer, Brooks Robinson, Frank Robinson and Earl Weaver. All except Weaver – selected as a manager by the Veterans Committee – were elected in their first year of eligibility. (See 'Orioles Retired Numbers' for biographies and statistics.)

Ripken received 98.53% of the vote total (537 of 545 ballots cast) by eligible members of the Baseball Writers Association of America. His total of 98.53 percent was the third highest in the history of the Hall of Fame, behind only Tom Seaver (98.84% in 1992) and Nolan Ryan (98.79%, 1999). Also elected along with Ripken was former San Diego Padres outfielder Tony Gwynn, with 97.6 percent of the votes. They are the 42nd and 43rd players elected in their first year of eligibility and the 46th and 47th electees to spend their entire career with one team.

In addition to the six men inducted as Orioles, nine other men with Orioles ties have been inducted into the Hall of Fame... Six former Orioles players have been inducted as members of other organizations: Robin Roberts ('76, 87%), George Kell ('83, VCS), Luis Aparicio ('84, 85%), Hoyt Wilhelm ('85, 84%), Reggie Jackson ('93, 94%), Roberto Alomar ('11, 90%).

Whitey Herzog, who played for the Orioles in 1961-62 as an outfielder, was inducted in to the Hall of Fame in 2010. Herzog won a World Championship (1982), three National League pennants and six division championships as a manager. His all-time managerial record was 1,281-1,125. He received 14 of 16 possible votes by the Veterans Committee.

Pat Gillick, who played for the Orioles as a minor leaguer and later served as General Manager of the Orioles from 1995-1998, was elected by the Veterans Committee and was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2011.

Dick Williams, who had three different tenures as a player with the Orioles in the late '50s and early '60s, was named as a 2008 inductee to the Hall of Fame as a manager. Williams, an outfielder-first baseman as a player, managed 21 years in the majors with 6 different teams, winning two World Championships and four league titles.

Lee MacPhail, who served as General Manager of the Orioles from 1959-1965, was inducted into the Hall of Fame as an executve by the Veterans Committee in 1998. Lee's son, Andy, would serve as the Orioles' President of Baseball Operations from 2007-2011,

In addition to Ripken, Robinsons, Palmer, Murray and Jackson also were elected in their first year of eligibility.

MODERN ORIOLES IN BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

Along with the 12 modern-day Orioles electees, 16 others who played and/or managed for the Orioles during the early days of Baltimore's rich baseball heritage also are enshrined at Cooperstown, including six members of the 1890s juggernaut:

Frank (Home Run) Baker (3b)
William Candy Cummings (rhp)
Hughie Jennings (ss)
Joe (Iron Man) McGinnity (rhp)
Charles (Chief) Bender (rhp)
Robert M. (Lefty) Grove (lhp)
Wee Willie Keeler (of) John McGraw (mgr. 3b)

Roger Bresnahan (c)
Edward (Ned) Hanlon (mgr)
Joe Kelley (of-if) Wilbert Robinson (mgr, c)
Dan Brouthers (1b)
Rogers Hornsby (2b
Rube Marquard (lhp)
George Herman (Babe) Ruth (of)

4 MORE: There are four additional Hall of Famers who have represented the Orioles, though not as players: Pat Gillick who served as the team's General Manager from 1995-98; George Weiss, who immortalized himself as a general manager of the Yankees, served part of his apprenticeship as an International League Orioles GM; Luke Appling, a legendary hitter/shortstop for the White Sox, who coached one year for the Orioles, in 1963; and Burleigh Grimes, the famed spitball pitcher who won 270 games in the majors, who scouted for the Orioles from 1960 through 1971.

MEDIA MEMBERS, TOO: The Hall of Fame has also honored two members of the media with longtime ties to Baltimore. In 1993, beloved Orioles broadcaster Chuck Thompson received the Ford C. Frick Award, presented by the Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for major contributions to the game of baseball. And in 1998, Sam Lacy, longtime sports editor of the Baltimore Afro-American newspaper, became the first local writer selected for the J.G. Taylor Spink Award, honoring sportswriters "for meritorious contributions to baseball writing." In 2010, former Orioles broadcaster Jon Miller was enshrined as the Ford C. Frick Award winner.

NATIVE MARYLANDERS IN THE HALL: Ripken, born in Havre de Grace and raised in Aberdeen, MD, is one of eight native Marylanders in the Hall of Fame and one of four who once played for the Orioles...The other former Orioles – all of whom played for the International League O's – were Home Run Baker (Trappe), Lefty Grove (Lonaconing) and Babe Ruth (Baltimore)...The four native Marylanders who never played for the Orioles who are enshrined in Cooperstown: Jimmie Foxx (Sudlersville), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill), Al Kaline (Baltimore), and Vic Willis (Elkton).

NOTABLE ORIOLES ARTIFACTS IN COOPERSTOWN

Among the Oriole items on display in the Hall of Fame's Museum are: a mitt used by MATT WIETERS during 2013 when the Orioles set a 162-game record by committing just 54 errors, the cap worn by CHRIS DAVIS when he picked up the win as a pitcher in Boston on May 6, 2012, the spikes worn by Felix Pie during his cycle August 14, 2009 against Los Angeles, the jersey worn by Brian Roberts when he hit his 56th double of the 2009 season, which set a major league record by a switch-hitter, the glove from Mike Bordick's major league-record consecutive errorless games streak in 2002; the jersey worn by Cal Ripken Jr. in his final major league game, Oct. 6, 2001; a jersey worn by Scott Erickson in Cuba, the first major leaguer to pitch on Cuban soil in 40 years on March 28, 1999; a base used by Roberto Alomar in the 1998 All-Star Game, when he was named MVP; the Lineup card from Ripken's 2,130th consecutive game (Sept. 5, 1995) to tie Lou Gehrig's record; the bat used by Eddie Murray to hit two home runs in Game 5 of the 1983 World Series; a Frank Robinson jersey; a glove used by Brooks Robinson in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP; the unique short-billed batting helmet worn by Brooks; and balls from no-hitters pitched by Hoyt Wilhelm (Sept. 20, 1958) and Jim Palmer (Aug. 13, 1969).

HALL OF FAME GAME

The Orioles made their sixth scheduled appearance in the annual Hall of Fame Game at Cooperstown's Doubleday Field on May 14, 2007. The Orioles are 3-2 in Hall of Fame Games, with one game postponed by rain. The results:

1961 Los Angeles Dodgers 6, Orioles 2		1990	Orioles vs. Montreal Expos, rained out
1967	Orioles 3, Cincinnati Reds 0	1998	Orioles 7, Toronto Blue Jays 1
1983	St. Louis Cardinals 4, Orioles 1	2007	Orioles 13, Toronto Blue Jays 7

THE ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

The Orioles Hall of Fame was conceived in 1977 by the Oriole Advocates at the suggestion of two former presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both of whom have since passed away. The Advocates continue to administer the annual elections under the direction of their Hall of Fame Committee.

Candidates may be elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame through two channels: the regular vote by a panel of some 80 people, comprising sportswriters, broadcasters, Oriole Advocates and Orioles personnel; or by a vote of the veterans committee, a group of 25 senior representatives from the sports media, Oriole Advocates and the Orioles front office.

Procedures for election to the Orioles Hall of Fame are based on those used by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, requiring mention on 75% of ballots cast. All candidates must have served a minimum of three full seasons with the Orioles. To be eligible for regular election, a player, manager or coach must have been active in that capacity within the last 15 years, but ceased serving in the position for which he was nominated for at least one year. For consideration by the veterans committee, formed in 1989, a candidate must have ceased serving in the capacity of consideration for at least 15 years.

In 2013, former Orioles second baseman Roberto Alomar was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame. Alomar spent three seasons with the Orioles from 1996-98, compiling a .312 batting average, 50 home runs and 210 RBI in 412 regular season games. His .312 career average with the Orioles is the highest among all players in franchise history with at least 1,200 at-bats for the team and he ranks 9th all-time in slugging percentage (.480). In 1996, Alomar set a franchise record with 132 runs scored, 4th-most in the American League, and also led the team in batting average (.328), hits (193), doubles (43) and on-base percentage (.411) to help the Orioles to their first playoff appearance in 13 seasons as the American League Wild Card. He set team records for home runs (20, 22 total) and RBI (84, 94 total) as a second baseman in a single season. In the playoffs, his 9th inning, two-out single tied the American League Division Series Game 4 against Cleveland and his 12th inning home run won that game and the series for Baltimore. Alomar won Gold Glove Awards in 1996 and 1998, a Silver Slugger Award in 1996 and was elected to the All-Star Game in each of his three seasons in Baltimore, including Most Valuable Player honors in the 1998 All-Star Game in Colorado.

The Orioles Hall of Fame now has 52 former players, coaches and managers.

HERB ARMSTRONG AWARD WINNER

Mike Boddicker, RHP (2001)

In 1995, the Oriole Advocates established the Herb Armstrong Award to honor non-uniformed personnel who have represented the Orioles for at least five years and made a significant contribution to the ballclub, the community or the sport of baseball. The award is named after the beloved former educator, professional baseball player, manager and longtime official for both the Orioles' International League and American League clubs who dedicated nearly 70 years of his life to the people of Baltimore, his adopted hometown. Winners are selected by the Orioles Hall of Fame Veterans Committee and honored during the Orioles Hall of Fame Weekend ceremonies.

In 2013, the Herb Armstrong Award was presented to former scout and front office executive Don Pries. Pries worked for the Orioles for seven years from 1968 through 1974 as an area scout (1968-69), Director of Player Personnel (1970-72) and Assistant to the General Manager (1973-74). He oversaw the Orioles' farm system and worked with General Manager Harry Dalton during the most successful time in club history, when the team went to the playoffs five times, winning three American League pennants and a World Series in 1970. Pries left the Orioles after the 1974 season to help Major League Baseball design a computer system for the MLB Scouting Bureau, benefiting all teams. In 1987, he became Director of the Major League Scouting Bureau and a year later created the Scout Development Program, a curriculum designed to teach all facets of scouting. Since its inception, more than 1,000 people have completed the program and more than 75% of those are currently employed or have worked in Major League Baseball. Pries played 13 seasons in the minor leagues and managed for five years before beginning his off-field career as a scout for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1960. He also scouted for the Cleveland Indians and Oakland A's prior to joining the Orioles.

On August 20, 2007, the Orioles lost one of their most passionate fans with the passing of William G. "Wild Bill" Hagy. Leading cheers from "The Roar from 34" at Memorial Stadium, "Wild Bill" became a Baltimore institution, contorting his body to spell out "O-R-I-O-L-E-S" from the upper deck – and sometimes coming down to lead the crowd in cheers from atop the dugout.

Upon his passing, the Orioles and the Oriole Advocates announced the creation of an award to honor the team's top fans, to be named The Wild Bill Hagy Award. The award will expand the Orioles Hall of Fame categories to include fans who have demonstrated an exceptional commitment in support of the team in the tradition of Wild Bill, who rooted for the club year in and year out.

Appropriately, Hagy was named the first recipient of the award. He will be remembered on a plaque displayed with the other honorees at the Sports Legends Museum, adjacent to Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

MOST VALUABLE ORIGIES

Mike Cuellar (LHP)

Designated hitter Nelson Cruz was voted the winner of the 2014 Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award. Cruz became the sixth Oriole to post a 40-homer season in club history, leading Major League Baseball with 40, including 28 before the All-Star break, the second-most by an Oriole in his first season with the club. He also finished third in the majors with 108 RBI and fifth in slugging percentage (.525), and was recognized with two American League Player of the Week awards (September 7 and June 2). Cruz set several single-season career-highs including home runs, RBI, hits (166), runs (87), extra-base hits (74), total bases (322), and walks (55). He made his Orioles debut on Opening Day, hitting the game-winning home run and then became the fifth Oriole in franchise history to hit a homer in each of his first two games after blasting a two-run shot off John Lackey on April 2. His two-run home run in the sixth inning of Game 3 of the American League Divison Series against the Detroit Tigers propelled the Orioles to a series sweep and the club's first ALCS berth since 1997.

The MVO Award was initiated when the Orioles returned to the majors in 1954. A decade ago it was renamed in memory of Hatter, the distinguished and lovable "dean" of Baltimore baseball writers who covered the Orioles for The Sun for 27 years. The award winner is selected through a vote of writers and broadcasters who cover the O's on a regular basis. There have been four ties, and no award was given in 1994. Ten players -- Eddie Murray (7), Brooks Robinson (4), Cal Ripken (4), Frank Robinson (3), Ken Singleton (3), Rafael Palmeiro (3), Boog Powell (2), Brian Roberts (2), ADAM JONES (2) and Miguel Tejada (2) -- have won the award more than once.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS EARL WEAVER—4

Inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown in August 1996, Earl currently ranks 23rd in victories and his .583 winning percentage (1,480-1,060) over 17 seasons—all in Baltimore—ranks eighth on the all-time list of those who managed 10 or more seasons in the majors.

Earl was a minor league second baseman for 13 years, mostly in his hometown St. Louis Cardinals organization. He began his managing career in the minors in 1956 and joined the Orioles organization a year later. He came up to the Orioles as first base coach in 1968 and was named manager on July 11 of that year. From 1969 through 1982, he won six AL East titles, four AL pennants, and one World Series, beating the Cincinnati Reds in 1970. Earl's Orioles won 100 games or more five times, and he earned Manager of the Year honors three times.

He retired following the 1982 season, which ended one game shy of another AL East title when the Orioles lost to the Milwaukee Brewers on the final day of the season. He came back to manage in mid-1985 for 1 1/2 years before retiring for good. The only time in his 17 seasons as manager that he posted a losing record was his last, in 1986.

Earl passed away January 19, 2013, at age 82. His wife, Marianna, lives in Pembroke Pines, FL. Earl had a son and two daughters from a previous marriage.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS Brooks robinson—5

"Mr. Oriole" spent 23 seasons with the Orioles and started 20 consecutive Opening Day games. He won the AL Most Valuable Player Award in 1964 and holds the record for most Gold Gloves by a non-pitcher with 16. His election to baseball's Hall of Fame (in his first year of eligibility in 1983) was cemented with his performance against the Cincinnati Reds in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP and earned the nickname "Hoover" (as in vacuum cleaners) for his play in the field.

Brooks played in 18 All-Star games. He trails only Cal Ripken among the Orioles' all-time leaders in games, at-bats, hits, doubles, RBI, runs, total bases, and extra-base hits. In addition to his AL MVP Award in '64 and his World Series MVP Award in '70, he was the All-Star Game MVP in 1966 and was voted the Most Valuable Oriole in '60, '62, '64, and co-winner in '71 with Frank Robinson. He also earned the Commissioner's Trophy (now the Roberto Clemente Award) for exemplifying the game of baseball in 1972 and the Joe Cronin Award for significant achievement by an AL player in 1977.

Brooks holds six major league fielding records and seven American League records for third basemen, including 2,697 putouts. He is 14th on the all-time list of games played, fourth in the AL and fourth in games played with one franchise.

A native of Little Rock, AR, Brooks and his wife, Connie, have four children. They split their time living in the northern Baltimore suburbs and in Southern California.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS CAL RIPKEN JR.—8

Baseball's all-time Iron Man, Cal spent his entire 21-year career with the Orioles and was inducted into Baseball's Hall of Fame in 2007 in his first year of eligibility. He is one of only eight players in history with both 400 HR and 3,000 hits, along with Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Eddie Murray, Stan Musial, Rafael Palmeiro, Dave Winfield, and Carl Yastrzemski. In 2001, his final season, he was elected to his 19th All-Star Game, breaking the AL record for most times as an All-Star - a record previously held by Brooks Robinson. He earned two All-Star Game MVP Awards (1991 and 2001), two AL MVP Awards (1983 and 1991), and AL Rookie of the Year (1982) honors, two Gold Gloves and eight Silver Slugger awards, all at shortstop. And he still owns five Major League or American League fielding records for shortstops. Cal was named Most Valuable Oriole four times, twice sharing the award with Eddie Murray.

Ripken will be most remembered for topping the said-to-be-unbreakable record for consecutive games played set by Lou Gehrig, passing Gehrig's mark of 2,130 games on September 6, 1995. Cal went on to play in 2.632 consecutive games before sitting on September 20, 1998.

Following the 1999 season, he was named as one of two shortstops (with Ernie Banks) on Major League Baseball's All-Century Team, selected by fans and an expert panel. Extremely active in community endeavors, he won the Roberto Clemente Award and the initial Bart Giamatti Caring Award among many other honors.

Cal and his wife. Kelly, live in Reisterstown, MD with their children, Rachel and Ryan, He is active in youth baseball projects and is co-owner of the Aberdeen IronBirds, an Orioles minor league affiliate, in addition to raising funds for the Cal Ripken, Sr. Foundation to benefit youth programs. His son, Ryan, was drafted by the Washington Nationals in the 15th round of the 2014 First Year Player Draft.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS Frank robinson—20

Frank's achievements during his 21 seasons as a player rank him among the top players of all-time in 10 categories. He hit 586 home runs, ninth on the all-time list. He spent 19 seasons with the Orioles as a player (1966-71), coach ('79-'80 and '85-'87), manager ('88-'91), and assistant general manager ('91-'95).

The trade that brought Frank from Cincinnati to Baltimore turned the Orioles from contenders to World Champions in 1966. He won the Triple Crown (.316 average, 49 homers, 122 RBI) and was both the AL and World Series MVP in his first season with the Orioles. In all, the Orioles went to the World Series four times in his six seasons as a player with them. When he was traded to the Dodgers after the '71 season, he became the first to have his number retired by the Orioles.

Frank was NL Rookie of the Year with the Reds in 1956 and is the only player to win MVP honors in both leagues ('61 NL, '66 AL). He played in 11 All-Star games and was MVP of the 1971 classic. While still an active player, he became the first black manager in major league history with the Cleveland Indians in 1975. In addition to the Indians ('75-'77), he managed the San Francisco Giants ('81-'84), the Orioles ('88-'89), and the Montreal Expos—Washington Nationals ('02-'06).

Frank was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame the first year he was eligible in 1982. He lives with his wife, Barbara, in Bel Air, CA. They have two children.

On February 2, 2015, Frank was named by Baseball Commissioner Robert D. Manfred, Jr. as Senior Advisor and the new Honorary President of the American League. Robinson is currently Major League Baseball's Executive Vice President for Baseball Development.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS JIM PALMER-22

The greatest pitcher in Orioles history, Jim won 268 games in a 19-year career, all of it with Baltimore. He won three Cy Young Awards in a four-year span ('73, '75, '76) and his 2.86 ERA is fourth on the all-time list among pitchers with 3,000 or more innings pitched.

Jim won 20 games in a season eight times, one of only six who pitched exclusively in the 20th century to accomplish the feat. He put that string together in a nine-year stretch, 1970-78, during which he went 176-97 with a 2.54 ERA.

In 1966, at age 20, he became the youngest pitcher ever to throw a World Series shutout, and in 1983 he became the only hurler to have won a World Series game in each of three decades. He was the winning pitcher in the Orioles' first four pennant-clinching games and was 8-3 in 17 postseason appearances. He was a six-time All-Star and was the AL's starting pitcher four times.

Jim was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame on the first ballot in January 1990. He is in his 16th season as an analyst on Orioles televised games, and has also worked for ABC-TV and ESPN. On January 12, 2012, Palmer was awarded the Player Lifetime Achievement Award by the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation.

Jim lives in Baltimore and Palm Beach, FL He has two daughters, Jamie Michelle and Kelly Christina.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS EDDIE MURRAY—33

Eddie played 12 1/2 of his 21 seasons with the Orioles and was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 2003. He spent his first 12 years with the Orioles and rejoined the team in 1996, becoming the 15th player to reach the 500-home run plateau. Eddie, Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, and Rafael Palmeiro are the only players with 500 homers and 3,000 hits.On February 2, 2015, Frank was named by Baseball Commissioner Robert D. Manfred, Jr. as Senior Advisor and the new Honorary President of the American League. Robinson is currently Major League Baseball's Executive Vice President for Baseball Development.

A model of consistency, he drove in at least 75 runs in each of his first 20 major league seasons, a feat unmatched. He has more RBI than any switch-hitter in history and ranks ninth all-time in RBI. Eddie was named to eight All-Star teams, seven as an Oriole, and batted .300 or better seven times, including five times as an Oriole. He won the Orioles'

"triple crown" five times, leading the club in average, homers and RBI. He played at least 150 games in 16 seasons, the second most in history behind Pete Rose.

Eddie broke in as the AL Rookie of the Year in 1977. He was named Most Valuable Oriole seven times (twice sharing the award with Cal).

Like Frank Robinson before him, Eddie's Oriole number was retired when he was twwraded to the Los Angeles Dodgers. He also played for the Mets, Indians, and Angels, and was an Orioles coach for four seasons, 1998-2001. He also served as hitting coach for the Cleveland Indians and Los Angeles Dodgers. A three-time Gold Glove winner, he holds the major league record for games played and career assists by a first baseman. Eddie has two daughters, Jordan and Jessica, and lives in his hometown of Los Angeles.

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

DRIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

When Oriole Park at Camden Yards opened on April 6, 1992, a new era of Major League Baseball began. The park was brand new, but still old-fashioned. State-of-the-art, yet quaint. At less than a day old, it was already a classic.

Oriole Park at Camden Yards inspired a generation of ballpark construction. No longer would communities across America build multipurpose stadiums devoid of character, surrounded by vast parking lots. Ballparks would now be created to nestle neatly into existing and historic neighborhoods and play key roles in the revitalization of urban America.

Oriole Park at Camden Yards captured the nation's attention from day one and in the seasons that followed, has served as the standard by which all new ballparks are measured. Citizens of Baltimore and all of Maryland, as well as Orioles fans throughout Birdland, should take great pride in the fact that our team makes its home in The Ballpark That Forever Changed Baseball.

20TH ANNIVERSARY IMPROVEMENTS AND UPGRADES

As part of a continued commitment to honor the proud history of the franchise, and in conjunction with efforts to improve the design aesthetic and functionality of the ballpark, in 2012 the Orioles enhanced the fan experience at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. The improvements and additions, highlighted by a newly renovated area to honor the greatest Orioles of all time inside the gates of the ballpark, were done to celebrate the 20th anniversary of Oriole Park.

Larger than life sculptures of the six Orioles who have their numbers retired and are National Baseball Hall of Fame members – Frank Robinson, Earl Weaver, Jim Palmer, Eddie Murray, Cal Ripken, Jr., and Brooks Robinson – were unveiled during the 2012 season. The bronze sculptures created by renowned Maryland sculptor Antonio Tobias "Toby" Mendez, are located in an improved bullpen picnic grove, which received significant upgrades and additional landscaping. As with the Orioles Hall of Fame plaques on Eutaw Street, this area was renovated to allow fans access during non-gameday hours.

Along with the installation of the sculptures, the Orioles also completed additional upgrades to the upper deck, main concourse, Eutaw Street, and Flag Court at Oriole Park for the 2012 season.

In 2011, the Orioles and their concessionaire, Delaware North Sportservice, invested in an overhaul of the main concourse concessions. For 2012, the Orioles and the Maryland Stadium Authority further improved the main concourse with new flooring and wall coverings.

The outfield areas of Eutaw Street and the bullpen picnic grove in center field underwent a major overhaul featuring the following changes in addition to the six new sculptures:

- The Roof Deck, a new outfield overlook on top of the batter's eye wall in center field, featuring casual seating, a bar, and deck seating. This area was previously inaccessible to fans.
- · New entry concessions at the north end of Eutaw Street.
- As a part of MSA's restoration of the B&O Warehouse brick work, a replica of the original canopy was added to the Warehouse to shelter portable concessions and additional seating, as well as fans on Eutaw Street searching for shade or to escape inclement weather.

The out-of-town scoreboard on the right field wall was also modified to reduce the height of the wall and thus improve views of the game from the Flag Court and Eutaw Street.

THE HISTORY

Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the beautiful baseball-only facility in downtown Baltimore, became the official home of the Orioles on April 6, 1992. The construction of the park was completed in essentially 33 months from the time razing previous structures on the 85-acre parcel began June 28, 1989 in the area known as Camden Yards.

The one-time railroad center is 12 minutes west by foot from the city's Inner Harbor and only two blocks from the birthplace of baseball's most legendary hero, George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Ruth's father operated Ruth's Cafe on the ground floor of the family residence located at Conway Street and Little Paca, now center field at Oriole Park. The ballpark originally seated 48,041 (and now seats 45,971), and the project cost was approximately $110 million. It was designed by the Kansas City architectural firm of Helmuth, Obata + Kassabaum (HOK) with direction and input from the Orioles and the State of Maryland, which owns and operates the facility through its agency, the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA).

Working under contract to HOK were the urban design firm of RTKL, the landscape architecture firm of Wallace, Roberts and Todd, and the engineering firms of Bliss and Nyitray; Rummel, Klepper and Kahl; and Kidde Consultants, Inc. Working under contract to the Orioles were the interior design firm of Forte Design and the graphic design firm of David Ashton and Associates. Oriole Park is state-of-the-art, yet unique, traditional, and intimate in design. It blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century. Steel, rather than concrete trusses, an arched brick facade, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the upper deck, an asymmetrical playing field, and natural grass turf are just some of the features that tie it to those magnificent big league ballparks built in the early 1900's. Ebbets Field (Brooklyn), Shibe Park (Philadelphia), Fenway Park (Boston), Crosley Field (Cincinnati), Forbes Field (Pittsburgh), Wrigley Field (Chicago), and The Polo Grounds (New York) were among the ballparks that served as powerful influences in the design of Oriole Park.

THE PLAYING FIELD

The field is 16 feet below street level and is comprised of a sophisticated irrigation and drainage system below natural grass turf. It is designed to reduce the frequency of rainouts by shortening the length of baseball's most exasperating feature, the rain delay. The field's system makes it possible to get the field ready for play within a half hour after the end of a heavy rainstorm. The drainage system automatically removes as much as 75,000 gallons of rainwater from the field in an hour. Following the 2000 season, the ballpark's infield and outfield were completely rebuilt, replacing the dirt, sand rootzone mix, sod, and drainage. The drainage system was modernized by utilizing an inlaid piping system topped by a fabric mesh and gravel to better protect both the pipes and the playing surface. Following the 2005 season, all new irrigation heads were installed. In 2008, the sod was replaced with a sand-based blend of Kentucky bluegrass that is genetically darker in color and more durable than the version previously used at Oriole Park, giving the field a more vibrant green color.

Prior to the 2013 season, the Orioles replaced the rubberized warning track that had been in place since Oriole Park opened in 1992, with a natural surface composed of crushed stone. The color of the stone was designed to match the brick that appears throughout the ballpark and in the Warehouse. Actual samples of those same Williamsport, MD bricks were used in the final material to achieve the proper blend. The new surface covers approximately 20,000 square feet and required 300 tons of material.

DIMENSIONS

For Oriole Park's first nine seasons, outfield dimensions were 333 feet to left field, 364 feet to left center, 400 feet to center, 373 feet to right center and 318 feet to right field. Prior to the 2001 season, in conjunction with extensive renovations to the ballpark's playing surface and drainage system, the Orioles reconfigured the ballpark with outfield dimensions that were up to seven feet larger than those used since Oriole Park at Camden Yards opened in 1992. However, it was found that the new dimensions did not significantly improve sight lines for fans, as had been anticipated, and adversely affected the viewing angle of the batter's eye wall.

As a result, the ballpark was returned to its original dimensions before the 2002 season. The changes included moving home plate approximately seven feet closer to the outfield, to its original spot 59 feet from the backstop. In addition, the entire field was shifted several degrees to the first base side and both the left field and right field foul poles were repositioned to their original locations. The foul line measurements decreased from 320 feet to 318 feet in right field and from 337 to 333 feet in left field. The center field distance decreased from 406 to 400 feet and the deepest part of the ballpark, in left center field, decreased from 417 to 410 feet.

The shorter dimension in the right field corner is off-set by a 21-foot high wall, which extends 100 feet from the right field line toward center. The fence in the rest of the park is only seven-foot high.

THE WAREHOUSE

Located beyond right field, the B&O Warehouse is 439 feet from home plate. Built between 1898-1905, the Warehouse is the longest building on the East Coast at 1,016 feet (but only 51 feet wide). It has been preserved and now provides unique office space for the Orioles as well as home for the banquet facilities, the ballpark's central kitchen, and space for ballpark operations. The Orioles' main ticket office operates out of the north end of the Warehouse. Dempsey's Brew Pub and Restaurant is located on the first floor of the Warehouse and is open year-round for lunch and dinner. Eutaw Street Market, a convenience store on the first floor of the Warehouse featuring grab and go sandwiches, drinks, and snacks is also open year-round.

The ballpark and Warehouse are separated by a 60-foot wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street. Open daily, Eutaw Street is home to plaques dedicated to members of the Orioles Hall of Fame, the Mid-Atlantic Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame, and the Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame.

Small circular plaques are found in the concrete along Eutaw Street, marking the locations where home runs have landed since the ballpark opened. Through the 2014 season, 54 different players have hit 79 home runs that have landed on Eutaw Street (31 by the Orioles and 48 by visiting teams). Just two home runs landed on the Eutaw Street corridor in 2014. A record 11 homers landed on the corridor in 2013, breaking the previous mark of nine set in 2012. Luke Scott's six home runs are the most by any player in Oriole Park history, one more than Chris Davis.

In addition, numbers representing the players whose uniforms have been retired by the Orioles are located in Babe Ruth Plaza, outside the north Eutaw Street gates.

Ballpark tours depart regularly from the Baseball Store on Eutaw Street. The Orioles Official Team Store, open daily, is located on the ground floor of the Warehouse.

MEMORIAL WALL

On Veterans Day 2002, ground was broken at the south end of the Eutaw Street Warehouse for a memorial wall to honor Maryland residents who were killed in all of our nation's wars. Designed by Baltimore-based CS&D Architects, the memorial was created to replace the one razed at Memorial Stadium earlier that year. The 11-foot-tall, curving black granite wall features the well-known phrase from the Memorial Stadium facade, spelled out in the original stainless steel lettering: "Time Will Not Dim the Glory of Their Deeds." In other links to the old stadium, an urn from East 33rd Street containing soil from all foreign American military cemeteries is displayed under glass, and a plaque explains the significance of Memorial Stadium in Baltimore history. A bench allows visitors the opportunity to rest and reflect at any time during the day or evening, and the memorial is illuminated at night. A dedication ceremony was held on Memorial Day, May 26, 2003.

SPORTS LEGENDS AT CAMDEN YARDS

In May 2005, the Babe Ruth Museum opened its expansion project, Sports Legends at Camden Yards, in the historic Camden Station building at the north end of the Warehouse. Covering 22,000 square feet and showcasing more than 10,000 artifacts, Sports Legends is an interactive, innovative tour of Maryland's sports heritage. The space includes exhibits on the Orioles, the Baltimore Colts, and Johnny Unitas, along with an in-depth look at the history of the Negro Leagues in Baltimore. Other exhibits include Maryland's minor league baseball teams, college sports, the Baltimore Ravens, and the Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame.

Opened in 1856, Camden Station had been unused since the 1980s prior to the renovations. In its heyday, the station was the grand passenger terminus of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, the country's first commercial railroad. In 1954, the brand-new Baltimore Orioles franchise arrived at Camden Station from a season-opening series in Detroit for their first home game at Memorial Stadium.

Abraham Lincoln passed through the station on several occasions, once en route to his inauguration in 1861, and also on his way to deliver the Gettysburg Address. Lincoln's funeral car also stopped there on its way to Springfield, IL, for his burial. As part of the renovations, the Gentlemen's Waiting Room was restored to its Civil War splendor and interprets Lincoln's passages through Camden Station, the Civil War, and Camden Station's role in America's transportation history.

ENTERTAINMENT SYSTEM

Prior to the 2008 season, the Orioles and the Maryland Stadium Authority contracted with Mitsubishi to purchase a new video system for Oriole Park at Camden Yards, replacing the Sony JumboTRON video board and Daktronics matrix and out-of-town boards used since the park opened in 1992. This state-of-the-art equipment includes a Mitsubishi DiamondVision LED video board and LED scoreboard in center field, an LED out-of-town scoreboard display in right field, and LED "ribbon" boards along the club level and upper deck fascia.

The DiamondVision LED video board sits atop the LED scoreboard, reversing the placement of the previous system. The LED out-of-town scoreboard in right field features statistical information in addition to game scores. The narrow auxiliary matrix boards along the club level and upper deck were replaced with LED ribbon boards, providing better definition, brighter images, and wider viewing angles. ScorePAD Sports, Inc.'s state-of-the-art STADIUMnet scoring system provides extensive statistical information on each player to help keep fans informed.

In order to preserve the traditional feel of Oriole Park while providing fans with the most modern technology, the Orioles hired an expert design team to work with the Maryland Stadium Authority to deliver major technological upgrades while preserving the ballpark's historic aesthetic.

Phase two of the ballpark improvements were completed prior to the 2009 season and included major control room upgrades, new HD televisions throughout the ballpark, and improvements in the coverage and quality of the ballpark sound system. The ballpark entertainment control room replacement allows the entertainment system to transmit a high-definition (HD) signal to the main and auxiliary video boards and further enhance the fan experience at Oriole Park.

The 2009 sound system renovations included 530 new speakers in all, replacing those that had been in place since Oriole Park opened. To improve coverage and consistency of sound throughout the seating area, a number of additional loudspeaker positions were created. New speakers are located in the Upper and Lower Deck seating bowl, Club Level, Main Concourse, centerfield bleacher area, and scoreboard. The new system employs digital signal processing (DSP) that is significantly more advanced than what was previously used and allows a much greater level of control. The result is a substantially more uniform listening experience throughout the seating area.

ORIOLE PARK

When the Orioles moved to Oriole Park at Camden Yards for the 1992 season, they brought with them the right field foul pole that had been used for 37 seasons at Memorial Stadium. The foul pole was affixed atop the tall wall in right field in the Flag Court. Prior to the 2001 season, the Orioles replaced the original Oriole Park left field foul pole with the left field pole that had been used throughout their stay at Memorial Stadium. At 70 feet high, the new/old foul pole is 20 feet shorter than the previously used pole and requires a more modest support structure, which allows more fans in seats in the Lower, Club, and Upper Deck levels to have an unobstructed view of the field. The foul poles were returned to their original positions when the ballpark was reconfigured to its original dimensions after the 2001 season.

SEATING

After the 2010 season, the Maryland Stadium Authority completed the final phase of the replacement of the seats in the Oriole Park seating bowl as part of their deferred maintenance program. After the 2009 season, all seats in the lower level from foul pole to foul pole were replaced, along with necessary repairs to the concrete in this area. The work concluded in the winter of 2010-2011, as MSA repaired concrete and replaced seats in the lower level outfield, the Club Level, and the Upper Deck.

At the request of the Orioles, the Club Level and Upper Deck at Camden Yards have been furnished with wider seats that are more comfortable for fans. Sightlines for fans on both of those levels were improved with the installation of new, less intrusive railings to enhance the view of those sitting in the first few rows, as well as fans sitting in and around Upper Deck equal access and companion seats.

Other ballpark improvements made prior to the 2011 season included the installation of drink rails in portions of the Club Level seating bowl down the left field line, as well as the addition of bistro tables facing the field on the left field club level and the creation of the Miller Lite Flite Deck in the corner of the right field club level. All of the new locations provide a unique, more social experience for fans and are ideal for individuals as well as small and large groups.

Every aisle seat in the park has an extra feature: a reproduction of the 100-year-old logo used by the Baltimore Orioles of the 1890s, a National League team that won consecutive pennants in 1894-95-96.

The Lower Deck comprises some 18,000 box seats between the foul poles. Behind the box seats there are some 6,400 terrace box and lower reserved seats. Prior to the 2004 season, 72 field level seats were installed behind home plate. Seats in the lower stand are generally closer to the field. From the front row of seats to first and third base, for example, the distance is 45 feet. From home plate to the screen measures 47 feet.

The Mezzanine, or Club Level, stretches from the right field foul pole to left-center field and is accessible by escalators, elevators, stairs, and ramps. There is waiter service available at the seats, and behind the seating area on the Club Level concourse is a climate-controlled lounge with private dining and bar areas.

Also on the Club Level are 65 luxury suites, with the ability to accommodate a variety of groups, from smaller gatherings with 14-18 guests to larger parties with 30-40 guests. While some of the suites are leased on a full or partial season basis, a number of them are available for individual game rentals. Three larger party suites, named to honor Orioles legends, Brooks Robinson, Frank Robinson, and Jim Palmer, can accommodate groups of up to 75 people.

The Upper Deck contains 25 rows of seats (the first 12 are boxes, the last 13 reserved seats) and has a gentle slope of 31 degrees (Memorial Stadium, like many parks, was 33 degrees). A sun roof was constructed to cover half of the Upper Deck seating area.

Some 1,887 Eutaw Street Bleacher seats, among the most popular in the park, are located in right-center field. There are also Standing Room Only (SRO) tickets that go on sale in advance of sold out games. The SRO areas are found on the right field Flag Court and just above the visitor's bullpen in left field.

With the installation of wider seats in the Club Level and Upper Deck, total seating capacity in the ballpark was decreased from 48,290 to 45,971 beginning in 2011. More than 400 seats are available to fans with disabilities in the equal access areas (EA), which are located throughout the ballpark.

ACCESSIBILITY/PARKING

Oriole Park is easily reached via rail, bus, and subway lines as well as four major highways (I-95, I-83, I-70, and the Baltimore-Washington Parkway). The MARC train and light rail trains both have stops directly on site. About 4,000 parking spaces are located south of the park on-site and numerous spaces are located in garages and lots within walking distance of the ballpark.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE TO ORIOLE PARK

Since Oriole Park at Camden Yards opened in 1992, many exciting improvements have been made to help enhance the "Oriole Park Experience"...

- -Smoking was banned entirely at Oriole Park prior to the 2013 season.
- -The escalator near Gate B was completely replaced prior to the 2012 season.
- -Drink rails were installed in portions of the Club Level seating bowl down the left field line, as well as bistro tables facing the field on the left field Club Level and the Miller Lite Flite Deck in the corner of the right field Club Level.
- -Concrete and seats throughout the ballpark were replaced following the 2009 and 2010 seasons as part of the Maryland Stadium Authority's deferred maintenance program. Cushions were added to the lower level seats between the bases.
- -Prior to 2010, all the rows in the entire ballpark were switched from letters to numbers, to more clearly designate the number of rows from the field or the front of the Club and Upper Levels.
- -The Home Plate Plaza Lobby, Home Plate Lounge, and Upper and Lower Press Levels were renovated during the 2009 offseason.
- -Within the past seven years, the entire ballpark entertainment system, including the audio, video, and scoreboards, were upgraded or replaced.
- -Seats in sections 16-58 were replaced prior to 2004 with chairs with higher backs and padding. Cupholders were also installed to the 6,200 new seats.
- -Two rows of seats were added at field level behind home plate prior to the 2004 season, a total of 72 seats. Also, 10 seats were added to section 16 and 14 seats were added to section 58 at that time.
- -Also prior to the 2004 season, the concrete wall behind home plate was replaced with brick, in keeping with the Oriole Park at Camden Yards aesthetic. Two 7.5' rotational signs were also added to the wall.
- -Prior to and during the early part of the 2000 season, the entrance area to the Home Plate Plaza Lobby was redesigned to provide a new floor covering, new wall finishes, and redesigned elevators.
- -Also in 2000, the first floor lobby of the Warehouse at 333 W. Camden Street was redesigned from floor to ceiling to provide improved traffic flow and to accentuate the original structural and architectural elements of the Warehouse.
- -Prior to the 2000 season, the fourth floor lobby of the Warehouse also was refinished and improved to create a fresher, more enjoyable experience for those using party facilities and club level ticket holders who use this entrance to the ballpark.
- -Included in the improvements made during the 1999 season, the ticket reader system used at the turnstiles was upgraded. The ticket entrances were enlarged and the reader system itself was expanded to allow more types of tickets to be fed through the turnstile readers, providing fans a smoother, quicker entry to the ballpark.
- -In an on-going project that began in early 1999, the Orioles offices located in the B&O Warehouse have undergone major renovations in order to give the offices a warmer look. In addition to redesigned office space, new artwork and artifacts are displayed in the lobby and in the glass entry doors.
- -Prior to the 1999 season, an Upper Deck Fan Assistance Center was constructed in the Homeplate Elevator Lobby.
- -Prior to the 1999 season, the warning track surrounding the playing field was painted a shade of brown to more closely match the color of the infield dirt and to complement the colors of the B&O Warehouse.
- -Work was completed on repainting the entire steel "superstructure" of the ballpark. The work was begun prior to the 2000 season and completed during the year.
- -The Club Level and Suites have undergone a complete refurbishing, including new furniture, wallpaper, and carpeting. The Orioles World Series trophies, Gold Glove, MVP, and Cy Young Awards are on view at the entrance to the Club Level. Photos and

ORIOLE PARK

- -Smoking was banned in the seating bowl in 1993.
- -Plaques and other displays around the ballpark honor various athletic accomplishments.

Orioles Hall of Fame: Located at the north end of the Warehouse on the wall at the base of the scoreboard, plaques honor the members inducted annually and are similar in appearance to those enshrined in Cooperstown. They feature the Oriole Hall of Famer's likeness and a brief description of their accomplishments.

Orioles' Retired Numbers: 4-foot monuments, located at the north end of the Warehouse in front of the Orioles ticket windows honor the uniform numbers worn by Earl Weaver (4), Brooks Robinson (5), Cal Ripken, Jr. (8), Frank Robinson (20), Jim Palmer (22), and Eddie Murray (33).

Mid-Atlantic Scouts Hall of Fame: As a tribute to baseball scouts over the years, the plaques are mounted on a wall on Eutaw Street.

Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame: The names of Marylanders who left their mark in athletic endeavors and have been inducted into the state's Athletic Hall of Fame are mounted on a wall on Eutaw Street; a full display with highlights of each inductee's career is located in the Sports Legends Museum at Camden Yards, next to the ballpark.

Cal Ripken Seat: To honor Cal's 278th career homer, surpassing Ernie Banks' major league record for home runs by a shortstop, the Orioles marked the spot where the ball landed (Section 86, Row 4, Seat 10) with an orange seat. The homer came on July 15, 1993 off Scott Erickson, then with Minnesota.

Eddie Murray Seat: To honor Eddie's 500th career home run, hit on September 6, 1996 off Detroit's Felipe Lira, the Orioles installed an orange seat in the right field bleachers where the ball landed (Section 96, Row 7, Seat 23).

Eutaw Street Home Runs: Brass baseball plates are embedded into the Eutaw Street sidewalk marking the spots where home runs cleared the right field gate. These plates contain the home run hitter's name, his team's logo, the distance the ball traveled, and the date the home run was hit.

Plaques in the Oriole Park press box have been erected honoring four individuals: the late Rex Barney, Orioles public address announcer for more than 25 years; the late Vernon Joiner, longtime head of the club's famed press box attendants crew; Bob Brown, the Orioles' public relations director for more than 25 years; and the late Monica Pence Barlow, the Orioles' public relations director and a member of the organization for 14 years. A plaque in the first base camera well honors longtime team photographer Jerry Wachter.

In ceremonies prior to Cal Ripken, Jr.'s final game on October 6, 2001, the Orioles unveiled a plaque in the first base dugout dedicated to Cal Ripken, Sr. It is inscribed: "Cal Ripken Sr. Dedicated to a lifelong Oriole of thirty-six years, and one of the game's greatest teachers. Coach, manager and devoted mentor to countless young Orioles, "Senior" dedicated his life to baseball and passed on his respect of the game to everyone he coached. He preached "perfect practice, makes perfect" and stressed the importance of being prepared, learning the "Right way" and playing to the best of one's ability every inning of every game. We will always remember his devotion to the Orioles, his love of the game, and his many lessons..."

Relief pitcher Jesse Orosco made his 1,072nd career appearance on August 17, 1999 to pass Dennis Eckersley for the Major League record for most games pitched. In honor of his accomplishment, the Orioles installed a plaque with Orosco's uniform number, 47, above the bench in their bullpen.

In honor of Earl Weaver's induction into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, a silver "4" and plaque identifying Weaver's years as manager was added to the Orioles' dugout wall in July 1996, near where the manager traditionally stands.

BALLPARK TOURS

Oriole Park at Camden Yards tours continue to be a popular attraction for thousands of visitors to Baltimore. In 2014, over 34,000 people toured the ballpark facility. Since 1992 more than 920,000 fans have taken a tour of Oriole Park. Fans touring the facility visit the suite level, media levels and dugout. Private tours, reserved in advance, are available year-round. Public tours are available between March and November. For tickets and schedule information, visit www.orioles.com or call 410-547-6234 or 888-848-BIRD (2473).

BALTIMORE'S ORIOLE

America's early colonists noticed a bird whose male bore the black and orange colors of Lord Baltimore, Maryland's founder. It was called a Baltimore oriole until the 1960s, when it was observed to interbreed with a bird called Bullock's oriole. The American Ornithologists' Union declared both would be considered a single species: Northern oriole. But later studies showed that, while the two birds sometimes interbreed, the offspring rarely pass along their genes. In 1994, the Baltimore oriole recovered its status as a species.

ATTENDANCE

ATTENDANCE MILESTONES: The Orioles celebrated two attendance milestones in 2008. The first came on August 19, 2008, as the O's welcomed their 50 millionth fan at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Opened in 1992, Oriole Park is the quickest ballpark to achieve the 50 million fan milestone in the history of baseball. In its first 17 seasons, Oriole Park at Camden Yards hosted the third-most fans in baseball, trailing only Dodger Stadium and Yankee Stadium.

Less than a week later, on August 23, 2008, the 100 millionth fan in franchise history entered the gates at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. In 61 seasons and 4,531 regular season dates between Memorial Stadium and Camden Yards, 112,656,299 fans have watched the Orioles play in Baltimore.

The Orioles have drawn a total of 62,810,708 fans in 1,815 dates in 23 seasons at Oriole Park, surpassing the total attendance they drew from 1954 through 1991 at Memorial Stadium. In 38 seasons at the old ballpark on 33rd Street, the club drew 49,845,588 in 2,716 dates, an average of 18,353 fans per game. The Birds have averaged 34,606 fans per game in 1,815 dates

2014: The Orioles drew 2,464,473 fans to Camden Yards in 80 home dates, an average of 30,806 fans per game. The Orioles cracked the 2 million mark for the 25th time in franchise history and the 19th time since moving into Oriole Park. Baltimore had eight sellouts in 2014 and has now drawn 40,000 or more fans on 820 of 1,815 dates at Oriole Park.

LARGEST 3-DATE CROWD: The August 10-12, 2007 series against the Boston Red Sox shattered the attendance record for a three-date series at Oriole Park at Camden Yards by more than 2,000 fans. A total of 146,786 fans attended the three games, topping the previous mark of 144,784 set August 21-23, 1998 vs. Cleveland.

AMONG THE MAJOR LEAGUE LEADERS: The Orioles had never led the AL in total or average attendance until 1995, then did it for five consecutive years. The team has drawn three million or more fans in nine of the 22 non-strike shortened seasons at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

SMALLEST CROWDS: The smallest crowd for a game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards was 9,129 on April 12, 2010 against the Tampa Bay Rays. The smallest crowd ever for an Orioles home game was on August 17, 1972, when only 655 fans attended an afternoon make-up game against the Chicago White Sox at Memorial Stadium.

50 MILLIONTH/100 MILLIONTH

The Orioles reached two major attendance milestones during the 2008 season. On August 19, the team welcomed Kevin Gracie, a law school student from Ellicott City, as the designated 50 millionth person to attend a game at Oriole Park. Oriole Park became the quickest ballpark to achieve the 50 million fan milestone in the history of baseball.

Four days later, on August 23, the 100 millionth person in franchise history was welcomed at Oriole Park. Velma Greene, a middle school teacher from Harpers Ferry, West Virginia, was designated as the milestone fan.

Since it ushered in a new era of ballpark design in 1992, Oriole Park at Camden Yards has been the standard-bearer for sports facilities in the United States, welcoming individuals from all 50 states and over 100 countries. The city of Baltimore and the entire state of Maryland have derived significant economic impact totaling in the billions of dollars from the more than 60 million fans who have attended Orioles games over the last 23 seasons, as well as from the millions more who have participated in festivals, meetings, tours, and community events that have been held at the ballpark.

Contact Information

The general line for the Public Relations Department is 410-547-6150. During home games, the PR department can be reached in the press box at 410-547-6257. The PR department fax number is 410-547-6272. The PR Twitter account is @OriolesPR.

Media Credentials

Requests for full season or single-game credentials must go through the MLB Credentialing System. Media members who do not have an account on the MLB system should email Chris Martrich in the Public Relations Department at cmartrich@orioles.com in regards to an account. Credential requests for individual games must be submitted at least 24 hours in advance of the requested game. Credentials will be issued only to legitimate newsgathering agencies and are non-transferable. Any unauthorized use will result in confiscation of the credential and ejection from Oriole Park. Those approved for credentials may pick them up at Home Plate Plaza, located between Gates D & E, beginning four hours before game time.

Ballpark & Press Level Access

Media must access the ballpark via Home Plate Plaza, which is located on the southwestern side of Oriole Park between Gates D & E. Home Plate Plaza opens four hours before game time. Media should be prepared to show identification to obtain their credentials. The press box is located on Level Two (Lower Press) and is to be used by print and non-rightsholder electronic outlets. Home and visiting radio and television broadcast from Level Three (Upper Press). Wireless Internet access is available on both levels. Login information to access the Internet from the press level is available in the lower press box.

Parking

Limited parking for media is available in Lots A and B/C off of Lee Street. TV trucks may park in the ENG Lot next to Lot A, but must contact the Public Relations Department in advance. A hang tag or daily pass is required for access to each of these lots. Media without a parking pass must contact the Public Relations Department for a daily pass. Due to limited availability, not all requests can be fulfilled.

Press Dining Room

Media with season, MLB, BBWAA, or single-game credentials are invited to eat in the Press Dining Room on the Upper Press Level. Food service will begin two hours before the start of that day's game and continue until one hour after the game begins. Light refreshments and beverages are available in the Dining Room through the seventh inning. Due to space limitations, only credentialed media and club employees with game-time duties may eat in the Dining Room. We are unable to accommodate friends and family members.

Field Access

Credentialed media may access the field at Oriole Park by taking the Home Plate Plaza elevators to the Basement Level (Service Level) and walking through the Umpires' Tunnel between the home and visiting clubhouses. The field area is open to media from the time Home Plate Plaza opens until 45 minutes before game time. Media are asked to remain on the warning track and between the two dugouts at all times.

Clubhouse Access

Only media with MLB, BBWAA or team-issued credentials have access to the clubhouses. Video cameras are permitted in the Orioles clubhouse prior to and after the game, but are restricted to tight interview shots. The clubhouses will open for media access 3 ½ hours before game time and close when the team takes the field for batting practice. Both clubhouses will open within 10 minutes after the final out of each game. The trainer's area, players' lounge, batting cages, kitchen, and shower areas are off-limits to media at all times. Media are not permitted to use cell phones, with the exception of recording audio, in the clubhouse at any time without prior permission from a Public Relations representative. Violators will lose clubhouse privileges. Still and video photographers are not permitted in the clubhouse without permission from the Public Relations Department.

2015 MEDIA

Interview Room

Orioles Manager Buck Showalter will be available to media in a group session before and after every home game. Pre-game interviews will take place in the Orioles dugout or the auxiliary clubhouse off the Umpires' Tunnel. Showalter's post-game media availability will be held in the auxiliary clubhouse.

O's Public Relations on Twitter

Media members may receive updates from the Orioles' Public Relations Department via Twitter. Visit @OriolesPR to subscribe.

Photographers

Photographers are not permitted on the field at any time during the game. Camera wells are located at each end of the home and visitors dugouts. Camera positions will be designated by the Orioles' Public Relations Department or team photographer. No still photographers are allowed in either clubhouse without the permission of the Public Relations Department of each team.

No Autographs

Autograph seeking is strictly prohibited for credentialed media members. Any member of the media who requests an autograph will have his/her credential and press access revoked.

ORIOLES TELEVISION & RADIO

TELEVISION

ANNOUNCERS: Gary Thorne, Jim Hunter, Jim Palmer, Mike Bordick and Rick Dempsey

MASN, the television home of the Baltimore Orioles, is an independent regional sports network that televises every available Orioles game. The network is owned by the Orioles and Washington Nationals, and gives fans unmatched access to the action on the field and inside the game.

MASN televises every available Orioles game in high-definition on its two HD channels, MASN HD and MASN2 HD. All of MASN's cable, satellite and fiber optic distributors carry MASN HD and MASN2 HD on a consistent channel throughout the season. (Visit www.MASNsports.com for local listings.)

Before every game, MASN televises the Orioles exclusive pregame show, O's Xtra, with insights and analysis about the upcoming matchup.

After each game, MASN televises the O's Xtra postgame show, with highlights, player interviews, and the Manager's press conference. Fans can keep up with MASN via facebook.com/masnorioles and via @masnorioles on Twitter. Roch Kubatko and Steve Melewski cover the team year-round on MASNsports.com and @masnRoch and @masnSteve.

MASN carries more than 100 NCAA Division I football and basketball games, featuring local colleges and top-ranked programs, as well as other regional sports programming, including the daily baseball show, Mid-Atlantic Sports Report, airing weekdays at 5 p.m.

MASN's exclusive television territory covers all or parts of seven states including the District of Columbia, from Harrisburg, Pennsylvania to Charlotte, North Carolina. The network is carried by most cable and satellite providers in the mid-Atlantic region. For more information, visit www.MASNsports.com.

Again in 2015, MASN has partnered with WJZ-TV to simulcast approximately 20 games.

MIKE BORDICK

Longtime Oriole and Orioles Hall of Farne member Mike Bordick enters his fourth year as a member of the MASN broadcast team, pairing with Jim Hunter or Gary Thome as an analyst for half the O's games in 2015.

A 2011 inductee into the Orioles Hall of Fame, Bordick played for the Orioles for six seasons from 1997 to 2002. One of the best defensive players in club history, Bordick has the third-highest fielding percentage (.982) among shortstops with at least 1,000 games played in major league history, trailing only Omar Vizquel (.985) and Jimmy Rollins (.983).

In his 2002 season with the Orioles, Bordick had the best defensive season for a shortstop in major league history, setting a record for highest fielding percentage (.998), fewest errors (1), consecutive errorless games (110), and consecutive errorless chances (543). Bordick led AL shortstops with a .989 fielding percentage and 797 total chances in 1999 with the Orioles, a year in which he also led the AL in batting average against left-handed pitching (.406). Bordick's 14-year major league career also included time with the Oakland Athletics (1990-96), New York Mets (2000) and Toronto Blue Jays (2003). He batted .260 with 1,500 hits in his career, including a .260 average (674-2592) in 739 games with the Orioles.

Originally signed by the A's as a non-drafted free agent after playing in the Cape Cod League in 1986, Bordick was on Oakland's active roster for the 1990 World Series and appeared in three games for the A's. He also played in the 2000 World Series with the New York Mets after being traded from the Orioles that July and was named to the American League All-Star team that year as well.

Bordick played three years at the University of Maine, where he led the Bears to College World Series berths in 1984 and 1986. At the end of his playing career, he completed his Bachelor's degree in kinesiology and physical education from the University of Maine.

He spent the 2010-11 seasons as Coordinator of Offensive Fundamentals for the Orioles' minor league system. As he has done since 2012, Bordick will continue to work as a Special Assignment Instructor in the Orioles' minor league system when he is not in the broadcast booth.

Bordick and his wife, Monica, reside in Ruxton, MD with their six children.

TOM DAVIS

Baltimore native Tom Davis enters his 45th year as a local sportscaster and begins his fifth year as the host of MASN's Mid Atlantic Sports Report. He will also work on television as a co-host of "O's Xtra," MASN's pre- and post-game show. Davis previously spent 17 seasons as a host on Orioles telecasts on Home Team Sports (HTS) from 1984 to 2000. A five-time winner of the Maryland Sportscaster of the Year Award, Davis began his career as a weekend sportscaster for WBAL-TV in the early '70s. He also worked at WBAL Radio, had two stints at WCBM-AM, and spent 17 years as a sportscaster for the "Rouse & Company Show" on WQSR-FM.

Tom's national sports broadcasting experience includes work with NBC-TV and NBC Radio, where he covered the NFL, 1987 Gator Bowl, and the 1988 Summer Olympics. He also did play-by-play for a number of college football bowl games for the Mutual Radio Network and was a sideline reporter for ABC-TV's coverage of the USFL in 1983-84.

Davis served as play-by-play announcer for the first game played at M&T Bank Stadium on August 8, 1998, an exhibition game between the Baltimore Ravens and Chicago Bears. He lists one of his greatest thrills as calling Cal Ripken's 400th career home run in 1999.

In addition to his work on Orioles broadcasts, Davis hosts a sports talk show, 'Wall to Wall Baseball," each Saturday afternoon on MASN. He also produces and hosts "Touchdown Baltimore" and "Take Me Out To The Ballgame," – shows that profile the Ravens and Orioles and air on MASN weekly during each team's respective season.

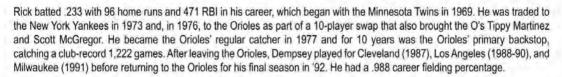

A graduate of Calvert Hall College High School, Davis received a Bachelor's degree in Marketing from the University of Baltimore in 1971. He lives in Baltimore County with his wife Bonnie and is the father of three adult children, Malinda, Tad, and Mandi. He has two grandchildren, Hunter and Georgia.

RICK DEMPSEY

Dempsey began his post-playing career as a manager in the Los Angeles Dodgers' and New York Mets' farm systems, compiling a winning record in three of five seasons. He was a member of the Dodgers' major league coaching staff from 1999-2000 before returning to the Orioles as an analyst for Comcast SportsNet in 2001. From 2002-2006, he served as a first base coach, third base coach, and bullpen coach on the Orioles coaching staff.

Rick and his wife, Joani, live in Westlake Village, a suburb of Los Angeles. They have two sons, John, who was a catcher in the St. Louis Cardinals and Kansas City Royals farm systems, and Christian. Rick's younger brother Pat was a minor league catcher for several teams, including the Orioles. His nephew, Gregg Zaun, was a catcher with the Orioles from 1995-96 and 2009. The son of an actor, Rick entertained crowds as a player during rain delays with his impersonations of Babe Ruth. He was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1997.

JIM HUNTER

Veteran broadcaster Jim Hunter is in his 19th year as a member of the Orioles broadcast team, including his 12th season in the TV booth on MASN. He is the host of "O's Xtra," MASN's Orioles pregame and post-game shows and will call play-by-play of Orioles games on MASN. He has also called play-by-play of MASN's coverage of college football and college basketball. Hunter was originally named as the Orioles' lead radio announcer on February 5, 1997 and brings to the booth 37 years of diversified broadcasting experience that ranges from Major League Baseball to the NFL to the Olympic Games.

Hunter, 56, came to Baltimore from CBS Radio Sports, where he had been since 1982. He had been a member of the network's MLB "Game of the Week" announcing team since 1986. He broadcast the American League Championship Series, teaming with Hall of Famer Johnny Bench from 1990-92, and with the Orioles' first radio voice, Hall of Famer Ernie Harwell, in 1993. In 1995-96, he called the National League Division Series and the NLCS, teaming with Hall of Famer Jerry Coleman. In addition, Hunter hosted "Inside Pitch," the CBS Radio Sunday Night Baseball pre-game show.

When Jim began his career at the CBS Radio Network in '82, he served as the Saturday evening anchor of Sports Central USA. He was later assigned to host Sports Break, a daily feature heard on CBS Radio from 1984-87. It was in 1987 that Jim was named full weekend anchor of Sports Central USA.

Jim's experience is varied and all-inclusive. In 1992 from Albertville, France and again in 1994 from Lillehammer, Norway, Hunter served as a studio anchor for CBS Radio's network coverage of the Winter Olympic Games. Also, he was the host for the NFL Preview and NFL pre-game and halftime reports. Jim has covered 12 Super Bowls. He began his broadcasting career in 1978 at WJLK Radio in Asbury Park, NJ.

An active parishioner at St. Mark's Roman Catholic Church and a 3rd degree member of the Knights Of Columbus, Hunter is involved in numerous charitable projects. During the off-season he also makes appearances in the community on behalf of the Orioles and has been an active part of the Johns Hopkins Pediatric Oncology Friends Committee, which raises money annually for children's cancer research.

A native of New Jersey, Hunter is a 1973 graduate of St. Benedict School and a 1977 graduate of St. John Vianney High School in Holmdel, NJ. He was inducted into his high school's athletic Hall of Fame for football and baseball in 1994. He attended Brookdale Community College and is a 1982 graduate of Seton Hall University in South Orange, NJ with a BA in Communication Arts.

His peers have recognized Hunter for his accomplishments on several occasions. In 2002, he was named Maryland Sportscaster of the Year by The National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. He also received the prestigious Radio/TV Media Excellence Award from the New Jersey Sportswriters Association in 1998.

Hunter resides in Fallston, MD with his wife Bonnie. They have three children. Jimmy (30) and Jeff (28) are graduates of Fallston HS and York College, PA. Allie (24) is a graduate of Fallston High School where she was a member of back-to-back state championship field hockey teams and a graduate of George Mason University. They also have two faithful dogs, Bobby and Sadie.

JIM PALMER

The winningest pitcher in Orioles history, Hall of Famer Jim Palmer returns for his 23rd season as an analyst on Orioles television broadcasts and 52rd season as a member of the Orioles Organization. He previously had done some play-by-play and analyst work on broadcasts on Home Team Sports and on WMAR-TV. Jim's biography and pitching record can be found on page 461.

GARY THORNE

Thorne is a member of the board of directors of the Baseball Assistance Team (BAT) and previously served as its president. He also has hosted both the BAT and MLB Players Alumni Association dinners and is a member of the Hockey Coaches Care Committee.

Thorne has covered three Olympics with CBS and NBC and has received five Emmys, one for his Orioles coverage on MASN in 2009, two for his work with Mets TV, one for his work broadcasting New Jersey Devils hockey and one for his call of the Minnesota Boys High School 2014 State Tournament. In 2015, he will host Hall of Fame induction day ceremonies at Cooperstown for the seventh time.

Thorne's first appearance on ESPN was in July 1988 for the inaugural Triple-A All-Star Game. He served as the original host and moderator in 1988 for "The Sports Reporters," the network's Sunday morning roundtable program and broadcast MLB on ESPN for 22 years, along with numerous other sports.

In 1989, Thorne served as the voice of the Chicago White Sox on WFLD-TV and teamed with Hall of Fame second baseman Joe Morgan on ABC's Thursday night MLB telecasts, including on field coverage at the 1989 earthquake World Series. He also broadcast games for the Baseball Network and Fox Sports.

Thorne has done play-by-play on SportsChannel America's National Hockey League telecasts (1988-92) and New Jersey Devils telecasts on SportsChannel New York (1987-92). Prior to that, he was the play-by-play commentator and director of broadcasting for the Maine Guides (1984), a Triple-A ball club which he co-owned from 1984-88. He also covered University of Maine hockey games for WBGW-AM and WABI-TV and radio from 1977-86.

Thorne is a 1970 graduate of the University of Maine with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business. He graduated from the University of Maine School of Law in 1973 and received a doctorate in law in 1976 from the Georgetown University Law Center. He is a former assistant district attorney in Bangor, Maine, member of the Army JAG Corps, and was admitted to the Bar of the United States Supreme Court in March 1977.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

RADIO

ANNOUNCERS: Joe Angel and Fred Manfra

On January 12, 2015, the Orioles announced their return to CBS RADIO's 105.7 The Fan as the flagship station of the Orioles Radio Network. Beginning this season, fans will be able to hear all 162 Orioles regular season games, select spring training contests, and extensive Orioles programming on 105.7 The Fan and across the seven-state, 36-station Orioles Radio Network.

In addition to expansive game coverage and pre- and post-game shows, the new partnership will bring exclusive Orioles programming to 105.7 The Fan backed by the power of CBS RADIO's cluster of stations, including Today's 101.9 (WLIF-FM) and Mix 106.5 (WWMX-FM).

Orioles games will continue to be called by the broadcast team of Joe Angel and Fred Manfra, who return for their 12th season together on Orioles radio coverage.

The Orioles' radio rights return to 105.7 The Fan, where the station had previously broadcast Orioles games between 2007 and 2010. Currently, 105.7 The Fan is one of the highest-rated sports talk radio stations in the United States.

This is the 15th year of the Orioles' partnership with WTEM (980 AM) to broadcast all games in the Washington, D.C. and the Northern Virginia metropolitan area. In 2010, the Orioles entered a multi-year partnership with WSBA Radio to serve as their affiliate in York, PA. In all, there are over 35 stations on the Orioles Radio Network, covering six states and the District of Columbia. In addition, members of the military stationed overseas have the opportunity to listen to Orioles games on the American Forces Radio Network.

JOE ANGEL

Veteran baseball broadcaster Joe Angel will team with Fred Manfra for his 12th straight season as the "Voice of the Orioles" on radio.

A native of Colombia, South America, who spoke no English until the age of nine, Joe has broadcast Major League Baseball for 38 years, including 15 seasons with the Orioles, 1988-90, 1992 and 2004-14. He also has worked for the San Francisco Giants, Oakland A's, Minnesota Twins, and New York Yankees and was the original voice of the Florida Marlins. Joe also broadcast games on ESPN national telecasts during the 2001 season.

Joe, 67, was born in Bogotá, Colombia. His family immigrated to Chicago seven years later before moving to San Francisco when Joe was 15. He attended Galileo High School in San Francisco, where he played baseball and football and was the quarterback of a team that featured O.J. Simpson as running back.

He worked in television and radio for many years in the Bay Area, including five years of Stanford University football and four years of University of San Francisco basketball.

Angel got his start in Major League Baseball in 1976, when he spent three years doing Giants games on KSFO radio with Hall of Fame broadcasters Al Michaels and Lon Simmons. He also spent two years as the television play-by-play voice for the Oakland A's. He spent three seasons with the Minnesota Twins on WCOO radio, 1984-86, and joined the Orioles radio team for three years in 1988. Joe spent one year doing New York Yankees broadcasts in 1991 before returning to the Orioles, then left again to become the first voice of the Florida Marlins. He did play-by-play on Marlins broadcasts for eight years, 1993-2000, including their 1997 championship season. He then did play-by-play for ESPN regional telecasts before returning to the Bay Area to do Giants games on radio and television for two seasons, where he often teamed with his former Orioles broadcast partner, Jon Miller.

In his 38 years of radio work with Major League Baseball, Joe has broadcast two World Series, 43 postseason games, and six no-hitters. His signature calls of "In the WIN Column," "Wave it bye bye" and "Hasta la vista pelota" are well-known to Orioles fans.

Joe and his wife, Antoinette, make their home in El Dorado Hills, CA, and have three grown children: Tony, Natalie and Jonathan.

It appeared inevitable that Fred Manfra's career plans would lead him to broadcasting Orioles games on the radio. One of his athletic highlights is hitting a double off the left field wall at Memorial Stadium in an American Legion game, and under his photo in the Patterson High School (class of '64) yearbook it says, "Fred's...future plans are in...Radio-T.V. work."

The Baltimore native returns for his 23rd season as radio voice of the Orioles. The award-winning sportscaster came back to Charm City in 1993 after doing 22 sports shows every weekend since 1981 on more than 500 stations for the ABC Radio Information Network. Manfra worked for ABC Radio for 15 years, hosting weekend sports programs, along with a number of other assignments for the network.

Baseball is only one of many sports Manfra has announced. His résumé includes some of the most prestigious events in the business, including NBA Finals and NBA All-Star Games (1985-91), 1984 Olympic men's and women's basketball and 1988 Olympic ice hockey, NHL Stanley Cup Finals and All-Star Game (1991), the Breeder's Cup (2000-2002), and Eclipse Award-winning broadcasts of horse racing's Triple Crown races (Kentucky Derby, Preakness at Pimlico and the Belmont Stakes) from 1982 through 2006.

His Olympic assignments have been varied and have taken him around the globe, including Sarajevo, Yugoslavia and Los Angeles (in 1984); Calgary and Seoul, South Korea (in 1988); Albertville, France and Barcelona, Spain (1992); and Lillehammer, Norway in February, 1994. His assignments have included men's and women's basketball in 1984 and ice hockey in 1988, as well as anchoring the Opening and Closing Ceremonies and other play-by-play and hourly updates.

Fred began his radio career in the early '70s at KREL in Corona, CA. He moved eastward with stops in Ventura, CA (KBBQ-FM/KBBY-FM); Davenport, IA (KSTT-AM); Milwaukee (WRIT-AM) and Detroit (WWJ-AM) in addition to AP Radio Network Sports in Washington, D.C., before settling in the New York area with ABC Network Radio.

He has done college football and basketball for the University of Iowa (1975) and the University of Michigan (1979-80), as well as USFL and Arena football, New York Knicks basketball, boxing, and wrestling. He also had done voice work for Madison Square Garden and for professional football team highlights films and the Sports Year in Review for ABC Radio Network (1983-1998). Along the way, he has received numerous awards for his live action and studio reports. In 1996, Fred was inducted into the Patterson High School Hall of Fame, the same year Orioles owner Peter Angelos was also honored by the school.

Fred and his wife, Marlene, live in Fallston, MD and are active in local charity work. Fred is on the advisory board of the Salvation Army of Baltimore and the board of the Albert Close Foundation in Harford County, and Marlene is on the board of the National Kidney Foundation of Maryland and is also involved with Stella Maris hospice center. They have two adult daughters-Michelle, who lives in Pembroke, MA with her husband Gary and works at Children's Hospital Boston; and Stephanie, who resides in Hollywood, FL with her husband Beck and works with the Alliance for a Healthier Generation. They also have one granddaughter, Marlowe.
